derstanding, so far as we are informed, the majority of merchants and business men of the town closed their. places of business on Monday the 5th, and this was observed by most people the same as if it had been the real 4th.

When the regular afternoon train to Myrtle Beach left here about 1:30 it carried quite a number of excursionists who desired to spend the evening at that delightfully cool place. The railroad company ran a special train back to Conway after Care to spend the entire night there.

Lightining plays pranks in this county at times. Last Thursday afternoon late, at the cottage of Mr. C. B. Dusenbury, at Mrytle Beach, the latest manifestation took place. Mr. C. B. Dusenbury, Mrs. Sallie Shaw and Mr. Frank Clark were all on the porch when the heavy thunder cloud that is still remembered swept over this section of the country. Lightning struck one of the columns of the porch tearing it loose and knocking it down. All three persons were terribly shocked. Mr. Clark remained unconscious for an hour according to the news Holt was over-powered by Morgan reaching this point that night. The damage to the house was slight, as the building did not ignite. The Dusenbury cottage is situate several doors down the strand from the board walk. It is among the nicest cottages at the beach. Other members of the family were present at the cottage at the time it was struck but these escaped unharmed.

He was locked up in jail here and from his cell issued a written statement saying that he had intended no harm to Mr. Morgan, but had come to Glen Cove to persuade the banker to stop the shipment abroad of munitions of war from this country. He went into the Morgan home, he said, with a pistol in his hand, a stick of dynamite in his pocket intending to remain there till Mr. Morgan "did something."

Frank Holt, who shot J. P. Morgan oday, is the man who set the bomb that exploded in the Capital at Washington last night. In a statement to Justice Luyster and Thomas Tunney, head of the bomb squad of the detective bureau. Holt confessed setting the bomb and described it. As a missle of terror it was said to be unique in the annals of the New York police department.

I knew how much time I had, so I hung around while the acid was eating its way through the cork. I pulled out my watch and said to myself that it ought to be going pretty soon. And sure enough, it did go pretty soon. Then I hurried away."

Set Bomb at 4 O'clock.

According to Holt's confession he went to Washington, from New York yesterday, arriving there about noon. He wen to the Capital and set the bomb at 4 o'clock. He had timed the blast at midnight. After setting the explosive be strolled about Washington for several hours. In the evening he went to the Union station a few blocks from the Capital, and waited

TWENTY-ONE AMERICANS AMONG THOSE LOST

When the Armenian Went Down As Target of the German Submarine.

Washington, July 1.-The Leyland Line steamship Armenian was "engaged on admiralty business" when she was sunk by a German submarine off the Cornwall coast two days ago. Ambassador Page at London reported to the state department today he had "I made this bomb," Holt is quoted been so informed by British admiralty > Consul Armstrong at Bristol, who sent first word of the destruction of the steamer yeserday, reported to Ambassador Page today that 21 of the 29 men lost with the Armenian were Americans. He gave no additional names although previous lists includ ed only 20 Americans.

The ambassador's dispatch gave no further details on which the state de partment could base consideration of the case. He said that as the Armenian carried no passengers, presumably all Americans who perished were members of the crew. . minister Bal It was pointed out here, however, that Americans seeking cheap transportation frequently travel on such ships as passengers although they are signed on the ship's roll as members of the crew.

The department expected further dispatches from Ambassador Page and Consular Armstrong giving reports of survivors to show , whether the ship was duly warned by the German submarine commander and those aboard her given an opportunity to escape.

Officials of the steamship company have stated that the Armenian was not under charter to the British admiralty, but was sailing merely as a merchantman carrying contraband.
