J. A. CALHOUN OUT FOR PLACE

In this issue of the Herald there is the announcement of James A. Calhoun as a candidate for the office of County Auditor, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Calhoun is a son of the late Rev. D. A. Calhoun, the well-known Methodist minister, who was active in all kinds of church work in this vicinity up to six or seven years ago. Mr. Calhoun is now engaged in farming in Bucks township, where he has been located for the past six years. He has had plenty of business experience, however.

Customers of the Burroughs & Collins Company at the old Gully store will remember when Mr. Calhoun was connected with that business for the period of seven or eight years, and this was probably ten or fifteen years ago. He worked for them in an important position at three different places, where they had stores; the Gully store at Conway, the store at Grahamville, and at the Cool Spring store. At another time he worked one year for George J. Holliday in the store at Jordanville, and for three years was assistant postmaster at the Conway post office. At another time he was in business on his own account in Conway and continued in that for several years. He has had from eight to ten years' experience in office work and bookkeeping.

He is thoroughly competent to fill the position that he is seeking in the primary.

National "Hospital Day" was observed at Burroughs Hospital on Friday. A number of visitors were received, several of whom brought gifts of flowers, vegetables and linen. A profusion of flowers adorned the halls rooms and porches. The dining room was especially pretty in Dorothy Perkins roses. Punch was served during the day.

JOLLY PARTY AT HARDEE'S

It was a jolly crowd that gathered on the banks of the Waccamaw River at Hardee's Ferry last Friday afternoon. After a warm day in town all were enjoying the cooling breezes that came across the quiet water. When the call to lunch was sounded a few of the more sedate ones having agreed to attend to that most important part. A real picnic dinner was there in all its splendor—salads, fried chicken and cakes. And when it was spread down at the water's edge under the old oaks, with their long festoons of gray moss, the service class of the Methodist Sunday School and their guests did full justice to the feast. It was a gay scene when all were partaking of the good things to eat, even Baby Scoggin, the youngest guest, asserted her rights by obtaining a chicken bone, thus adding amusement to her first picnic. The men present were called upon for the usual tasks of opening pickle bottles and going for water, but all seemed glad to help in so worthy a cause, and were loud in their praises of this splendid class of women for such a delightful outing.

Rev. J. C. Atkinson and Miss Johnnie Atkinson were in Aynor on Monday. Rev. Atkinson went over to attend the meeting of the board of trustees of the Horry Industrial School.

Col. R. B. Scarborough and Col. Cordie Page attended the commencement exercises at the Horry Industrial School on Monday morning. Col. Scarborough, who is the chairman of the board of trustees of the school, presided at a board meeting, which was held in the afternoon.

Among the farmers who are trying different kinds of truck this year appears M. Conner who has been making a success on several of the farms in this section during the past several years, among the places operated by him at one time being the R. B. Scarborough farm near Conway.

Charles H. Platt of the Mullins Enterprise passed through Conway last Thursday on his way to spend several days at the summer home of the Platts at Murrell's Inlet. Charley will no doubt be here and at Myrtle Beach with the members of the press association when they come here in June.

Mrs. A. B. McCoy and Mrs. Harry G. Cushman left here at 5 o'clock last Thursday morning by automobile to visit relatives in Virginia. They arrived at Emporia, Va., about 350 miles away from here, by 7 o'clock in the afternoon. They went on to Dendrow, Va., where they will spend some time with relatives before returning.

The Herald is in receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the College of Charleston, being the winding up of the 137th year of the institution. The invitation came from the trustees and graduating class of the college. The exercises took place at the Hibernian Hall on Tuesday evening, May 16.

The court of general sessions which convenes on Monday, May 22, will have a great number of criminal cases to dispose of, but all of a minor nature. There appears a number of cases of violation of the prohibition laws, a number of assaults and batteries, and a few larcenies and things of that kind. There is no case to arouse great interest to come off this time so far as can be told now.

When looking round in this section for other crops to plant in place of cotton, the farmer has ready for his purposes Irish potatoes, strawberries, green corn, tobacco, cucumbers, beans, lettuce, and other truck crops. If he wishes to make money from stock raising instead of depending on cotton, then he can raise hogs and cattle,
