

Local and Personal

Carbons at the Herald office. There was rain last Saturday.

Get legal blanks at the Herald office.

Get second sheets at the Herald office.

E. G. Prince was here from Gurley, S. C., last week.

Arnold Bell spent a day or two here last week on business.

E. L. Ray spent a portion of last Saturday in Conway.

J. D. Shannon was here from the county last Saturday.

Jos. W. Holliday spent last Saturday at Wampsee on business.

Lets try to bring to our town the best that there is in everything.

E. W. Prince of Gurley was here on business one day last week.

Get typewriter paper and other good paper at the Herald office.

S. B. Gerrald was in Conway one day the latter part of last week.

John H. Hill and W. I. Hill were both in Conway last week on business.

Globe-Wernicke filling supplies for sale by Conway Publishing Company.

T. C. Hardee was among the farmers spending the week end in Conway.

Walker Beverly was among those visiting Conway last week on business.

E. M. Dorman was among the farmers visiting Conway on last Saturday.

Chas. H. Platt was over here one day last week visiting his brother, Dr. V. F. Platt.

Mrs. M. C. Dusenbury arrived in Conway last week to spend several days with relatives.

A new evening went on last week in front of the store of the A. M. McNeil Grocery Co.

Local holiday Monday, December 26. All stores and banks in Conway will be closed for the day.

M. C. Butler was here from Loris one day last week the guest of his sister, Mrs. G. I. Lewis.

See us for oranges, tangerines, coconuts and pineapples. We can save you money. Cooper-Smith Co. Adv.

Sanitary Fish and Oyster Market, Phone 27. Delivery to your home. E. T. Lewis, proprietor. Adv. 11-10-11

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Cooner are congratulated upon the arrival of a young stranger, a little boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beaton recently left here for Florence where they are now making their home.

Success depends on a number of things. Some of us have the necessary qualities while some of us do not.

We want good roads and to get them we are obliged to pay for them. If not taxes it must be some other way.

The Carlisle Theatre, at Tabor, N. C., has a fine program of pictures that it is offering its patrons now.

Castup on accounts will now soon have to be done on account of the income tax required by the Federal laws.

Garages multiply as automobiles come more and more into use. Conway now has a garage round every corner almost.

We have just received a car of oranges and tangerines from Florida. See us for prices. Cooper-Smith Co. Advertisement.

The shortage of houses still keeps up. Only a few new houses are being built even now with lumber much lower in price.

Get Christmas letter heads at the Herald office on which to write your holiday messages. A look at them will make you buy.

George Metz, of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, spent some time in Horry county last week on business for his company.

William Melvin, representing the Armour Fertilizer Works, of Greensboro, N. C., spent a day or two in this county recently on business.

C. D. Soles was through this section last week representing the National Biscuit Company.

Mrs. Florence Hedrick recently spent a short time with relatives and friends in Wilmington, N. C.

A. M. Lumpin, of the firm of Columbia Attorneys, visited Conway last week on business for his client, the Southern Cotton Oil Company.

The registration of voters on the question of the new county went ahead fast as soon as the books were recently opened at the county court house.

Frank Pegues, special agent and credit man for the Southern Cotton Oil Company, visited Horry County last week on business for his company.

Henry George of Marion county, was in this county last week and spent some time with friends here and at Toddville.

J. M. Marlow visited the banks through this county last week by means of a well written circular, of large size, also a page advertisement in the Herald.

The program at the Pastime Theatre more and more interesting. There are two good serials running there now. There are other good pictures on its screens.

J. A. Clifton, M. D., specialist in diseases of eye, ear, nose and throat, of Conway Drug Co. on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday only. Please call as early as convenient. 11-33-11

Last call for orders for the lithographed letter heads for Christmas use. Nearly all of our stock is gone. Get yours while there are some left, or it may be too late.

Much holly has been shipped away from Conway during the last two weeks. It is going to other markets where holly is scarce and where it brings a good price.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) 1 before the first and second meals and work all the cold. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. See

The winter farmer raises plenty of corn, wheat and other supplies for home use and does not have to buy. Hard times never bother him so much as it does the man who has to borrow money to buy food.

He who does not carry at this the best wishes for the health, prosperity and happiness of the other fellow, is not made up of stuff as much as he is never destined to live in a land where Christmas is observed.

Get the Southern Agriculturist with every year's subscription that you pay for the Horry Herald. Get the home news and read the great farm paper all for the price of one of the papers. Get yours while they are going.

Many useful articles in farming machinery will be sold at the lowest prices at the Hoover farm, a Green Sea on December 22nd. Don't forget this sale of a large quantity of valuable things at low prices.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head. Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) is the best and does not cause nervousness or sleep in head. Remember the full name.

Christmas trade has been brisk at all stores where Christmas goods were offered for sale. In some cases merchants did not choose to stock up on Xmas goods hence they would not expect the usual amount of that kind of business.

The alleged statement of Victor J. Miller, president of the police commission of St. Louis, Mo., that 70 percent of the present day criminals are ex-convicts has caused the American Legion of St. Louis to request his dismissal from office.

"The Kid" a million dollar picture produced by Charles Chaplin will be shown at the Pastime on the night of January 2nd. It is said to be a most wonderful record of the talents of this gifted man.

All the talk now is the success of the registration of the new county. Books of registration were opened up at the Courthouse only last week and a flood of talk began to come in. Many people were coming and going while the registering was going on there.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days. Sufferers from Hemorrhoids if PAIN EXHAUSTING, ITCHING, BLEEDING, PAINFUL, PROTRUDING, or any other form of Hemorrhoids, use the only reliable, safe, and effective treatment.

Last year credit was good to any and everybody. There was all the credit that anybody wanted. This was doubtless because there was more money then. At the present time credit is at a low ebb, because so many got stuck in extending credit when credit was good everywhere.

No Worms in a Healthy Child. All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

DEVIL'S PASSKEY SHOWS UP PARIS

Great Big Film Success Secured by Pastime for December 26

BLIND HUSBANDS SAME AUTHOR

You Wonder at the Turns Human Conduct May Take When Seeing Film

The film shows that teach a moral always result in good to those who see them.

It is not every day that the Pastime Theatre in Conway can procure a long picture dealing with the most important affairs of life in this world, such as the Devil's Passkey, which will be shown at the Theatre on the night of Monday, December 26th.

The scenes of the film are laid in Paris, the city wicked, but the city wonderful. The film itself might be called a picture of Paris. You may not have seen Paris, but you have read of it. You have never lived there, but you know some things about that city.

As compared with Blind Husbands, a film that is having the greatest popularity, it is said to be far better in many respects.

How the unselfish action of a wealthy American Army Officer got a young wife out of a very embarrassing situation, forms the background for the plot of this story told in many films.

The same man who was the author and director of Blind Husbands, is the author and director of the "Devil's Passkey."

The subject of debt comes into play in this story as the scene shifts through the reels. It will appear how debt in this case led to ward ruin.

To use the words of a newspaper recently commenting on this picture: "Once more, like 'Blind Husbands,' a grown-up photodrama for grown-up people. A picture whose author knows—and who knows you know—because it is real—because it gives you some people you know well in the one tremendous crisis of their lives. A photographic and artistic delight because it has been created by a Master of the New Art of the Screen. And when you have seen 'The Devil's Passkey,' you will say: 'I have seen the one great photodrama of life and love and human vanity that I would like to have had a hand in making.'"

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

Better, even than Ven Stenbohl's amazing first, "Blind Husbands," because the world of "The Devil's Passkey" is the sparkling, colorful, and wonderful world of Paris. Still more appealing—because the innocence of the troubled, all too pretty wife leads her still farther into the fall. Infinitely richer in suspense—because when the last great moment comes, your heart has been won by the spectacle of a honest man in faithful, unflinching agony and you tremble for fear he will never see what you see—fear his monstrous betrayal will lead him blindly to destruction all the beautiful in life which may yet be his.

Let nothing keep you from seeing the "Devil's Passkey." Good doesn't show everyday.

of the Pee Dee near Yawhanna Fry.

The other route which may be selected takes the present road leading from Conway toward Gorgetown by the farm of A. P. Johnson and Bear Swamp. There are many who want this route to be selected for the reason that they say it will cost less money to build the road where a road already is.

The work on the good road from Homewood to Bayboro is now about wound up according to the plans made by the authorities long ago when the work was commenced. As soon as the work there has been completed, then it is proposed to start the work here on the southern end of the national highway.

The people seem to be much divided on where this southern end should be located. Some want it one place and some another, most all want it to be sure to lead right by their own property. That is to be expected, of course. They can't all have it, but some of them have got to have it.

The idea entertained by some is that the steel bridge across the Kurston lake must be scrapped and a better passage way made there for the accumulating traffic. The bridge parts they say can be moved and used on the upper Waccamaw River at Star Bluff, or at Bellamy's or Mulberry Landings.

All of the people know that they need good roads. It is not all of them that seem willing to pay the cost. This matter of cost is something that is inevitable. It is no use to grumble at the expense. We have got to stand it.

Cure Cough Grip and Influenza. LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) restores one. There is only one "Bromo Quinine" GROVE'S signature on each box. See

WANTED

HAND-MADE CYPRESS SHINGLES

7x24

For prices write

B. W. JAYROE
George town, S. C.

32-33-34-35

We wish to thank each and every one of our friends and customers for the patronage and support that they have given us this year, and to ask your continued support for 1922. A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

COOPER-SMITH COMPANY,
CONWAY, S. C.

NOTICE! NOTICE!

I wish to take this method to explain to any who might not know why we did not give the Hall Rack away on last Saturday as advertised, was on account of having our store closed, circumstances which could not be prevented.

Therefore, we will continue on through this week to give tickets with each dollar you spend, and on NEXT SATURDAY, at 4 p. m., we will open the lucky number, so be sure and be here with your tickets.

I also, in connection with the above, want to try and express to each and every one my appreciation for your presence during this sale. Also to Mr. Welch, who conducted for us the most successful sale ever pulled off in Conway. Your patronage during this sale forces me to say this.

Again thanking you for your past patronage and soliciting a continuance of same,

I am yours for the square thing,

J. M. MARLOW, Conway, S. C.

Pain In Muscles And Joints Caused By Rheumatism

To Get Genuine Relief You Must Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

If we could keep our human bodies clear of the poisons which accumulate in them daily, and give them the full benefit of proper diet, we should live far beyond the average span of human life.

But alas! We realize only too often that we have an excess of waste products in our system. This poisonous waste matter not only causes a lowered vitality and many forms of skin diseases, but it also causes rheumatism—a disease that has no equal in pain. Genuine relief from the agonies of rheumatism can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 30 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the result is permanent. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for a page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 733 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All good drug stores sell S. S. S.