LIPPMAN'S GREAT REMEDY—P. P. P.

Dr. Alldredge, Regency, Texas, writes: "It is the leading blood purifier."
Dr. Whitehead, Metairie, La., prescribes it, and with P. P. P. completely cured J. H. Davidson, who had suffered fifteen years with blood poison and sores.

Rabbi Solomon, of the Savannah Congregation, writes: "I had seven attacks of Malarial fever lasting from a week to ten days. I took your medicine as a forlorn hope, but now confess that P. P. P. was a real benefit."

In Loving Remembrance.

On the morning of December 31st, the death angel visited the home of Mr and Mrs Iran A. Bell and took away with him the only little son, Donie Woodrow.

He was born on September 25th, 1913. He was sick eleven days with Spinal Meningitis. We hoped for his recovery, but our hopes were soon to be blighted. We did all we knew to do for him, and so did our doctors, Dr. Burroughs and Dr. Dunsberry, and our beloved neighbors, but nothing could stay the icy hands of death.

He was the light of our home and his leaving us has cast a gloom over our hearts and lives. His place is vacant and never can be filled, but we know that he is gone to heaven and is a bright shining angel there. He leaves a loving father and mother and three sisters to mourn the loss, but we mourn not as those who have no hope for our loss is his eternal gain. He is waiting in heaven bidding us to come on. We pray to God to bless and help us to meet him in heaven where we can live together again and where there will be no sorrow, parting or pain. A voice we love to hear is silent and a place is made vacant which can never be filled.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to weep.
So fadeeth the lovely blooming flower
The smiling solace of an hour,
So soon our transient comforts fly
And pleasures only bloom to die.
Is there no kind, no healing art
To soothe the anguish of the heart?
Spirit of grace be ever nigh,
Thy comforts are not made to die.
Let get'te patience smile on pain
Till dying hopes revive again,
Hope wipes the tears from sorrow
ing eyes
And faith points upward to the sky.
His Loving,
Father and Mother.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Conway Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a tad back,
A lame, a weak, or aching one,
Would you experiment on it.
You will read of many so-called cures.
Endorsed by strangers from far away places.
It's different when the endorser is a friend from home.
Easy to prove local testimony.
Read this Conway case:
B. F. Skipper, prop. Commercial Hotel, Main St., Conway, S. C., says: "I was annoyed by pain and lameness in my back and my kidneys. I didn't do their work as they should. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I got a box from the Norton Drug Co., and they gave me prompt relief. I have had no aches or pains since."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Skipper had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv
