

CIVIL & CRIMINAL COURT

Court Which Convenes May 27 will be Mixed One

WHO THE JURYMEN ARE.

There are not Many Criminal Cases on the Docket, but Enough Likely to Consume Two or Three Days.—There will Only be Time for a Few Civil Cases the Last of the Week.

An examination of the docket of the court of General Sessions, shows the following cases which will doubtless be tried on Monday and Tuesday when court convenes on May 27th:

The State vs. Charlotte Simmons, murder.

State vs. W. J. Bellamy and Sam Bellamy, assault and battery with intent to kill.

State vs. Isaac Hughes, violation of dispensary law.

State vs. Andrew C. Faircloth and Charles S. Carter, burglary and larceny.

State vs. Mayo Morgan, larceny.

There are several cases on the contingent docket, but these will not take up much time.

The last days of the week will be taken up with civil business, and by agreement among the gentlemen of the bar, the following cases on the civil docket will come up for hearing:

State of South Carolina vs Bonding Company to recover shortage in the county treasury.

Gardner & Lacy Lumber Company vs. Joda Long et al.

Richardson vs. Richardson.

Oglvie vs. Conway Lumber Co.

The jury commissioners consisting of the county auditor, county treasurer and the clerk of court met recently and the following petit jury was drawn to serve at the court:

- H. C. Cannon,
- L. C. Tyler,
- J. M. D. Jones,
- W. H. Lawrimore,
- John L. Jones,
- J. M. Floyd,
- J. D. Watson,

- R. Vance Ward,
- J. M. Todd,
- J. M. Butler,
- W. T. Chestnut,
- W. M. Souls,
- G. F. Murrel,
- J. H. B. Edge.

Killed in Florida.

Mr. F. McDowell was killed at Sanford, Fla., about three weeks ago by being run over by a train. He was one of our Horry boys and his remains were brought to Loris and interment was at the Hardee burying ground. The sermon will be preached on the fourth Sunday in May by the Rev. J. W. Todd. We hope this deplorable accident will be a warning to the railroad managers. A Friend.

Nuts from Hickory Hill.

The health of this community is not very good at this writing. We are having some fine weather now.

Rev. J. W. Todd filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Meadow last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hodges, of Green Sea, were visiting relatives and friends here the latter part of the week. G. L. S.

Query Answered.

Mr. Editor: In a recent issue of your paper one of your correspondents asked "where was Moses buried?" He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpoor; but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.—Deut. xxxiv:6. Would like for your correspondent to tell me who Joab's father was? Twenty-One.

REUNION POSTPONED.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space to say to the Confederate Veterans of Horry county that the reunion, or picnic, anticipated to convene on the 3rd of June next, is hereby called off, but will be called again at as early a subsequent date as practical for the transaction of the business anticipated.

By order,
Jeremiah Smith,
Commander,
Camp Buck, U. C. V.

OBITUARY.

Rev. J. S. Cox, son of John and Nancy Cox, was born in Columbus county, N. C., May 29th, 1817 and died in the same county March 18th, 1897. He was married May 3rd, 1843 to Miss Serena M. Butler, of Horry county, with whom he lived in the greatest peace and union for nearly sixty-four years. Lovely and pleasant were they in life, and in death they were not divided.

Mrs. S. M. Cox, daughter of John and Lydia Butler, was born August 14th, 1824 and died April 24th, 1907, rejoining her dearly beloved husband in the better land after a separation of five weeks.

My pen is inadequate to portray the virtues of this extraordinary couple. They were both converted in early life and lived consistent Christian lives to the day of their deaths. They reared a large family in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

May their godly counsels sink deep into the hearts of their descendants; may the aroma of their consistent lives be a beacon guiding their children and grand-children into the harbor of bliss.

Mr. Cox was for many years a local preacher in the M. E. church, and many, very many were turned from darkness into marvelous light of the gospel by his cogent reasoning and persuasive eloquence, but more were won by his ever ready sympathy, his genial smile and his sweet words. The poor and distressed ever found true friends in this noble couple. They were given to hospitality; their doors were open alike to stranger and friend.

Mrs. Cox was a noted housekeeper looking well to the ways of her household and the heart of husband safely confided in her.

Five brave sons and five lovely daughters were given them to rear for the Lord, and nobly did they discharge their duty. One son died at the age of twelve and one daughter, Mrs. C. C. Butler, of Horry county, passed away in early womanhood. The eight children, with thirty-six grand children and thirty-three great grand children are left to mourn their loss on this side of the river, while on the other side, nineteen grand children awaited their coming.

Mrs. Cox leaves one brother, J. F. Butler, Fireway, N. C., and one sister, Mrs. Ella Barabill, of Horry county.

Mr. Cox, the last surviving member of a large family of thirteen children; his father, mother, brothers and sisters having been waiting for him many years. How joyfully sweet must that reunion have been! The lessons taught by their lives are many and useful. Fidelity to civil duty shown by the fact that Mr. Cox voted in the last election. Fidelity to God, evinced by their Godly walks and conversation, un-failing character and genial dispositions. Fidelity to mankind shown by their hospitality, kindness and love unfeigned. Their friends were numberless.

It is useless to say that their end was peace, their sun went down without a cloud. Such lives as they lived could have but one ending. Peace. Calmly and peacefully as one wrappeth the drapery of his couch around him and lieth down to pleasant dreams, so they make their exit from the stage of life.

God answer their last prayer and grant that not one of their descendants may be missing when the roll is called in heaven. Annie.

Pleasant Meadow Items.

Health generally good at present with the exception of a few cases of sickness.

The farmers are not as busy as they have been in their crops. At present crops are looking well considering what they have stood.

We have preaching on the first Sunday and Saturday before. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 9:30. Song and prayer service every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Cor.

Friend, what are you doing for the up building of Conway?

LORIS TO THE FRONT.

Leading Citizens will Organize a Bank There.

BOOKS OPEN ON MAY 31.

Among Those who are Behind the Enterprise are Thos. E. Cooper, J. C. Bryant, J. D. Graham, P. C. Prince and D. L. Gore. Other Business Men will Take Stock.

The business men of Loris and others at Mullins, S. C., and at Wilmington, N. C., will organize a bank there, the books of subscription to the capital stock to be opened at the office of the J. C. Bryant Co., on May 31st, as stated in the notice to that effect appearing in this issue.

The incorporators are Thos. E. Cooper, of Mullins, J. C. Bryant, J. D. Graham and P. C. Prince, of Loris; D. L. Gore, of Wilmington, and perhaps others at that point will be interested in the enterprise in a financial way. These names stand for some of the best trained business men and financiers in the country, and the concern will likely have success from the very first.

Thos. E. Cooper is cashier of the Merchants and Planters Bank of Mullins. He has not only the capital but the training in the banking business. D. L. Gore is the head of the large business at Wilmington which bears his name. J. C. Bryant, J. D. Graham and P. C. Prince are all business men well known in Horry, always ready to put forth extra efforts when the upbuilding of Loris is concerned.

Loris needs such an enterprise as this will be. She has made wonderful improvements during the last few years and with a good bank the next few years promises greater results than ever before in her history.

Tobacco Growers.

Some time ago the Herald asked the tobacco growers of the county to mail the acreage planted this year to the paper, with a view of gathering together sufficient information to make an estimate of the probable crop. The following planters reported:

- W. J. Hendricks, Four acres;
- Irvin Singleton, Three acres;
- E. J. Marsh, Three acres;
- J. H. Hendricks, Three acres;
- Housand Johnson, Three acres;
- G. Edwards, Four acres;
- W. D. Woodward, Three acres;
- W. F. Hardee & Bro., Three acres;
- J. J. E. Harrelson, Four acres;
- S. D. Anderson, Five acres;
- S. W. Vaught, Three acres;
- R. M. Little, One acre;
- H. Tompkins, Four acres;
- N. J. Booth, Seven acres.

This lacks much of giving us the information we wanted, but we have published the names of those who responded in the hope that others will be stimulated to send in the information. There are many others who are planting tobacco this year and the Herald would be glad to know who they are and how many acres they are planting.

Come to see when in town.

J. M. D. Jones was in town recently. H. B. Prince spent last Sunday in the city.

M. N. Bryant was in town one day recently.

ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO ARGO.

Jas H. Fowle spent Sunday with relatives in the country.

We have been having some rather cool days for the middle of May.

The Browns and Blues had a match game of base ball last Friday. The score was 26 to 8 in favor of the former.

Mr. P. M. Lee, of the firm of R. L. Lee & Co., will shortly be initiated into the mysteries of the Knights of the Grip Sack.

A large delegation will go from Horry to the Jamestown Exposition. It is probable the most of them will go on the same train with the Horry Hussars.

Mrs. W. L. Housend, of Conway, S. C., who has been visiting her brother Mr. James W. Hardwick, who has been quite sick and laid up with rheumatism, returned to her home on last Monday, accompanied by her son, who has been here for a few days.—Vineland Echo.

HORSE RUNS AWAY.

Mrs. B. T. Hyman and Mrs. Clyde Hooker are Thrown From Buggy and Latter's arm Broken

Last Tuesday a horse drawing a buggy in which Mrs. B. T. Hyman and Mrs. Clyde Hooker were riding, took fright in front of B. T. Hyman's grocery store and ran away. Mrs. Hyman jumped from the buggy and was not hurt very much beyond the excitement. Mrs. Hooker remained in the vehicle until it turned bottom side up, as the horse turned the corner at the livery stables, striking the vehicle against the telephone pole. Mrs. Hooker's arm was broken in two places and a physician was called.

From Cart-Wheel

Mr. Editor:—Will you please allow me space in your columns to reply to the correspondent from Gurley in regards to the question I asked some time ago? I asked the question: Who was Cain's wife, and in his answer he seems to be of the opinion that he married his sister, or half-sister. He referred me to Gen. 5:3, saying that Adam in his long life begat many sons and daughters, and there could be but little doubt that Cain married one of these numerous daughters. In reply to his answer, I will refer him to Gen. 4th chapter and read it carefully, and see if Cain was not married before Adam begat these numerous sons and daughters. Seth was the third child of Adam and Cain was certainly married before Seth was born. He said that as late as the time of Abraham, that Patriarch, married his half sister. I reckon that Abraham was the patriarch he had reference to. I want to ask him if Abraham's wife was his sister in flesh and blood or was she his sister in spirit. Abraham said: "Yet indeed she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife." Did Christ in any of his speeches and teachings ever claim to be the mother of any one? No! it was always father, therefore they were both children of Christ; brothers and sisters in spirit. That is my honest opinion, though I may be mistaken. I don't write this to mash any one's toes, whatever, I only express my opinion in regard to his answer.

Toddville Tidings

Miss Costa Long, of Greenfield, was in town this week.

W. F. Smith has been appointed postmaster at Virgo vice S. F. Sheely resigned.

Mrs. H. H. Woodward and children are spending the week here with relatives.

Col. J. F. Harper made a pleasant trip to Georgetown Monday and returned Tuesday on Steamer Mitchell C.

The farmers have a reasonably good stand cotton and corn, which seems to be promising. But there is practically no tobacco planted in this section.

Miss Mamie and Deesie Jordan, of Conway and Costa Long, of Greenfield, joined the music class of our school this week.

The article of J. Lewis Lee in the last issue of the Herald voices our sentiments. There is redress for the growers of strawberries provided they organize thoroughly. It is very evident that the railroads have no sympathy for the farmer and are only in business for the loaves and fishes. Not only should the berry growers become interested, but our members of the Legislature and all our business men should come together and not allow the railroads to practically crush an enterprise which has done so much for Horry. We hope that Mr. Lee will keep up the fight till something is accomplished. Those interested should present a solid front.

It is said the law and order league is turning things around now and we are told that much has been accomplished already. Any movement that has for its object the betterment of conditions socially, morally and financially should receive the encouragement of every law abiding citizen. The law and order league of Conway has a hard problem to solve, but the members are very determined and are influential. Members told your scribe to just watch results as there would be something doing in the near future as the illicit sale of whiskey had to stop.

As every one knows the price of fertilizers has steadily advanced since the Virginia Carolina Chemical Co. has had control of the situation. We would like very much to see a cotton seed oil mill established in Conway to be owned and controlled by Horry capital independent of the trust. It should be run for the benefit of the farmer and not as a money making scheme. If such men as D. A. Spivey, J. A. McDermott and W. L. Mishoe would take hold of the enterprise the necessary capital would soon be subscribed and we are sure that it would mean much for the prosperity of the Horry farmer as it would be very convenient for them to exchange their seed for meal.

Forecast.

A Narrow Escape

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at Norton Drug Co.

It's too bad to see people who go from day to day suffering from physical weakness when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea would make them well. The greatest tonic known. 35 cts. Tea or Tablets.

Socastee Items.

There is much sickness in the neighborhood at present. Johnnie Outlaw has been confined to his bed for two months with rheumatism. Mr. Wm. McCormick is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. H. S. Turbeville is erecting a handsome dwelling. L. R. Duncan and R. M. Prince are the contractors. What has become of our Supervisor? Socastee Bridge is in bad condition. One end is going down the swamp. Old 54.

Calhoun & Co. Closed.

Last week James A. Calhoun, trading as Calhoun & Co., had to close the doors of the business owing to financial difficulties which had been growing for some time. Mr. Calhoun regretted the situation which compelled him to take this action. The stock will inventory between two and three thousand dollars, and there is no shop worn goods in the lot, or practically none.

At Fayetteville, N. C., a brick building in which a dance was in progress collapsed and the dancers stampeded from the noises of the crushing walls. No one was hurt, however.

Warehouse to be Reopened.

The announcement is made to the public that the Horry Tobacco warehouse is to be opened this season. Col. D. A. Spivey, President of the Warehouse Co., succeeded in closing a deal with Mr. J. W. Glenn, of Danville, Va., whereby Conway is to again have a chance to prove whether she wants a tobacco market here or not.

Mr. Glenn is said to be one of the best warehousemen south of the Mason and Dixon's Line, and with the proper support of our business people, and the tobacco planters in the county, he will succeed in building a market here. In a communication he says: "I am coming among you to do a reasonable business and by hard work and fair and honorable dealing to build a good market. The consummation of this would help all citizens of your section and town, in consideration of which I hope to have the cordial cooperation and support of yourself and all your citizens."

This is well said and to the point. We believe Mr. Glenn means every word of it. Friends of the enterprise bespeak for him the cooperation he seeks.

The railroads are fighting a reduction of rates. And the railroads, too, together with the balance of the trusts, will have to vamoose the public teat upon which they have so long sucked and grown fat. The railroads, like other corporations, are killing the goose that laid the golden egg.

United States Deputy J. C. Bruton went to Port Harrelson last Friday with a warrant sworn out by S. M. Cook, one of the mail carriers, charging that Ole Anderson had run into his mail buggy. Messrs Charles B. Dusenbury and Robt. Laidlow came up to the city with Mr. Anderson and the deputy and quickly arranged his bond for his hearing at the preliminary investigation. Later there was a hearing of the matter and the case dismissed.
