MATERIALS.

Spaulding's Athletic Library, Cassell's Sports and Pastimes, Boston Book of 100 Games, Hofer's Singing Games and Folk Dances.

The books named below should be placed in each school library, or at least one of them:

1. Recreative Games and Plays for the School Room, by L. E. Earle.
2. Popular Folk Games and Dances, arranged by Mari R. Hofer.
3. Children's Singing Games—Old and New, by Mari R. Hofer, 59 west 96 street, New York City, Teacher's College.

I hope these selections, suggestions and exercises will be clipped from this paper by teachers and pupils and preserved for future use that they may aid them in getting up programmes for plays, and festivals and prove to be a beneficial addition to our school improvement work. Play doesn't mean anything unless done right—spirit in play, the ability to do things quickly, discipline in play as well as work. Hop, hop and skipping gives line of poise to body.

Winthrop college will send bulbs of various kinds free of cost to any rural school desiring them if the school will pay express charges. Address James P. Kinard, Rock Hill, S. C.

The little compositions written on School Improvement by the small children of Burroughs Graded school recently were excellent. They should be aided in their work and their little wants supplied as fast as possible. I hope to see and hear of more of this in our rural schools.

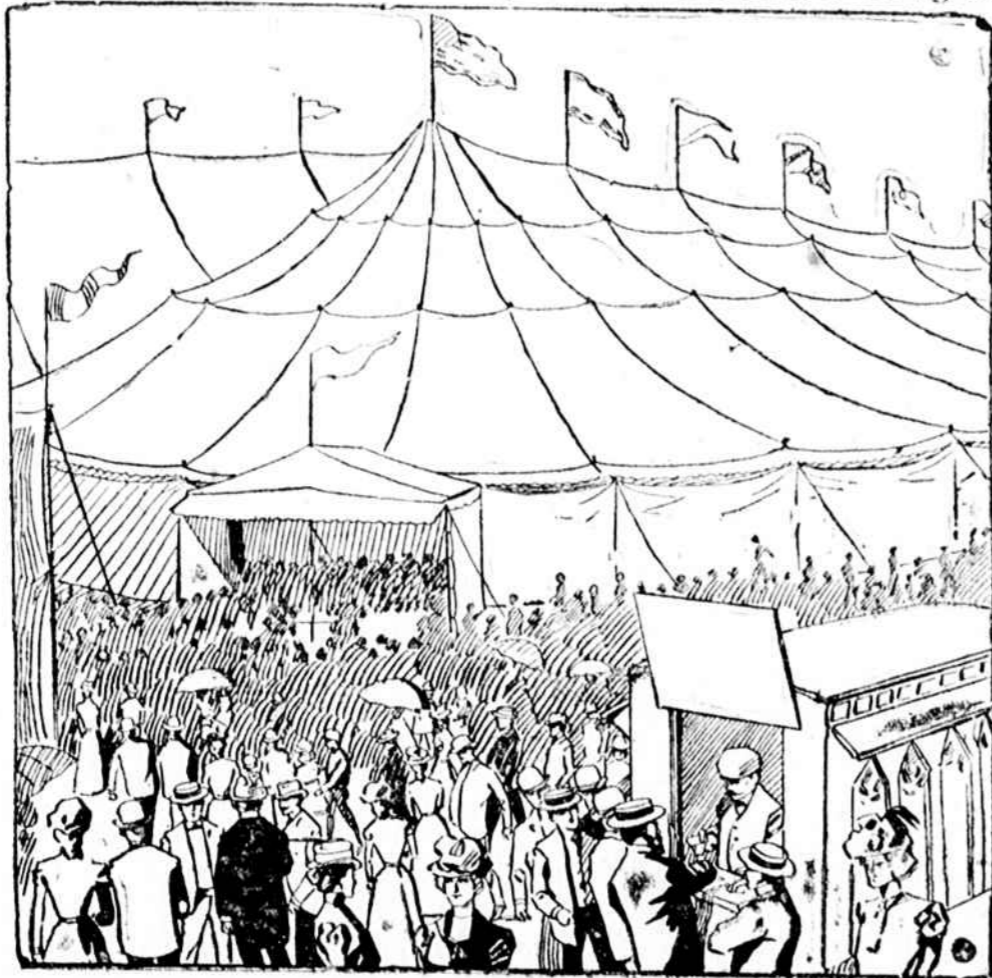

Sincerely,
Lettie Harrelson.
