A Letter, A Church and a College. It remains to be seen whether my lubrications in The Courier will bring to me ruin or rest.

My Dear Sir: I read The Courier, and see that you travel this State quite a good deal, and I am going to ask a favor of you.

I wonder if there is anybody in the whole world (who reads the Courier) who can come to this girl's help.

John Vines Church. I have not yet reached the ultimate of my possible journeys; but I have been to Anderson, and spent a Sunday with the First church, the Jno. D. Rockefeller of the South Carolina Baptist churches.

Post-Mortem Fly. A man tells of a dinner he once had at a farm house, on which occasion the piece de resistance was liberally a very tough chicken.

Anderson College. Yes, I went to see the college too. It sits like a queen upon a beautiful hilltop, and has a better site than any Baptist female college in the State.

That Would Do Nicely. The kid is only four years old, some of the things he says may be clever on purpose, but the most of them are only clever because we think they are, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

What can you do with a child like that?

Anderson College. Yes, I went to see the college too. It sits like a queen upon a beautiful hilltop, and has a better site than any Baptist female college in the State.

CLEANING THE CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

Children's clothing, especially wraps, soon become soiled and stained. You'll be surprised at the difference our Dry Cleaning Process will make in such garments.

It almost makes them new again. And it costs so little that it's a simple and inexpensive matter to keep your children's wraps in "just as good as new" condition, until worn out.

Got Missing Figures

The General Manager was presenting plans for an extension of the factory to the company's directors at Detroit. He found that he had left an estimate sheet in his desk at the factory. He called up the factory on the Bell Long Distance Telephone. His assistant read the figures to him and the directors were able to act without delay.

Annoying delays are avoided by the use of the Bell Telephone. When you telephone—smile!

A Letter, A Church and a College. It remains to be seen whether my lubrications in The Courier will bring to me ruin or rest. At any rate, up to date, they are bringing me all sorts of letters, and some of them set all the wheels in my head a going, while others get down into my deeper nature, and warm up the cockles of my heart.
