Our Books Must Be Closed.

A Reasonable Request.

Every person who justly owes the old firm of Lewis & Morris, is hereby notified that a settlement must be made.

If you want to pay your just debts without cost, come on between this date and the 1st of December next.

Those who cannot pay all of their note or account, come up like men, and pay what you can, and give good papers for balance, and we will try to carry it another year.

But every one who owes us, and fails to comply with this request, will have to settle with an officer of the law, and let judgment be taken against them.

Now Brother, we want to treat you fair, but we are going to have every dollar that is justly due us, if it is possible to get it.

We will take Corn, Cotton, or Cotton Seed, at market price, but would rather have cash.

JOHN T. LEWIS & F. M. MORRIS.

Does This Hit You?

The management of the Equitable Life Assurance

Society in the Department of the Carolinas, wishes to secure a few Special Resident Agents. Those who are fitted for this work will find this

A Rare Opportunity

It is work, however, and those who succeed best in it possess character, mature judgment, tact, perseverance, and the respect of their community.

Think this matter over carefully. There's an unusual opening for somebody. If it fits you, it will pay you. Further information on request.

Rock Hill, S. C.

THE CONVENTION A CERTAINLY.

IT IS CARRIED BY A MAJORITY OF ABOUT 8,000.

EVANS' MAJORITY IS FULLY 20,000.

The Constitutional Convention was carried in Tuesday's election by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority.

It will be held and the negro will be disfranchised. Then the Independents can run as many tickets and put them out as often as they please. The returns received

Tuesday night made it look doubtful for the convention and the advocates of it were somewhat worried. Yesterday morning when the telegrams began to roll into Democratic headquarters they began to change the aspect in regard to the convention, and Chairman Irby, who had not been too sanguine, stated for the first time that the convention would win by a few thousand votes. The Register gave a table yesterday morning, placing the vote of each county in round numbers, and this table gave the convention a ma-majority.

The vote for Governor affords little interest to the friends of either candidate. The Popeites knew their man had been beaten, and the Democrats knew that the only thing in doubt about Evans' vote would be the majority he would have over his opponent.

Senator Evans was in the city all day and spent a good deal of time at Democratic headquarters. While he was glad that his friends were sticking to him so well throughout the State there was nothing to stir him out of his usual temperament. His interest in the result of the Constitutional Convention question was far greater than in what kind of a vote he had gotten in a certain county. He has all along predicted that the convention would win and it was pleasing to him yesterday to see the favorable turn the returns were taking.

Senator Evans received a number of congratulatory telegrams yesterday. Some of them contained his majority over Pope in some county or other.

Dr. Pope's feelings were far different to those of the Game Cock of Aiken. The doctor stayed in his room most of the day and did a good deal of talking about frauds and what he intended to do. A telegraph boy about 2 o'clock in the afternoon reported him to be lying in bed with his head covered up. At night he sat in the lobby of the Grand Central and breathed maledictions on those who had been guilty of what he claimed were frauds. He declared that he was going to have Senator Irby arrested for practicing fraud in the election.

WHOLESALE CONTENTS.

Dr. Pope proposes to make contests in every county. It is understood that his plan, unless he abandons it, will be to have his representatives get up affidavits charging fraud. These will be taken before the County Boards of Canvassers. If they refuse to give him the satisfaction he wants he will take the contents before the State Board of Canvassers. If that board is against him he declares that he will go to the State Supreme Court and, if necessary, to the United States Supreme Court. From there on he may go to the Emperor of China or the Shah of Persia. There is no telling how far he will go. He will find all this costly and since he has been beaten funds will not be easily raised. Men went down into their pockets before because they thought he had a chance of winning. Now it is different.

SOME MORE GUESTS.

Dr. Pope asserts that Governor

Tillman will never be United States Senator. He says that the Senate will send a committee to this State to investigate the frauds
