

Mr. Van Norton Reply.

tion and, so far as I can learn, the Legislature has not corrected the Board's action in this matter.

There was no money in the Treasury of Horry County to pay liquor constables and no provisions to put any there for that purpose. So they must be paid out of some other fund; and it looks very much as if the Kingdon Lake Bridge, the repairs on which have been ordered stopped by the Commissioners over the protest of the Supervisor, or maybe, the Sardy Bluff Bridge, about which the Supervisor has been severely arraigned, have been the sufferers.

Certainly, something has suffered to the amount of Six Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

The laws of South Carolina prohibit the expenditure of funds arising from current taxes for the payment of indebtedness of any previous years, and also forbids the Supervisor to draw checks unless funds have been reported in the County Treasury to pay them, and forbids payment of checks drawn in violation of its provisions.

There are other laws besides the Cary-Cothran Act governing the methods and results of spending the people's money. Their protection against the useless waste of negligent officers has been ignored by our county Commissioners. We cannot afford to be governed by the Cary-Cothran Act alone. It is too expensive as applied by our Commissioners. If they know no other law governing a whiskey constables claim, they should study up or resign before they throw to the birds some more money we sorely need for roads and bridges.

It is only just for me to add that the Supervisor has consistently protested against the payment of these Mishoe Detective claims in the form and manner in which they have been presented to the Board.

The Passing of a Good Man.

It is a sorrow, and at the same time a sorrow mingled with joy that we chronicle the death of our old friend and acquaintance, Wm. A. Spivey. He died Sunday 7:00 a. m. at Moultrie, Ga., in the eightieth year of his age, and was buried Monday at the cemetery in the same place.

Mr. Spivey was born in Eastern North Carolina, and came to Horry County about the age of twenty-one and settled near Cedar Grove Church. He married Miss Frances Hughes, of Horry.

He was truly a good man; devout, scrupulously honest, and truthful. Without desire for display, he lived the simple and sincere life, which won for him the respect and affection of those who knew him well.

He was conscious of the approach of death and was fully prepared in mind and heart for it; expressing a desire to see and be with Jesus and his departed friends, mentioning Mr. James Hendricks, Sr., James McCracken Sr., his son and daughter, Hop and Ola, and his old pastor Rev. A. M. Noble and others. He leaves a rich heritage in his character and children, and goes to reap the rich reward of a well spent life.

Socastee School Closes

On Tuesday, May 21st, the teacher and pupils of the Socastee Graded School will give a picnic to which every one is invited. The day will be taken up as follows:

At 10:30 a. m. the May pole will be plaited—national colors will be used and a pretty exercise is assured.

Immediately after dinner a game of ball will be played, and at 4:15 p. m. the following program will be rendered by teacher and pupils.

Greeting—
Dialogue—The Last Day of School
Monologue—His First Case.
Dialogue—Aunt Betsy's Name sake.

No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken to bear expenses, and to add funds to the Improvement Association.

On the evening of Wednesday, the 22nd, beginning at 8:15 the final closing will take place.

PROGRAM.
Song—Building,
Dialogue—The Assessor.
Play—The Mischievous Nigger.
Address—C. P. Rice (principal of school)

Liggett & Ayers Tobacco Company Will Buy on The Mullins Market.

J. S. Neal, one of our leading warehouse men who always keep in close touch with the tobacco trade, writes a friend here that the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. will be a strong buyer on the Mullins tobacco market the coming season. This big company did not buy here last season, Liggett & Myers is a bunch of the old American Tobacco Co., and with their large capital of about thirty million dollars they will add much to this market. Jim Neal says that this strong company will be a strong buyer on the best types of tobacco's including the finest wrappers and cutters. Jim thinks good tobacco will sell well but common grades will sell lower if a big crop of common tobacco is made.—Mullins Enterprise.
