RECORD'S COMMENTS ON GUS RICHEY CASE

TWEEN MHYSICIAN AND GOVERNOR

INTERESTING CASE

The Columbia Newspaper Reprints Pardon Reasons, Escially Interesting Now

Columbia, July 17.-The Columbia Evening Record, whose editor, Jas. H. Moore, was arrested some time ago for libel and is ready for his case to come to trial at any time, has been pouring some hot shot into the gov ernor of the state. It was one of the governor's secretaries who swore out The Record Thursday afternoon dis played a statement from Dr. Jas. H: McIntosh directly contradicting a statement from Blease in his speech at Abbeville where the speaker "rea a number of reports from reputable physicians, among whom are Dr. James McIntosh and others, that Richey is a paralytic and his condition would improve if released from

Dr. McIntosh in his written state nents says:

"It is not true that this report of the said committee signed by Dr. Knowlton and myself in any way rec mmended a pardon or parole of the both Dr. Knowlton and I fully agreed that this paralysis was feigned." The editor of The Columbia Recor

in commenting upon this statement

"This is a most remarkable con-flict of statement coming from a rep-stable physician and presents this sitation; that over since he paroled lichey in 1912 Governor Blease has been on record as giving among the reasons deciding him to grant the parole that Drs. A. B. Knowlton and James H. M'Intosh, among others, made reports on which he based his inction. In his 'parcon message' of 1013, roporting the Richey case to the logislature the governor said:

"Polition was presented April, 1014, saking for a pardon, signed by a large number of the citizens of Abbeville county. county. Accompanying the same were affidavits and certificates as to his heelth, but notwithstanding the nu-merously signed petition and the prominence of some of the names of men appearing thereon, I did not feel that it was a case where a pardon should be granted, neither a parole; but, however, in view of the statement. from Superintendent Griffith and Dr. R. T. Jennings, of the penitentiary, and also the separate opinion of Drs. A. B. Knowlton and James McIntosh, who made a special and separate ex-imination of the defendant, and also of still another report signed by Dr D. Simpson as to the physica condition of the defendant, and in view of the further fact that it is tated in said papers, certificates, affidavits, etc., that the said R. A. Richey, since his confinement in the State penitentiary, has been and is tolay a helpless invalid, not being able to leave his bed, and even when at-tending the calls of nature has to be handled as a child, and the certificates. of the physicians showing and all of them concurring in the fact that he them concurring in the lact that it can never improve, but will continue to languish and finally die if kept in prison, but that if given the benefit of air and sunshine that the proballof air and sunshine that the probati-ities are that he may get well, or at least improve very much in health.

"And now Dr. McIntosin says that Dr. Knowlton and himself did not recommend Richey's parole or pardon; but 'fully agreed' that Richey's 'paralysis was feigned.'
"What is the answer?"

FINE PORTRAIT

The Painting of Thomas Carlyle By the Renowned Artist John Millais

WAS RUINED

(By Associated Press)

(By Associated Press)

Liondon, July 17.—A militant suffragetto noday clashed with a butcher's cleaver the portrait of Thomas Carlife; bainted by Sir John Millals and hanging in the National Portrait Gailery. The woman was arrested after a severe struggle with the attendants. At the police station she gave the name of Anne Hunt.

The gallery attendants, who, since the recent militant suffrage outrages in national institutions, have been keeping close guard on the treasures under their care, noticed a young woman walking from picture to picture apparently admiring them.

Eventually she came to the portrait of Carlyle and quickly taking a butch. or's cleaver from the folds of her drass, she yieldowly attached it. The
