

SHOWS REASONS FOR NEW COURT

Mr. Editor: Your issue of Oct. 26th. carries a letter from Mr. E. G. Stanley...

I am sure if Mr. Stanley will take the trouble to look into the situation he will change his opinion in this matter. Our Dockets are congested without any prospect of relief.

The proposed County Court is in the interest of the citizens and not a scheme to benefit the lawyers. The people pay the taxes and have a right to have their cases heard.

The County Court would have jurisdiction in all Civil matters here not over Three Thousand Dollars is involved, except in land cases.

Robt. B. Scarborough.

WHISKEY PLANT HAD SUPPLIES

Joe Sessions Place is Raided and the Occupant Was Arrested

BIG LOT OF MATERIALS

Still Located in Bay Three Hundred Yards From the House on Wagon Road

The rural policemen are without doubt the worst enemies of the whiskey stillers who live in the sticks and ply their trade at all hours of the night.

On October 24 J. K. King, of the police force, assisted by Federal prohibition agents, Stacey and Harroldson, raided the premises of Joe Sessions where they found twelve gallons of rum, fifty gallons of grape wine, one whiskey still, two still worms, and two sets of piping for stills.

The still used was made out of a gasoline drum, about the same type that you usually see about the filling stations and county stores. It had a copper cap and a worm.

This was evidently one of the busiest booze factories that the rural police of this county have ever had the pleasure of busting up. At the still was found three hundred gallons of sour mash. This mash is the stuff from which whiskey is distilled.

The officers also found at this still thirty gallons of molasses, seven fermenters, one flake stand, and one axe.

The still was located in a bay

LOCAL MEMBERS OF RED CROSS

To the members and friends of the Red Cross: It is impossible for me to meet all of you personally as I should like to do, but I am enabled to say a word directly to you through the courtesy and co-operation of The Horry Herald, Conway, S. C.

The Annual Red Cross Roll Call will be held November 11-20 this year. Will you not write or speak an encouraging word to Mr. L. D. Magrath, Mrs. M. G. Anderson, Mr. W. B. King, Mrs. W. A. Freeman, all of Conway?

Your Red Cross Chapter is, or should be one of the forces for the progressive betterment of your county, but your Chapter and the national organizations are dependent upon public support, locally and nationally.

TOWN POLICE RAID HOME

Town policemen, Addie Holt and E. E. Dusenbury raided the home of Ella Jones last Saturday and took fifteen gallons of wine and a small quantity of "monkey rum."

The wet goods were found in a smoke house. Armed with a search warrant, the officers went to the home of the negro woman and found the liquids in the outhouse.

While the officers were raiding the smoke house, according to witnesses who saw him leave, a white man went out of the front door of the house in a drunken state and was last seen in the woods. The smoke house is located behind the dwelling.

The officers raided several places in the colored section of Conway about a month ago. At that time it was doubtless the habit of other blind tigers to hide their wares.

This lot of wine showed signs of having been buried for some time and only recently taken from its hiding place. There were signs of earth on the barrel and judging by these signs the barrels must have been thoroughly covered with dirt.

Ella Jones is the wife of Noah Jones and she claimed that her husband had nothing to do with the whiskey business, and that it was conducted solely by her.

HOLMES RUSS FOR SPEEDING

Holmes Russ was taken before the town council the first of the week on a charge of exceeding the speed limits.

Russ was driving a Ford car across the intersection of Third Avenue and Main Street, going, he said, into the country after a car that had broken down.

At the trial he was cleared of the charge. He is an automobile mechanic, and has made a specialty of Ford car repairing for many years. When he is called to a job, especially by a man whose Ford will not budge any further, he goes in a hurry. He is the doctor in such a case and he must hurry.

AUCTION SALE

On next Saturday there will be an auction sale at the Hoover place near Green Sea, consisting of farming implements, Jersey cattle, and farming tools, including a tractor.

W. S. McCaskill will be the auctioneer.

three hundred yards from the home of Sessions and there was a wagon road leading directly from the house to the still.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE

Many a Mother In Conway Will Appreciate the following. Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women.

Mrs. J. T. Benton, Conway, says: "My little girl was troubled with kidney trouble. Her kidneys acted irregularly and bothered her especially at night. Finally I went to the Norton Drug Co. and got Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's soon relieved her and I can't say too much in their praise."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Benton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

MILEY BEST IS UNDER CHARGE

V. D. Johnson, of the rural police, and Henry Grantham, of Galivants Ferry, made a raid last Saturday, in Galivants Ferry township, at the premises of Miley Best, a negro, armed with a search warrant issued from the magistrate court.

They found on the negro's place fifty gallons of a fermented mixture, strong enough to knock a mule dead, much less make fools of men who might drink it. It was made up of grapes, peaches, corn meal, etc., and mixed together and allowed to sour and ferment. It was not very sanitary in its surroundings and contained enough alcohol to make one drunk.

In another house nearby they found and took twenty-five gallons of a similar concoction. At last accounts no warrant had been issued for Best, but it was said that he would soon be arrested and tried for having this stuff in his possession and for manufacturing the same.

MACHINE WAS TURNED OVER

As R. A. Dukes, Jesse Sessions, Mrs. B. E. Sessions, and Miss Ella Sessions, were returning from the State Fair, on last Saturday, in a car driven by Mr. Dukes, just out of Florence, the steering gear is said to have gone wrong, the car was turned over and all of the occupants injured and shaken up, more or less.

The injuries of the members of the party were thought at first to be more serious than they later proved to be upon examination at the hospital.

After the accident the entire party were taken to the hospital in Florence and there it was found that no serious injuries had been sustained by any of the members of the party.

Mr. Dukes and Mr. Sessions, aside from a good shaking up, were none the worse for the accident. After some delay the party came on to Conway.

The party left here early in the week by automobile to spend several days at the fair.

SWEET POTATOES FOR LIVESTOCK

Culls and Surplus Stock May be Fed With Profit. With Profit. Clemson College, Oct.—The bulky nature of sweet potatoes renders them less valuable for a hog feed than for some other classes of livestock; however, hogs may be profitably used to dispose of culls and the surplus crop, says E. G. Godbey, Assistant Animal Husbandman.

Very little experimental work has been done to determine the pounds of potatoes that are required to make 100 pounds gain on a hog, or to determine the pork yield per acre. Alabama found that 3.13 pounds of grain was required to produce a pound of gain when hogs were running on sweet potatoes. Louisiana was able to produce 1,664 pounds of pork on 1.52 acres of sweet potatoes by feeding only 30 bushels of corn. This was, of course, on land giving a very high yield of potatoes.

OUR READERS MUST PAY UP

The time has come now when readers of the Herald must renew their subscriptions or their names will be dropped from the list. In the Spring at the request of many of our readers we agreed to carry their names over until in the Fall in consideration of a promise on their part to pay then. We extended this credit for the reason that money was very scarce at that time, and those who wanted to continue reading the paper every week might have to deny themselves of that pleasure if we required the money at that time; so we listened at the request of many subscribers to keep their names on the list and keep the Herald going to them while they were raising the crops of cotton, tobacco and food crops.

Many of these have paid up long since and have their dates away over into 1923, but there are some who yet paid no dues and their names are behind the list. It is those that we are now speaking to and we want each one of them to listen.

We want them all to read the Herald, but it is out of the question to furnish such a paper as the Herald without pay.

This is a fair warning and has been made in good time. Call in and pay up and get your figures over into 1923, now before we have to take your names from the mailing list.

While you are getting the paper is the best time to make arrangements to keep it coming. Listen at our request and bring in or send in this money to-day. The paper is only one dollar and fifty cents per year. Some of our subscribers have paid for two years at one time, which takes only three dollars. In this way they insure the continued coming of the paper and they save the time and trouble of paying often.

We extend this letter to be heeded and we will have to act accordingly if it is not heeded, and that within a reasonable time.
