THE LUTHERAN VISITOR, COLUMBIA, S. C., JULY 18, 1873.

Poetry.

For the Lutheran Visitor. Crucified Unto the World-BY M. E. S.

Our Master saith, "Love not the sinfn t bath revolted from its rightful Lord, ts spirit never can with His accord, d high bath Satan's banner been up-

If we belong to Christ the world will hate, For it can only truly love its own, And soon our fellowship it will disown With haughty pride and seornful joy

It severs its wily prince with ardent seal, Our King we follow too through woe or

These rival potentates can never unite, Antagonistic as the distant poles, Or as the blazing sun which o'er us rolls Is to the gloomy shades of sombre night. Their aims can not be made to harmonize, And we can never homage pay to both, For one our hearts will love—the other loaths

Then let us sunder all the potent ties That from our Lord allegiance would Transferring to His for our ardent seal.

Oh! may our hearts for e'er be dead to sin, And crucified unto earth's vanities, For only deadly poison in them lies, And endless death their glittering shapes

What graceful beauty in their outward

What s ous innocence they meekly

E'en the most wary one will feel no fear rom glowing loveliness with life so

But from them all our eyes must turn away, Ere they ensuare us only to betray.

Oh ! wondrous is bright Pleasure's dazzling spell ! Hergraceful form bedecked with jewels ers, the Lord go with you and give Her shining bair enwreathed with flow you favor in the eyes of the owner ers fair : But oh ! her syren songs are but the knell Of those who follow her thro' earthly joy O'er laughing mirth's gay path to endless wee, Where lust unsated must forever grow To mock the soul that pleasure could not

The pride of life, the fleshly lust, the eye-All, all, the Lord commands to crucify.

Miscellaneous.

The Newspaper an Educator.

Just now, when so many journals asnes of educating influences in selves as others see them :

world 1 The political press, with all its principles and men. Surely christ who is required by Providence to be educate their children.

after the reapers. They, did not The merely literary press of the have reaping machines then as we se is not the wholesome educator deserted an old friend; in other demanded in families. Too often words, who ordered their paper to and after taking breath, as he was with a reaping hook, or knife, confiled with the sensational trash of he "stonged." sequently there were many stalks the "dime novelist," if it does not left here and there over a field that at once disgust the reader when the had been missed by the reapers, and blush of shame mantles to the cheek, the capital city of a neighboring newspaper in the world; nothing often a gleaner could get quite a it repeats its work, to weaken morals state, a man of wide influence and but a deep sense of injury would inand scoff at true picty. The so of excellent character. The wife of called literary press, of this country one of the elders of his church was the high-toned educator of mind tor wrote a beastiful and fitting months ago a communication repeland manners so "devoatly to be sketch of her life and character, and ling a false statement concerning the households, literary institutions, or tion. He watched for its appear, no notice, and I have been conin the youthful circles of the general ance, one woek and another, and strained to discontinue the paper. readers.

chance to go.' So Ruth chanced to go into the field of Boaz, or rather The scientific press as an educator and he saw nothing of it, his soul but I could not take leave without the Lord directed her steps thither is doing good, so far as it presents was vexed within him, and he sat calling upon you personally to ex-When Boaz came to his field to see the brain product of the inventor ; him down in his study, where he press my gratitude for the great en-

a conversation the Observer had re-Unreasonable Peopla. peated a remark made by some one reflecting upon the University of Editors have probably more opportunities than any other class of per- Virginia, of which the General was sons for discovering unreasonable one of the trustees. The paper was people, and we second a tale unfold" in no way responsible for the reare discussing the object and sphere of such, with multitudes of illustra- mark, which was correctly reported, of the newspaper, and with com- tions, "Ironaus," of the New York and was not endorsed. The Genemendable propriety giving the weight Observer, gives the following, which ral, more formidable with the pen of argument in favor of a virtuous are well worth reproducing, and than with the sword, sent an indigpress, is it not timely to call special which, we hope, will be prefitable mant remonstrance to the Observer, attention to the ennobling claims of for doctrine and shame to whom it repelling the statement as a libel the religious press, and its regular may concern, when they see them upon the University, which he procooled to enlogise in high but wellthe tens of thousands of families The Apostle desired to be delivered deserved terms. Months passed by thoroughout our country and the from unreasonable men. Yet be had and the General never saw his reply never been the califor of a news, in his favorite paper. It was too paper. How much more carnestly bad. He could not put up with such pretension to virtue, it must be and frequently he would have prayed treatment. He was coming to the acknowledged, is little better than for deliverance from such people, North, and he would stop his paper the channel of slander, vituperation had he known the trials and tribe and give the editor a piece of his and studied misdirection, both of lations through which one must pass mind! He carried his bloodless purpose into full execution. Without tian people do not wish by these to the conductor of the periodical press. waiting for an explanation he direct and the Otherser to be discontinued. examples of unrealenable men who and asked for an interview with the editor. I received him cordially, > old and heavy, and had mounted to the fifth story, he said ; "I have long loved your paper; it is the best duce me to deny myself and family its instruction, information and en at least, it must be admitted, is not called home by death, and the doe tertainment; but I sent you four when four weeks had passed away I ordered it stopped as I came up,

A NEW YORK ELDER.

An elder in one of our city church for Liver Complaint and the painful off-pring, DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Bilious attacks, SICK HEAD-Price, in Sheep. ACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, CHILLS AND FE-Dark Arab Arabesque Gilt. Morocco Tucks, gilt edge. VER Sc. Sc. Morocco, extra gilt Turkey

After years of careful experiments, to meet a great and urgent demand, we now produce from our original Genuine Pow-Turkey Morocco, Turkey Antique,

THE PREPARED.

With gilt clasps, 30 cents extra. Ministers and congregations quested to send on their orders to whom a discount of ten per a Liquid form of SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, containing all its wear-derful and valuable properties, and offer PULPIT EDITION.

ONE DOLLAR BOTTLES.

Price, in Sheep, $2; Arabese edge, $3; English Turkey, $1 cent. discount made to those wh The Powders (price as before) ..... $1.00 per package.

CAUTION ! .41 Buy no Powders or PREPARED SIM-MONS" LIVER REGULATOR unless in our engraved wrapper, with Trade mark, Stamp and Signatu other is genuine.

VANDUZEN

Revs. Rude &

TEW SERIES.

Bible.

s such as Debou They would h men than women. mount of moral simulates to the perfor Colambia 8 tatable and unpopular whiles her to adhere GEORGE S. HACKER'S ictions of right in t ion, as well as Door, Sash and Blind Factor a nhysical courage for which it may be o much to be adm anded in a woman, yet high causes her to vie es of a battle-field lesirable gift. I the loving Ruth, the pla od does not always

His instruments are ing to execute His med her aunt-"as i

Moses and Jonah-w

s with their tastes.

ations; or when th in weakness, anticipa defeat, yet I do not selects one that is erent to His glory.

ing His own children.

ers who are uncousci ats, and imagine they a t their own designs, w ne God is the propel

s true children burn w abor for His glory, and s a project before them it from their own ide such ose what we will or v ed Shunamite, the

In this letter I will give you a few A DOCTOR OF DIVINITY. He was a distinguished mator

And must we all these pleasing things And only grief and self-denial know, Nor ever feel sweet pleasure's happy Nor pluck bright flowers in mirth's sun-And thro' his mortal days the cros Dust beau

"ill in immortal life the crown he wear, joys immortal purest bliss afford. walks thro paths of sorrow and of Till in im

And even so must those who bear His

Is it not sweet His sufferings to share. Who for us trod the wine-press all alone, E'en 'till the swful ery of "It is done," In auguish deep resounded thro' the air † If partners of His grief will share His

In glory bright forever with Him reign, For only those who walk with Him in

As heirs of royalty He'll ever own, Then on the cross let sinful pleasure dis And all that this world values—crucify Children's Department. For the Lutheran Visitor.

Ruth.

"Mother, we would like to hear about Ruth, if you please," said Suhad been related by her mother.

"Do you remember anything about Ruth 17 said Mrs. B.

"You told us that she was the great-grandmother of David," said Henry.

she was very beauti-"And that ful," added George

"Yes, I ren ber that I promised to give you her story at some future you go out with his maidens; do christian poor, or the palace of lux time, and I will relate it now with just as he told you to do, and remain nry, the home of the rich. It goes a pleasure. once in the land of Israel, and a vest.' So Ruth prospered, and by to the child, the youth, the student man by the name of Elimelech, and the end of harvest she had gotten a the scholar, the aged, blessing homer his wife Naomi, with their children, left Palestine and went into the land of Moab to live while the famine should last. The inhabitants of that she always had plenty to take public opiniou"shall be formed, and Moab were directly descended from Lot's oldest daughter, and also the Ammonites from his younger daughter, so that the Moabites considered themselves as distantly related to how the reapers worked, he saw a strange young woman, followed with the other maidens af ter the reapers. Then Boaz asked the head man of the reapers, 'Whose damsel is this ? He replied, 'Ruth, the woman from Moab who returned with Naomi ; she asked me to let her glean after the reapers, and I gave her leave.' Then Boaz went to Ruth and told her that she was wel come to gather grain there, and that during harvest she should remain near his maidens, and drink and eat with them, and that no one should trouble her.' Ruth bowed herself to the ground and thanked him for his kindness, but he told her that he had heard how kind she was to Naomi, and that the Lord would recompense

"That was the place where Jesus

"Yes, that was the same village.

When Naomi returned her kinsfolk were rejoiced to see her, and welcomed her and Ruth, but she told them of all her troubles that the Lord had sent upon her, that, where as she had gone away with her husband and two sons and plenty worldly goods, she had left her fam ily lying in the land of Moab, and had returned home poor and old to them also how dutiful and good

Ruth was to her, and so won for Ruth the good opinion of her kindred. Naomi had a kinsman who was quite rich, and had many fields of grain. His name was Boaz. The time when they returned was at the beginning of barvest, and it was the custom for young girls, who were poor, to go into the fields and glean now do, but the grain was cut bag of grain, in the course of day, by picking up what was left on the field. Naomi said to Ruth, We are poor, my daughter, and as you wish to go and glean after the reap-in her own country. She tole was born," said Susie, leaving her own hand to take care "Thy word is truth." of her mother-in-law. Then he told her to come at meal time and eat of The religious newspaper, if conhis bread, and when she did so he ducted on the line of true education, gave her some parched corn, and is at once a teacher of politics, a she was near, and purposely let of science, and an educator of the handfuls of grain fall for her to pick truth, "able to make wise unto sal, you will recur to the Observer four sie B. soon after the story of Jonah up. Ruth went home at night with vation." a nice parcel of barley, and when Here is the power of the press in she had been. Ruth told her 'in the great facts which most deeply confield of Boaz.' Naomi said, 'Blessed cern men in their relationship both be the Lord who hath not left off his to time and eternity. kindness to the living and the dead. To my mind, we have no forces -This man is our next kinsman.' life development equal to those pre-

Rath told her what Boaz had said to sented through the religious weekly her, and Naomi said, 'It is good that as it enters the home of the hamble There was a great famine near the reapers till the end of har- true educator-over hill and plain > good deal of barley for her and her and firesides with its varied lessons mother-in-law. The reapers obeyed of wisdom, resting firmly on the the directions of Boaz, and let many "rock of ages," the smitten rock of handfuls of grain fall for Ruth, so an inspiration by which a correct.

home with her at nightfall." "That was very kind in Boaz, mother, was it not "

newspapers have they so fully met "Yes, he was a good man, and I the necessities of the several classes the Hebrews by blood, although they | think must have loved Ruth already, of society as they do to day. Never never went with Jacob's family into for we find that when he found out, have they as now, girdled the world Egypt. The two sons of Naomi saw after harvest was done, that he was as with a golden zone of lightening two young, girls in the land of Moab the next kinsman to her who had influences, blessing and bloding.

a pure private life be cultured.

Never in the history of religious that pleased them well, and so they the right to be her husband and Let the cross surmount the press, married them and lived happily for protector, that he very quickly and, as the real educator, next to but even here we must speak of fail- was wont to prepare his mighty ser- joyment you have given me in years ure, for the mere pursuit of science, mons, and indited a melancholy let- past, of which I shall retain lively any of its departments, through ter, an obituary or farewell letter to and pleasant recollections bereafthe newspaper alone, as the repre- the paper, testifying to his love for fur, sentative organ of discovery, art and it as an old and valued friend from While he was talking, I was turoscience, will prove but a false educa- which he had received the greatest ing over the pages of the file of tor, because, in such representative refreshment and delight through papers lying at my side, and when papers, morality and religion, as the many years; but adding that his be had finished a five minutes speech, basis of all real progress and devel feelings had been so grievonaly of which I have given only a brief, opment, are ignored, or, as a matter wounded by the neglect to publish I called his attention to an article of policy, tabooed, in order to seenre the notice he had sent, he was conwhich I had discovered, in leaded the patronage or gratify the stilled strained to request that his paper be type, on the editorial page, and bear conceit of the Christless scientist. ing his own illustrious name. I put

I wrote to him a letter of four the file before him, and asked him if Who would turn to the scientific large pages, setting forth the reasons he ever saw that before ? He was press as the real educator of the reading public? While truth is why we can not insert one half of the amazed, confounded, mortified, and there found-truth in the principles obituary notices received ; while a I think a little mad ; und at himself spread before its readers.... it lacks few circles of friends would be grati. for making such a pitiful exposure nerally a considerable loss of memory, the ring of a genuine statement of fied, the great majority of readers of his vanity and irascibility, and her for her trust' in Him, and for truths, which underlie all science, all complain of the spice taken up with mand at me for letting him go on discovery, all art, and all history, them; and that "hetvervise the beat such length, when I knew all the judgment we have and deeply regret time that he would be squelched com-that we must soffetimes offend our pletely as soon as he was silent. He best friends whom we would have to made an humble applogy, regretting oblige and please. Having thus span greatly, and I have no doubt sintold the young men to notice when conservator of literature, a defender out the argument of apology to great every, that he had committed such length, I added this postscript ; wir an egregious blunder, and withdrew. Whether or not he stopped in the office below and with lrew his order. weeks ago, the week when your tice was sent, you will find it printed I have never taken the trouble Naomi saw it she asked her where its sanctified mission. It repeats the in full, occupying an entire column inquire, and do not know. of the paper ?"

He did not answer my letter, and es brought to the office a notice of a whether he countermanded his order public meeting to be held the next to stop I never learned.

week. It was proper that the notice A FARMER'S CONSCRETENCE. should be paid for as an advertise A farmer came to my office ment, but he said nothing of paving that he had ardered his paper for it, hoping that he would save be stopped, but could not leave a dollar by the generosity of the without coming up stairs to see the itor and having a little talk with publishers. Failing to see the notice in the paper, he hastened to the He maid :

"You do not condemn the practice office, and in great wrath ordered selling milk on Sabbath, and my his paper to be discontinued. As no a paper is stopped until all arrearages acience will not let me take newspaper that declines to denounce are paid, and he had failed to pay ses great a sin." for six years past, his bill was made out with interest for every year, and Editor .--- "But it is a question the the whole at the price to delinquent ban two sides to it, and subscribers. His temper was up and he paid "the bill. Hut he mon agrained it me is allo."

immediately shown that his notice had been conspicuously printed, and and it ought to be put a stop to." without any charge, in the very pa-mer in which he wished it to apsome, and milk them on Sabh and take care of the milk just as you pear. One more example of these sureaother days 7" the most medification multip con thinks

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK READACHE.

FOR THE CURE OF

Symptoms of a Discased Liver. AIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure ; netimes the pain is in the left side ; the matient is rarely able to lie on the left de a sometimes the pain is felt under the blade, and it frequently extends the top of the shoulder, and is some-The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in neral are costive, sometimes alternative law; the head is troubled with in, accompanied with a dull, heavy enaution in the back part. There is geaccompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought o have been done. A slight, dry cough patundant. The patient dains of wearings and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burnmg, and he complains of a prickly sensaon of the skin ; his spirits are low ; and hough he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitade enough to try Sefact, he difficants every remedy. the above symptoms attend the sease, but cases have occurred where ew of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the Liwan to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES or Acue and Fever, when taken with Ouinine, are productive of the most happy alts. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. le would advise all who are afflicted is this disease to give them a FAIR

Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., PITTSBURGH, PA.

are and Physicians ordering from other limit, and do well to write their deder fa. C. M Landa, propo ma trial, we will forward per small, post-pair t of the United States, one box of Fills throating postage strange, or one vial of Versal families the state of the strange of the strange. All orders from Ca must be a composition by recently cents extra. toppers geometrolly

Dr. C. M'Lane's Vermifuge wild be kept in every nursery. If you would have er children grow up to be attactury, strang, and M'LANE'S YERMIFUGE, TO EXPEL THE WORMS. P- RETARE OF IMITATIONS.

242-cow-ly May 9

RUPTURE CURED. somable people, and I have done with them, wishing I had never be-Marsh's Radical Cure Truss. bath; they come and take it away. A POLITICAL CHRISTIAN. While at Washington about twenty years ago, and the guest of the Springs will not Rust. Pads Impervious President, I had occasion to observe. his practice of assembling his house-THE best and most effective Truss known for the cure and relief of hold for family worship. Thinking Hermia or Rupture. that it would gratify every christian | ceived the sanction of the most eminent obvsicians of this country, who do not in the world to know the fact, and itate to recommend it to those afflicted with Hernia as being superior to all that the example would be salutary. I made a paragraph respecting it, It is the only Truss that will retain the and published it in the Observer; A howels with any certainty, and the wearer can feel assured that he is using a remedy that will be at all times safe and effectual subscriber in Hartford, Conn., wrote in its operations. Of this we guarantee entire satisfaction to all who may come at ones to this effect ; "I have always had perfect confidence in the statements of the N. Y. Observer. Ladies' silk elastic abdominal belts for corpulency, falling of the womb, and as a support to the back and abdominal but I do not believe that ways in his family or anywhere else. muscles. Anklets, knee caps and stockand no paper that says he does shall come inside of my house. Shoulder braces for ladies, gents and And so this good christian, bechildren, for the cure of stooping of the shoulders and as a chest expander. mase he hated the President, would Pile Instruments, the most superior article in use-light, casily adjusted and effectual. Instruments for all physical deformities, curvature of the spine, bow of tolerate a paper that said, "Behold be prayeth. I could multiply these examples, but I confess that nothing in the line ers, club feet, &c. of auroasonableness and all unchar-Agent for Clement's Celebrated Artificial Limbs. itableness had ever exceeded that of the Hartford political christian. Ob-Agent for Grandall's Patent Rubber Agent for Dr. Babcock's Silver Uterine serve, I do not call him a christian an. I do not so regard him. He was a political christian, and it Agent for Dr. Wadsworth's Stem Per-Ladics' Apartment with a competent he hold that the man whom he oplady in attend posed in politics was a praying man ! Orders per mail promptly attende S. MARSH. 92 W. Baltimore St.

the benevolent and N<sup>O</sup> imported work kept on hand a supply the country trade. If work is made at our own factory in be city, and under the proprietor's Send for Price List. Factory Ware Rooms : King, opposite Cama Street, on line of City railway, P. ( Box, No. 170. July 7 Railroads. Change of Schedule. SOUTH CAROLINA R. R. COMPANY, Change of schedule, to go into effeta and after Sunday, 29th instant : Mail and Passenger Train. Arrive at Charleston ..... cave Charleston Arrive at Columbia Night Express, Freight and Accomments tion Train (Sundays excepted). non it their homage cave Columbia Arrive at Columbia "I have always shud Arrive at Charleston ..... ding the history of Ja eave Charleston ..... Camden Train will run Monday, We red," said Jessie : "an esday and Friday as follows: lp but sympathize wit Leave Columbia subject of such trea Arrive Camden ... eave Camden. ugh I know he on Arrive at Columbi well-merited punishur A. L. TYLER, Vice-Pres would have preferred n S. B. PICKINS, Gen Ticket Agt. ent in inflicting it ; but

The Short Line Schedule C. C. & A. RAILROAD COMPAN GENERAL TICKET DEPARTMENT

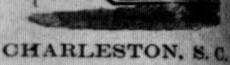

COLUMBIA, June 18, 1876 ON and after MONDAY, June 16, 1 over this road : OING NORTH.

Train No. 2. Train N Leave Augusta, 3 52 a m Leave Graniteville, 4 45 a m Arrive Columbia, *8 29 a m Leave Columbia, 842 a m Arrive Charlotte, 12 27 pm

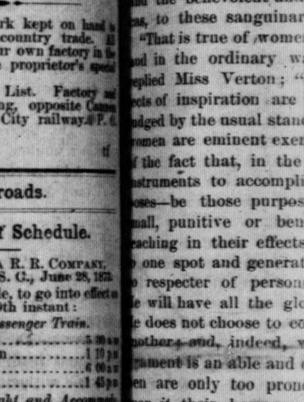

GOING SCUTH. Train No. 1. Train No. Leave Charlotte, 4 20 a m Arrive Columbia, 9 30 a m cave Columbia. *9 45 a m Leave Graniteville, 1 10 pm Arrive Augusta, 12 00 p m *Breakfast. 1Dinner. 181

Standard time 10 minutes slo Washington ; six minutes faster f

All trains run daily. No. 2 m North and East, either via Danville Richmond, Raleigh, Weldon, Petersion and Richmond, or Raleigh, Welde Portsmouth and old Bay Line steamer also, at Richmond also, at Richmond, with Chesaper Ohio Road, for the Virginia Spri about ten years, then both of the availed himself of the right, and the parent, and God's appointed brothers died. Elimelech, Naomi's made it known to the elders and agency, the preacher, the press shall husband, had died some time before, the inhabitants of the city, telling record the glory of truth's mission, away !" and so she was left alone with her them that he would take care of while repeating the very lessons two daughters-in-law. Naomi de- Naomi and Ruth, and calling them which can give to man peace, and to termined to return to her own coun- to witness that he took Ruth to be God all the honor. come into the elty had sell it." try; for she heard that there was his wife. We find that God gave plenty of food again in Palestine, them a son who was called Obed, and so she started upon her journey and he became the father of Jesse, on foot. Her two daughters in law who was the father of David. Ruth went with her a short distance, and was known by all the city to be a then Naomi said to them, 'You had good, amiable woman, and her kindbetter return to your own mother's ness to her mother in law, Naomi, house, and find husbands for your- was very remarkable. God blessed selves; amongst your tribe, and the her and her descendants, for we find Lord bless you for your kindness to that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was me." The two girls answered her of the house of David, and conse that they would go, with her to the quently descended from the beauti land of Judah, but Naomi told them ful Monbitish girl, Ruth."

W. J. DUFFIE, Be

that 'she was old and poor, and not able to take care of them, and that they would be strangers in her land and they had better remain with their kindred.<sup>1</sup> Orpah, the older one, kissed her mother-in-law, and wept as she bade her good-bye, bu Ruth could not be persuaded leave Naomi, but told her that she would go with her, and that her God should be hers also, and her peop and country she would adopt for hers too, and that nothing but death should part them. Then Naomi and Ruth journeyed towards Bethle-is good 1-Religious Herald. Golden Thought .-- The man who never failed is a myth. Such a one never lived and is never likely to. All success is a series of efforts, in palliative in dyspepsia and in many retired without standing on the which, when closely viewed, are seen of the disorders affecting the stomach der of his going, and I have never more or less failures. The mountain and bowels. Taken in doses of a seen or heard from him since. is apt to overshadow the hill, but teaspoonfal, night and morning, it is the hill is a reality nevertheless. If an almost unfailing corrective of you fail now and then, don't be costive habit. Mixed with softening discouraged. Bear in mind it is poultices, it is cleansing, soothing associated with our national socie. was gall and wormwood to him to only the part and experience of and healing to foul sores. An oc- ties as a leading christian philan every successful man, and the most casional dose of the powder produces throught, and if I were to mention it If you should ask me, "How dwellsuccessful men often have the most a favorable improvement in sallow thonsands would accognize it with eth the love of God in such a man T or tawny complexions.

No family can be said to be well Sabbath by wholestir, and come governed, then, where the religious me to deponnce, as great sinner newspaper is not found. What parent can afford to live without it, infants, and sick people in the city as now conducted ? What Sabbath- My indignation at his hypocrisy school teacher, who really cares for rose, and I ross to my feet with the culture of his class, can afford so those Christlike feelings that Jesus great a loss as in the failure to take had when he flourished the scourge a religious nowspaper ? What pas- over the defilers of the temple and tor, who really desires the elevation drove them out. I told him that I of his people and their enlargement, had no words adequate to the and influence, can rest until his pression of my contempt for such a parish is filled with the religious conscicute as he rightended to keep, newspaper-the editator of all that and I begged that he would relieve me from the necessary of any forther Endowersenses with a lamb in Charcoal is a valuable internal poor humanity as he presented.

A VERGENTA OFFICERAL. He was eminent in Church an State, His name was prominently pleasure and respect. In reporting | I should reply, "I give it up."

Judge; so I suppose we hold the meed of ad ville Branch on Mondays, Wet Fridays. On Anderson Bran Belton and Anderson, on Thursdays and Saturdays. Deborah." THOS. DAMEAD, General S JABES NORTON, General Ticket 40

Baltimore, Md.