

POTATOES IN TOBACCO BARN

May Be Safely Cured and Saved From the Usual Rotting Process.

(Progressive Farmer.)
"I have a tobacco barn which I would like to use for curing sweet potatoes. It has flues and an earthen floor. Shall I cut a window for ventilation, or cut one in the roof? Also state how to store and cure."
If the walls of the log tobacco barn are made perfectly tight, and an opening cut in the roof with a shutter to close or open, you can use the tobacco barn for sweet potatoes. Build latticed bin or bins in the middle of the house, not more than 25 bushels to the bin. Put the bins on a slatted floor a foot above the earth floor. Then in digging the potatoes, handle them carefully, and do not throw into piles, but let them lie in the sun along the rows where dug, and gather and haul in baskets, rejecting all cut potatoes and badly bruised ones. When in, open the roof shutters and start the furnace and run the heat up to 86 and keep it there until the potatoes have entirely dried out from the sweat they pass through after storing. Then close up and try to keep the thermometer not above 50 nor below 45. In very cold weather it will be necessary to heat a little. Go by a thermometer.

SELF-RELIANCE GOES BANKRUPT

Thin Blood Saps Energy Gude's Pepto-Mangan Rebuilds the Blood

Wrestling with a weakened condition of the blood is a desperate struggle. Thin, watery blood deprives the body of energy and causes a played-out feeling not unlike utter exhaustion. A man with weak blood has not the full use of his powers. He lacks decision, and vacillates until he loses self-confidence.

Some men, and women too, go faltering along for months scarcely realizing that they need Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the blood-builder. But when they have taken it for a while, what a difference there is in the feelings! The old-time vigor and the red-blooded hue of good health return. The new rich blood gets to work, building, fortifying, lifting the spirit up to its normal standard. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years as a blood-builder. Druggists sell it in liquid and tablet form. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package.—Advertisement.

SOUTH NEXT ON DAIRY SHOW

Clemson College.—Just now the South is in a transitional period, with dairying receiving more attention than ever before, and there is no doubt that if the national dairy show could be held somewhere in the South in 1922 it would do a world of good in furthering the development of dairying in Dixie, says M. R. Tolstrup, Associate Professor of Dairying at Clemson College, who suggests that the dairy associations, chamber of commerce and others who would help promote dairying in this section should take steps at once to bring this great show South next year.

GERMAN GOV. IS TOTTERING

Ratification Expected Within Few Days and Leaders Get Together.

Berlin.—The German government is tottering. The so-called Wirth "cabinet of fulment" also sometimes dubbed the "pay cabinet," was in session the greater part of the day discussing the advisability of retiring as a demonstration against the decision of the league of nations taking a part of upper Silesia, which has been German for hundreds of years, away from Germany.

The cabinet in resigning is expected to declare that the Wirth cabinet accepted the Paris and London reparations demands and promised to carry out the provisions of those ultimatums, but insisting that the league of nations decision makes that promise impossible to fulfill.

The Democratic ministers demanded that the cabinet resign without waiting for the official advice as to the league's decision, which is forecast in confidential dispatches from Paris and London and by the press as well.

The Social Democratic members of the government urge that the cabinet wait until official advice of the decision is received. The Centrists, with their customary cannyness, are holding back waiting to see what happens.

The cabinet discussed at length the possible internal political consequences and the possibility of either a nationalistic cabinet or an all-Socialist cabinet succeeding it.

Indications are that if the Wirth cabinet resigns it will endeavor to obtain parliamentary assurances that such resignation will be only a demonstration and that President Ebert will again request Chancellor Wirth to form a new government.

One Conway resident who speaks is John Holt, ex-county Treasurer. He says: "My system was all run down about four years ago and there were pains in my back. I was so sore and lame I couldn't bend over, and the kidney secretions often passed too frequently. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Norton Drug Co., and one box greatly relieved me."

Has Contract, Good Remedy
The Herald begins this week a series of advertisements for Pepto-Mangan, a proprietary remedy which has been advertised in this paper before as well as in papers all over the United States.

The sales of the remedy have been so great, no doubt as a result of the publicity campaigns that we understand the makers of the medicine have increased their capacity from time to time.
We understand there are a number of dealers in this territory and the Herald addresses this item to each of ask them to make window displays and counter displays of the medicine and thus aid in the advertising that is being run in this paper and paid for by the manufacturers.

The Herald hopes that each of the dealers will co-operate in this manner to make the advertising a success.
