THURSDAY, SEPT. 19, 1918.

Is it the nature of some people to violate the law?

Never put off until tomorrow those things which can be done to-day.

Training has a whole lot to do in the making of law-abiding citizens.

One of the things we can do to help win the war is to increase the Horry wheat crop.

Horry people are doing their part to back up the Horry boys who are in the trenches.

All that the American boys need is a chance to get at them.

Most of us are willing to run the risk of no end of trouble next week or month or year; rather than undergo a small hardship to-day.

Get ready and plant a wheat crop for harvest next Spring. Do not put it off until too late and then claim that you did not know.

Every man from this county who is in the fighting forces abroad needs the home paper. A number of the boys are getting it, but hundreds of them never see it now.

Too many of us are in the habit of saying: "That is Only a Mere Trifle," and passing things by without regard to the fact that small things, usually named as mere trifles, have the unexpected quality of bringing about great results.

Those who planted wheat last season should plant a larger crop this Fall. Thousands of farmers who have never grown wheat in eastern Carolina will raise wheat for the Spring crop of 1919. Flour is needed now and will be more in demand next year.

In times like the present the Kaiser, also the Crown Prince, and also Rupprecht of Bavaria, fail to find it healthy on the Western front, hence they all seek excuses for remaining away. Rupprecht was succeeded by another general and got away; the Kaiser's wife got sick and this is an excuse for his remaining at the palace with her, while the Crown Prince needs no excuse for leaving the rank and file whenever he feels like it. Is the Empress ill as news stories sent out from Berlin would indicate? She is likely as well as ever and her slight indisposition is only used as a mere excuse for the absence of the Kaiser on the Western front.

KNOW HIM AT LAST.

The effect of the disloyal speeches made by Cole L. Blease in 1917 was to show the masses of the people of this State, the true character of the man no matter under what guise he had previously been masquerading over the political field of South Carolina. His making the speeches did not change his character. He had

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has proved more satisfactory than any other laxative I have ever used. The other members of my family also use it and we recommend it highly."

(From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mr. Charles Fenske, 5005 N. 5th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.)

Dr. Caldwell's
Syrup Pepsin

The Perfect Laxative

Sold by Druggists Everywhere 50 cts. (Two Sizes) $1.00

A combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts in an easy, natural way, and is as safe for children as it is positively effective on the strongest constitution. A trial bottle can be obtained free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 458 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois.

been the same man before he made the speeches. He was the same man afterwards, but the people of the State, before that time, did not know what manner of man Cole L. Blease was. Some of the people knew and refrained from casting their vote for him, but those who knew could not convince the rest of the people, and thus he managed to fool the people into thinking that he was something which he was not and never had been. The speeches showed the people his true character as one who would not stick to his country in a time of need. One who would willingly blackmail the president of his country if he could find any excuse for doing it. In short, the speeches he made at Filbert and Pomaria, "let the cat out of the bag" in so far as the rank and file of his former followers were concerned. His constituents found him out as a result of this and what they did for him in the recent primary shows they know Cole L. Blease at last.

Watch your label on this paper.
The War Industries Board has made regulations, one of which requires publishers to quit sending a paper when the time is out. You like this paper and in fact you need it. If your time is out renew it today and do not wait until after October 1st, when the price will be $1.50 per year. If paid now in the month of September it is only $1.00 per year and you can take it that way for as many years in advance as you desire.

BOLL WEEVIL ON THE MOVE.

Clemson College, S. C.—The cotton boll weevil was found for the first time in South Carolina last fall. During an inspection of the weevil territory the past week, the weevils were found scatteringly in the cotton fields of western Beaufort and Jasper Counties. It appears therefore that the weevil has begun its migration.

Attention is directed that the Pest Commission are governed by weevil movements, and will be changed from time to time as the weevil advances. The State Crop Pest Commission will provide for the shipment of material whenever there is every assurance that such action is safe, and commerce will be interfered with just as little as possible.
Occasionally some party visiting weevil territory will bring back with him live weevils in a bottle to show his friends. This is a violation of the State law. It is a most serious offense and such violations will be prosecuted. It has been presumed that this has been done thoughtlessly with no malicious intention, but this does not protect South Carolina territory. A person may do something thoughtlessly in favor of the enemy, but if he does it he is not a patriot.
Slogan, "Leave all boll weevils in their own cotton patches."

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXA-TIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary quinine and does not cause nervousness or ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the name of E. W. GROVE, Inc.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Under and by virtue of an Order of the Probate Court, we, the undersigned administrators of the personal estate of W. R. Lewis, deceased, will sell to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, the following described property belonging to said estate, at the times and at the places hereinafter stated to-wit:

On October 3, 1918, at Windy Hill farm on the seashore in Little River Township, beginning at eleven (11) o'clock in the forenoon we will sell all and singular the stock of cattle and hogs at said place as well as other property there belonging to the said estate.

On October 4th, 1918, at the late residence of the deceased in Conway, S. C., beginning at eleven (11) o'clock in the forenoon we will sell all and singular the household and kitchen furniture and also two mules, as well as other articles of property, belonging to said estate.

Some of the above described property was withheld from the former sale by reason of being claimed by the widow of said W. R. Lewis, her claim now being withdrawn.

Dated September 17th, A. D., 1918

E. T. LEWIS,
MARY A. LEWIS,

Administrators.

Men who had not voted in fifteen years went to the polls in the recent Democratic primary. South Carolina's loyalty to the national government was up for a test. The people came to the scratch.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Conway Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are weak. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Disordered kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, suggest weak kidneys and in that case warn you of the danger of dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands.

Here's Conway proof:
J. T. Proctor, farmer, Conway, says: "I had pains through my back and loins. At times headaches and dizzy spells annoyed me and my sight was blurred. The kidney secretions passed too frequently at times, breaking my rest at night.
Colds settled on my kidneys and made the backaches worse. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some at Norton's Drug Store. Doan's relieved me of all signs of kidney trouble and I gladly recommend them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Proctor had. Foster-Milburn

PERUNA

THE BEST MEDICINE
FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

Miss Ivy Gray, Fairview, Kentucky, writes:

I Ever
Saw

"I have taken Peruna, and would say that it is the best medicine for coughs and colds I ever saw. I find that it always cures a cold in a short while. It also strengthens and builds up the system."

Miss Gray's letter breathes hope to the ailing. It is an inspiration to the sick and infirm.

Soldier Writes From France.

Editor Herald:—

Just now, while I think of it, I want to ask everybody in Horry County to buy a membership in the Y. M. C. A. While I was at home I didn't do much for this organization, but over here—well, it is like a stove at the North pole,—it is a new life and without it the life of an American soldier over here would be much duller. They sell hot coffee, cocoa, food, and tobacco at different hours, give us writing materials, books, newspapers, etc., change money for us, and in general make things most comfortable.
Last night I attended the Sunday night services, and will continue as it is very interesting.

Everything is fine with me. We receive the best of care, and considering the food shortage, we have excellent meals. I have never felt better in all my life and if this only continues there shall never be a growl from me.

England is a very wonderful land; its houses, farms, and cities are all very quaint, all having a beauty very characteristic of the English people. The English people are very cordial to us and anxious to help whenever possible. It would take years for me to describe what I have seen so far, but I have tried to make notes of the most interesting things and you shall hear of them later.

Again let me assure you that I am in the best of condition, warm and comfortable, and prepared against the rain, fog and dampness, which seems to have forever been a part of the English weather.

American Expeditionary Forces.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER.

Please allow me space for a few words from Camp Jackson. I am in the heavy artillery and am having just as good a time as any boy could wish for. All the boys in Camp say they are enjoying themselves better than they did at home.
We consider the training we are getting as being worth more than the money we could have made had we stayed at home. All I hate is leaving a few slackers back behind with the girls. One word to the girls: Girls, don't forget your soldier boy while he is away fighting for Old Glory. Let the slackers go for what they are worth and be true to your soldier boy wherever he may be. The girl I left behind is more precious to me than anything in the whole world and I trust that she will remember my advice to her about the slackers that are left at home.

With love and best wishes to all at home and don't forget to pray that the boys on the battlefields may return home to their loved ones again. I am with love to all soldier boys.

—J. T. Cartrette.

This is a prescription prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER.
Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c.
