Obituaries.

George H. Cauble, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cauble of Faith, N. C., was born October 17, 1900, and departed this life January 17, 1902, aged 1 year and 3 months. He was a child of the covenant, having been given to the Lord in holy baptism. Four times has the angel visited this home and taken a flower away. While the parents are grief-stricken they are consoled in knowing that "He doeth all things well." V. Y. B.

Sarah A. Cauble departed this January 12, 1902. She was born March 30, 1834, making her age 67 years, 9 months and 12 days. On the Sunday of her death she attended divine services as usual, apparently as well as ever, but the summons came suddenly to quit terrestrial things to enter upon celestial realities. She was more or less present upon all the services of her church and apparently devoted to the same. May we think of her as living forevermore. For His chosen cannot die. Peace to the blessed dead that die in the Lord. H. A. Trexler.

Died in Savannah, Ga., January 7, 1902, Magdalena Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Groot, at the age of 6 years, 5 months and 6 days. Thus a lovely life bud of rare promise was suddenly plucked by the invisible hand of the heartless destroyer, Death, and removed from this earth-garden to live and blossom forever in the heavenly Paradise. Be comforted of God, fond parents, for the child is not dead; she has only fallen asleep in Jesus and will awake on the resurrection morn to enjoy perfect bliss in that home where no sorrow shall ever enter. M. J. E.

Mrs. Daniel Paillippi, nee Mollie Corman, died January 18, 1902, lacking only ten days of being 73 years old. She was married to Mr. Paillippi on August 20, 1850. The result of this union was three children, only one of whom is living, Mr. M. L. Paillippi. She joined the Evangelical Lutheran Church at eighteen years, uniting with St. Paul's congregation, Wythe county, Va. She lived a consistent member until death came, and in that hour she was not alarmed, but having faith in the Master, and looking for deliverance from the trials of earth, exclaimed, "Come on, death!" Her funeral services were conducted in Hawkins' Chapel by Pastor Greiner in the absence of her pastor. Her remains were then taken to St. Paul's church and the burial service conducted by her pastor. D. S. F.

It is with sadness that we chronicle the sudden death of little Harry, the 9 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grovenstein of Oliver, Ga. To the human mind the ways of Providence sometimes seem strange. "Death loves a shining mark," and this abrupt breach in the home is wrapped in mystery until viewed in the light of divine revelation. What a comfort to know that he loved the things that lead to a brighter and better life. Never was he too busy to listen to the reading of the Bible, for God's word gave him special delight. The thought which should console the sorrowing parents is that they have given to God that which was His. Little Harry has only been translated from a transient home on earth to his eternal home above. "Suffer the little children to come unto me." T. W. S.

Little Bessie Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Franklin, died at Graniteville, S. C., January 22, 1902, aged 1 year, 4 months and 20 days. Our blessed Saviour gently folds the lambs in bosom. J. D. S.

Died in great peace January 17, 1908, Mrs. Catherine Reynold, aged 70 years, 6 months and 8 days, Thirty-five years ago the writer received her into the North River Lutheran church, Hampshire county, W. Va., of which she was always afterward a quiet, consistent and worthy member. Her husband, sons and daughter who survive her "sorrow not, even as others which have no hope." P. Miller.

Miss Nancy Downick was born November 17, 1843, and departed this life January 6, 1902, aged 58 years, 1 month and 19 days. She was baptized in infancy and in early youth was confirmed in St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran church, Newberry county, S. C., in which connection she lived and died. Her life was one of suffering, never having enjoyed robust health, but she bore it with Christian fortitude. The immediate cause of her death was paralysis. Her remains were interred in St. Luke's cemetery amid a large concourse of relatives and friends. "Peace to her ashes and rest to her soul." H. J. Mathias.
