EDUCATIONAL PAGE

Published Every Tuesday in The Daily and Semi-Weekly Intelligencer and devoted to the cause of Education in Anderson County and everywhere.

Miss Maggie Garlington visited our school Thursday, February 18th, and assisted in organizing a school improvement association. Miss Salice Trescot was elected president; Mrs. John Hall, Jr., vice president; Miss Ballie Hunter, secretary and treasurer. Twenty ladies joined and each promised to bring another member to the next meeting. The meetings will be held at the school house the fourth Friday afternoon in each month. We feel sure with such interest manifested at the tirst meeting the work will be a success day.

Mr. E. G. Evans and Rev. T L. Smith came to see the poys and girls tract team at practice period on Mon.

Miss Janie Garlington visited our school Monday. She gave us practi-cal questions concerning the school district to be answer next autumn/ Monday being Washington's birth-day a few Clemeon cadets visited our school.

The first and first advanced grades had a very interesting spelling match Monday I raing.

Monday 1 rring.

The civic league held a "Mystery Auction" at the school nouse on Monday night, February 22; beginning at half past eight. Many ganes were played. The ladies and gentlemen were given scissores, blindfolded, taken to the cherry tree to see who could cut the most cherries of the could cut the most cherries off the tree. Each one present was present-ed with a paper hatchet and requested to write as many words as possible on the hatchet from the worl Washon the hatchet from the worl Washington. Mr. Warley Trescot received the prize. A salad course with coffee was served at fif en cents. The proceeds from the intertainment was thirty thirty thirty of the school received the worl Washington.

On Friday a oon, February 26th, the school improvement association the school improvement association held their monthly meeting at the school building. It was a very interesting meeting, much business was discussed and plans mapped out for the work of the association. The first and third Friday nights in each month the association will have a cocial meeting of patrons and all interested in the school, at the school auditorium from 8 to 11 o'clock. A committee of ladies and girls will have each evening in charge, who will are mittee of ladies and girls will have each evening in charge, who will arrange programs for the evenings fractertainment. Light refreshments will be served at these meetings.

These meetings will be informal and free of charge. The committees will exert every effort to make these social gatherings pleasant. On next friends. cial gatherings pleasant. On next Fricial gatherings pleasant. On next Friday evening, March 15, the school improvement, association will give the first of threse series of social meets at the school auditorium from 8 to 11 octock. The patrons and friends of the school are most cordially invited. Our efficient president, Miss Sallie Trescot, has the work at heart and all have caught the inspiration, and every energy will be put forth to degreat things for our school.

HAMMOND SCHOOL

00000000000000

ing, instructive program was carried but on the famous character George Washington. The attendance was not so good as we expected after the break in the bad weather. We earnessly request all members to come to these meetings every fourth Friday afternoon.

We are going to have an old fash we are going to have an old fashioned tacky party and box party comsined at the school Friday evening.
March the fifth at 7:30 o'clock.

Ten cents admission for grown people and five cents for children will be charged. Every one is asked to wear the very tackies contumes and a prize will be given for the tackiest contume of all. Later in the evening the boxes will be auctioned on and no box will sell for over a dollar. This being the limit.

We cordially invite every one to dially invite every one

DOUBLE SPRINGS

We are beginning spring cleaning aris this year. We spent a half holisely Modday in improving the looks of the grounds and building.

In the lear future we hope to have now that of books for our library. For the gurpose of raising this library time, we gropuse to give applicationment of some nature for the outling. We have not decided as to he aind but guits likely it will be a manufacture for the outling party or a musical.

Two of the boys of the high school was wired in the flower garde and have wired in the flower garde and have wired in the flower garde and have sent general into the index of the light o

Last Saturday our basket ball team went to Seneca and beat their team 13 to 8. Friday the Seneca team came down on a truck and played on our court. They were beaten 22 to 14. There was a large crowd present be-side the school children. Our players look fine in their new suits. We will quit basket ball soon and start base ball. As the Seneca boys were in a hurry to get through the game and go home, the literary society was cut short and school dismissed. much of the program was given how-

Debate-Resolved, That Columbu deserves more praise than magellan. Affirmative-Roy Craig and Bessie

Negative-Lois Richardson and Car-

Reading—Annie Massey. The debate was interesting. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The reading was very funny. A large number of visitors were present, but we have a suspicion that they came for the basket ball game mostly. Anyway, we are glad to have visitors.

are glad to have visitors.

Do not forget the entertainment at the school house Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be dialogues, jokes, popular songs, etc., Admission only 10 cents. Everybody come and have a good time.

The improvement association will be distributed to the school of the school hold the regular meeting March 13th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The honorary members will have charge of the meeting with Prof. Jayne in the chair. The subject for discussion will be "good roads." Fefreshments will be served. Every member is urged to be present, and everybody who wants to join the association is invited to come. Please note the date—March 13th.

Mrs. Ducworth, who is visiting in Alabama sent us the following mes-

Alabama sent us the following mes-sage which was suggested by the first letter in each word of rural improve-ment association of Lebanon High School:

Rally to the work, each member giving time and thought to the meet-ings and seeing that Information is secured in order to discuss topics and subjects brought before the meeting. Then pulling All together, with no personal differ-ences, but with the idea of securing the best for the child's welfare on the best for the child's welfare and Labor spared to attain that end.

No good thing comes to us without labor on our part, therefore if we want the best for our school, we shall have to labor and Hope until we see the fruition of our desires. A modern up-to-date school building will promote Success in teaching and training our children to be useful citizens in after life, when they will be called to fill responsible positions.

TOWNVILLE SCHOOL

00000000000000000

TOWNVILLE, Feb. 27.—The follow ing students made a hundred on spelling examination this month: Misses Mae Shirley, Ruby Reeves, Eunice Gantt, Katy Thrasher and Lila King. The examination consisted of one hun-Friday afternoon and a very interest- dred ten words from "Payne's Common Words Commonly Mispelled." Mr. Witt was well pleased with the examination marks, and said, he had nover before had such a good set of papers.

papers.
Misses Lillie and Keifer Stevenson entertained at their home "Eigewood" in honor of Miss Aures Marett's birth-in hopor of Miss Aures Marett's birthday on Monday evening.

Mesara. John Wolfe and Festus Livingston. of. "Clemson College" visited Mr. Witt on February 22.

'Among those who are practicing for the declamation contest that is to take place on Friday evening, March 5, are Misses Inc. King, Annie Mae Ledbetter, Macie Galnes, Mamie Fant, Alline Nicholson and Lottia Bell Boleman, and Messrs Harold Ledbetter, Harris Holtombe, Robert Games and Virgil Ledbetter.

'Misses Ruth and Elizabeth O'Neal and brother, Mrs. Sue O'Neal on Sunday.

'Unusual Interest is beling shown in the athletic contests. On Saturday morning a large crowd of students are planning to go to "Elon school" to confer with Mr. T. L. Hanna about these contests.

000000000000000000 CLEVELAND SCHOOL

We are glad to report that most of the pupils have gotten well and are back in school again.

All the school again.

All the school girls and boys are looking forward with pleasure to field day exercises. We have been marching and all seem to take an interest in ft.

PENDLETON SCHOOL o o LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL o o HONEA PATH SCHOOL o o CLEMSON COLLEGE

We are glad to note that in the honor roll for the third month of school work, our school stood near the that made the highest averages the figures show the per cent of atten-dance, together with the name of the schools and the name of the super-

98 4-5-Rock Hill, Miss Ollie Simp-93 1-6-Williamston, Geo. E. Wel-

91 1-2—Belton, J. B. Watkins. 91 1-4—Honea Path, B. C. Givens. The plays that were given by several of the school pupils last Monday evening in the auditorium of the school building proved a gratifying success. Quite a nice sum of money was realized for the aiding of the

they were given: "Wanted a Wife"—A Tableau play.
Shadow Pictures—"Diddy, Dumps and Tot."

managers of our lyceum course. Folgram of the literary society on February 26th, marked great improvements from a literary standpoint over last year. Each one on duty deserved special rraise for carrying out his or her duty so well. Much time was taken up with discussion on the debate which was extremely interesting to the society. to the society.

• Program.

Song-"Old Folks at Home"-By the society.

Debate—Resolved, That South Carolin: should have a compulsory edu-cation law.

Affirmative-Marie Timms, James Monroe, Frank Wiles. Negative—Jessie Trench, Olin Tice, Carlisle Cannon.

Jokes-Jeannette Clatworthy. Jokes—Jeannette Clatworthy.

Music—Emma Monroe.

Current Events—Leon Wilson.

Essay—"The Pesponsibility of Nations"—Luther Erwin.

Music—Frances McKenzie.

Reading—Helen Shirley.

Jokes—Charlie Cannon.

The judges of the debate decided infavor of the negative.

Most of us are looking forward with

Most of us are looking forward with dread and horror to the second term examinations that begin this week. For those whose records have been and will remain to be above the average requirements for the final exami nations, this will be their last set for the year.

The boys and girls are both having excellent times for practicing in their athletics now, to fit themselves for the contests this spring.

0000000000000000 S. C. COLLEGE

COLUMBIA, Feb. 25 .- Fev. J. Reeves, D. D., formerly paster of the First Presbyterian church of this city, but more recently of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, addressed the Y. M. C. A. at the University of South Carolina this week on "The Modern Crusade." Dr. Reeves is very popular with the university and the Filinn Hall auditorium was well filled.

The University's 1915 catalog has been compiled and is now in the hands.

The saket ball team has been do ing excellent work, though not win, ning all the games on the schedule. The following composed the last road team: H. P. Thornton, Glover, Stribling, Bull, Gee, captain, and Schachte. Vedder Sitton, who is to coach the base ball team this season, was here yesterday looking over the material and making arrangements for beginning regular practice. Prospects for a winning team are bright.

The six literary societies all held

The University's 1915 catalog has been compiled and is now in the hands of the publishers. The catalog will be printed this year by the University press, the first time the printing establishment has undertaken this task since it was installed summer bufore last. The new catalog is very admirably gotten up, and much of the credit for its splendid arrange-ment goes to Prof. Oscar L. Keith, whose was the major burden of the

The Carolina quiutet has returned to the campus after a trip over the State, during which tour it met the basket ball teams of Wofford and Newberry Colleges. The Gamecocks have but a few more contests before the season will close and give place to bas. ball.

Beginning with March 1, each class Beginning with March 1, each class will have a section of the chapel auditorium set aside as its own particular reservation, members of the respective classes occupying the seats in class sections as against the ancient practice of seating the students indiscriminately regardless of their academic standing.

Indiscriminately regardless of their academic standing.

President W. S. Currell continues increasingly busy filling engagements to lecture at various places in the State. Every week finds him responding to requests to deliver addreases, and he has been very busily engaged the past week.

The second term magazine sial, headed by E. S. Gambrell of Belton, who is the new editor-in-chief, have gotten out a very creditable issue of "The Carolinian" in the February number, which is being mailed out this week.

WINTER DOUBLES WORK in summer the work of eliminating polacies and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little out door work or exer-

There will be an entertainment at cleveland school house Prilay night March 5th, after which a number of boxes will be sold. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the achool. Admission 10 cents. The public in cordially invited.

TOLET CATRAPTIC TABLETS

TOLET CATRAPTIC

CLEMSON COLLEGE, March 1.— We have a race trace now for the historic town of Pendleton will girls which is enjoyed by all that take tained their mothers last Friday with the following program: It will be the celebration of the cen-tennial of the old Pendleton Farmers society, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, hav ing on its roll the names of many men distinguished in the history of the State. The principal speaker for the occasion will be David F. Hous-ton, secretary of agriculture, but there will be other highly distinguish-

The State Agricultural and Mechan-ical society has shown such interest in the preparation for the celebration of this centennial. It has ap-pointed five of its members to attend as representatives of the association Among these is Governor R. I. Manning.

At the last meeting of the Pendleton Farmers' society President W. M. Riggs assured the organization of the hearty assistance of Clemson College lowing are the topics of the plays as nd Tot."

Reading—"Annie of Green Gabler."

An Operatta—"The Belles of Fol de tol."

The rendering of the following probe known as the Pendleton Farmers' society scholarship. This scholarship is to be open to agricultural students from the old Pendleton district. The officers elected for centennial years are as follows: J. C. Stribling, president; Rev. W. H. Mills, vice president; J. W. Sanders, secretary and treasurer; J. N. Harper, correspending secretary.

ing secretary.

CLEMSON COLLEGE, March 1.— The "Tiger," Clemson's weekly paper, gives a column to the charming adgives a column to the charming audress of Professor Yates Snowden of the University of South Carolina, which address was delivered last Tuesday morning after the chapel exercises, the subject being George Sherard, president; Mr. Eugene Watt, was president; Mr. Eugene Watt, was president; Miss Essie Cook, sec-Tuesday morning after the chapel ex-ercises, the subject being George Washington. Professor Snowden was Washington. Professor Snowden was invited to deliver the address by the Andrew Pickens Chapter, P. D. A. R. The address was interesting and instructive from beginning to end and charmed all who heard, it. Besides the faculty and the students, the ladies of the D. A. R., were present in the force.

There is great satisfaction express-ed on all sides that the Y. M. C. A. building is to start up at once and that an old Clemson man has the conthat an old Clemson man has the con-tract for its erection. Thos. P. Coth-ran of the class of '96 and a classmate of Prof. R. E. Lee, the designer of the building, will erect the structure. President Riggs spoke of the erection of this building as being the greatest thing done for Clemson since the col-lege was founded. lege was founded.

The Clemson Give Club made a trip to Greenville, and with the Chicora Glee Club, had an entertainment in the evening at Chicaro College.

The basket ball team has been do interesting meetings on Friday night. The new societies start well, and the old are taking on new life. Following are the names of the societies: Calhoun, Palmetto, Columbian, Carolina, Hayne, and Wade Hampton, the first three being the old societies.

The Columbian society held a con-test last night to select two speakers. to enter a contest with the represen-tatives for the honor of speaking for the senior class on commencement day. B. P. Thornton and E. N. Ben jamin were the winners. The same cociety had already chosen W. E. Blake and J. R. Clark to contest for

The contest for the trustees madal.

The following are the Y. M. C. A. officers recently elected: D. F. Folger, president; C. W. Ward, vice president; F. T. Buice, secretary; P. L.
MoCall, treasurer.

Clemson's football schedule for next season is about complete. September 25, Furman in Greenville; October. 2,
Davidship on the company (2). October. 2,

Davidson on the campus (?); October 9, University of Tennessee, in Knoxy, University of Tennessee, in Knox-ville; October 16, Auburn in Anderson, S. C.; October 28, University of South Carolina in Columbia at the State Fair; October 30, the Citadel in Charleston; November 6, University of North Carolina, in Greenville or Charlotte; November 12, V. M. I. in Helphings, November 12, V. M. I. in Charlotte; November 12, V. M. I. in Richmond; November 25. Thanksgiving, University of Georgia in Athens.

October 2, the date for the Davidson game on the campus is to be a great day here. It is the intention to dedicate the new athletic field, to be known as "Rigga Field" in honor of President Rigga. There will likely be many representatives of the old player present to take part in the exercises. The athletic committee is expecting to have a big crowd of visitors and to make it a gala day.

NOTICE

Please take notice that L. M. Else-man is not connected with this news-paper in any capacity, nor has he been THE ANDERSON INTELLIGENCER.

IVA HIGH SCHOOL

Rev. S. J. Hood opened the school exercises Monda; morning, February 22nd, and it being George Washington's birthday he gave a very interesting talk which was enjoyed by all.

Two of Miss Waytts pupils, Helen and Ellen Wiles san; a song "George Washington," which was enjoyed by

Mrs. C. D. Coleman visited our chool Monday morning, February 22. Mr. Willie Wright and Alvin Hardin were visitors here Monday from Prof. C. D. Coleman has planted a ew water-oaks on the school ground which will improve the appearance of the building.

This is one of the many improvements which we have made during

In Thursday morning exercise an essay on "Value of Trees" was read by an eleventh grade student, Miss Essie Cook. Also reading "The Boy Who Hated Trees," by Miss Neta Adams of the tenth grade. They were en joyed by the school.

raising a centennial fund. It is expected that many will contribute more than that, however.

It is purposed to raise a fund at the celebration for the endowment of a scholarship at Clemson College, to be known as the Pendleton Farmers' be known as the Pendleton Farmers' school to pay five cents monthly as janitor fee than do the work themselves. Affirmative, Herbert Burton, Sketch of Washington's Life—Walschelm, Sketch of Washington's Life—Wa screen to pay live cents monthly as janitor fee than do the work themselves. Affirmative, Herbert Burton, Marie Cann, Bruce Adams; negative. Dewey Brock, Allene Hall. Otis Gailey; assayist, Jack Gilliand; Naomi Cann, current events; declamation, Essie Cook.

We have made many transportants.

We have made many Laprovements in our society during this session.

Prof. C. D. Coleman has offered a $6.50 medal to the one that makes the most improvements during the year in the society.'

After the society Friday afternoon vice president: Miss Essie Cook, secretary; Miss Neta Adams, treasurer.
We hope to have much success in our association.
Miss Pearson and Miss Howell spent Saturday in Anderson.

Miss Thompson spent the week-end at Honea Path with her sister, Miss Leila Thompson.

00000000000000000

00000000000000000

NAOMI CANN,

This is the first time our school has been represented on the school page, and in order that you may not get the impression that we're sleeping ve are going to write.

Our school is in good condition. The average attendance is good at present. We have now one hundred and sixty-five pupils enrolled.

Supt. J. B. Felton and Miss Garlington have not visited our school yet, but we are expecting them real soon. Hope we will not be disappoint-

Cadet S. C. Gambrell and Roy Mayes of Clemson College came home on Saturday the 20th, to spend the Hopper. holiday, Feb. 22, with their parents, Traps Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gambrell and Mrs

We were very sorry to give up Miss Rosa Morrison our primary teacher, but her resignation was necessary on account of ill health.

Miss Morrison's place as teacher of Song—To Washington—By five the primary grades spent the week-end with her parents at Greenville, S.

The honor roll for the past month C., accompanied by little Mary Lois is as follows: Ballard, one of her pupils.

The school rendered an interesting program on Monday afternoon, Wash-All the pupils are very busy stand-ing their mid-term examinations. We are trying for the best marks possi

We are expecting a large crowd from schools of adjoining districts to the field day practice Saturday, 27th.

ERSKINE COLLEGE

00000000000000000

At the recent contest held, Mr. C. T. Stewart of Monitar, West Virginia, was chosen to represent Erskine at the State Oratorical contest to be held the State Oratorical contest to be held in Rock Hill. His subject was "The Flower of the nation." Mr. R. L. Davis of Monticello, Ark., speaking on "Humanity's Maelstrom," was selected as alternate.

The faculty of the Woman's College attended the meeting of the Eupheman Literary Society on last Friday evening.

day evening.

The semi-annual celebration of the Calliopean Literary Society will be held in the Ersking auditorium on next Friday, March 5.

The Erskinian is expected to be out in a few days. This edition is gotten out by the Juntor class. The Sopho-mores expect to publish the April number:

o o BELTON GRADED SCHOOL o o

The Lord's Prayer-First and second grades. Sunbeam Song-Nan Trammel and Marguerite Harris.

Play—Patriotic Mother Goose by six boys and six girls.

Recitation—When My Pa Was a Boy—Rufus Shirley. Recitation--"Little Orphan Annie" Elizabeth Adams.

Song-Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star-Edna Clinkscales and Ruth Parker. Incitation-The Boy-David Hay-

Recitation-A Doll's Wedding-Lucile Parker.

Recitation—A Little Boys' Troubles

-Rufus Acker. Song—George Washington—Class. Recitation—Discontented Buttercup

Nan Trammel.
Recitation—Miss Edith Helps. Things Along—Edna Clinkscales. Recitation—The Peach—Futh Park-

Recitation—The Patter of the Shingles—Bill Wilson.
Song—Mr. Duck Went to Call on Mr. Turkey—Six little girls.
The following is Washington's birthday program which was rendered by the sixth grade:

Recitation—By eight girls, Ruth Geer, Irene Vaughn, Emma Cunning-ham, Mae Griffin, Gladys Todd, Zella Austin, Eunice Mahaffey, Tanie Haynie, Alice Harris.

nie, Alice Harris.

Recitation—Malvina Hopper.
Fecitation—Sybil Parker.
Recitation—By four boys, Joel Gruber, Joe King, Harrold Harris, Willie Maddox.

Recitation—Catherine Tollison.
Jokes—Ruth Geer.

Jokes—Ruth Geer.
Recitation—Euna Kay.
Recitation—Myrtie Shirley.
Recitation—Janie Haynie.
Fiscitation—Lewis Austin.
Debate—Resolved, That Washingon was a greater man than Lincoln.
Affirmative—Emma B. Cunningham,

Calvin Martin. Negative-J. P Williams and Walter We were entertained in chapel last Tuesday week by the ninth grade and last Tuesday by the eighth.

Ninth Grade Program.

Bible Reading—Blanche Pinson.

Song—Lead Kindly Light—Class. Recitation—Frances White. Recitation—Kenneth Cox. Song—America or Me—By class. Dialogue—Charles Cox and George

Brown. Eighth Grade Program.
One hundred and twenty-fourth
Psalm—Macy Strickland. Doris Major,
Guy Wilson and Clifford Earle.
Song—To Washington—Class.
Recitation—Sara Wright, Varina
McDaniel, Kathleen Cummings.

Song—Ode to Washington—Class. Recitation—Ernest Campbell, William

Gambrell. Sambrell.

Song—Mt. Vernon Bells—Class.

The fourth grade carried out the ollowing Washington's program:

Song—The Flag—Class.

Life of Washington—Annie Vaughn.

Focitation—The Flag—Helen Pruit.

Recitation—Washington and His latchet—Fred Greer.

Recitation-Guess Who-Linda

Recitation-A Busy Day-Robert Parker.

Recitation—A Place for Boys-

Ralph Batlerfield. Dialogue. Decitation-The Railroad Crossing Jim Bowes.

Song—To Washington—By five

Georgia Fant, Eunice Warnock, Lucy Drake, Etta Watkins, Vivian Cox, Annie Harris, Ferol Acker.

Ninth Grade.
Elsie Ragsdale, Lonnie Campbell
Jennie Cox, Wilton Earle, Kenneti

Eighth Grade.

Eighth Grade.

Macy Strickland, Sara Wright, Vivian Vaughn, William Gambrell.
Seventh Grade.
Nancy Blake, Sara Harris, Margaret Clinkscales, Jim Haynte.
Sixth Grade.
Irene Yaughn, Walter Greer, Sybil Parker, Jack West, Francis Adams, Willie Maddov, Eunà Kay, Mae Griffin, Myrtie Shirley, Anna L. Campbell, Emma B. Cunningham, Calvin Martin, J. P. Williamson. Firth Grade.

Sara Culbreath, Mary Clement, Mamie Dick, Eunice Maddox, Irene Harris, Anna M. Thomas, Edward Blake, Millard Harris, Clarence Cox, Kay Griffin, Arlington Ragsdale, Bob Trammel. Fourth Grade.

Jim Bowen, Fred Green, Florida Smith, Robert Johnson, Annie Vaughn, Sara Cunningham, Martha Cox, Linda Sara Cunningham, Martha Cox, Linda Hopper, Irene Martin, Hoyt Kay, Walter Hubert, Paul Willingham, Helen Pruitt, Lucile Willingham.

Second Grade.

Edna Clinkscales, Ruth Parker, Dorothy Cox, Carroll Brown: Rufus Acker, Ruth Cox, Joseph Berlin, Stella Mae Saylors, Mabel Watkins, Elizabeth Adams, Mary Haynie, Mary Major, Lucile Parker, Bertha M. Cullum, Lois Tödd.

SCHOOL

Kennedy school is a very uice school. It is a two story brick building with fourteen large rooms. We have new desks and large windows, and a playground. At recess, the girls play jump the rope, ball, pop-thewhip and many other games, while the boys play marbles and base ball.

Miss Jean Harris is teaching the seventh grade girls sewing and fancy

Mr Chambers is teaching the boys wood work.

ed by several grades with songs and speeches The seventh grade had a very interesting program.

very interesting program.

Saturday afternoon the teachers from the schools were invited to a reception. Washington's and Martha's pictures were decorated with flags and ferns, which made it very pretty.

The girls have a camp fire club. We go for long walks in the woods and have a fine time. Miss Major is the leader. Mrs. Chambers taught us how to make "spoon biscuits." They were very good, but mine did not turn out.

very good, but mine did not turn out to be very good. Miss Major read us a sketch about the new International Dictionary, which we thought was very fine, it is an illustration of the new form

We have a nice new school built

Mr. Chambers is teaching the seventh grade boys manual training. The first thing that they made was a utes after twelve.

Our principal game at present is marbles.

In a few weeks we will get up a ball team and pick out the best ones to play. We hope to win some games from other boys in town.

Mr. Chambers teaches the boys to drill almost every day.

The teachers had a party Saturday and they all had a fine time.

The girls cleaned the school riday and it was nice and clean. marbles.

breath, Frances Drake, Harold Estes, Samuel Fant, Sara Graves, Helen Griffin, David Haynie, Bobbie Harris, Margueritte Harris, Nancy Hanks, Helen Hanks, Leonard Horton, Donald

BISHOP'S BRANCH

The school improvement association met Thursday afternoon. The attendance was unusually good. The following program given by members of the association was greatly enjoyed:

Music—Miss Lella Wilson.
"The New South and the Race Problem"—Clifton Owen.
Debate, Resolved, That women should be allowed to vote—Open Dis-

Jokes-Rev. R. W. Nelson Dialogue—Behind the Sofa. Music—Miss Lella Wilson.

improvements that hight be made on the school grounds and the interior of the building were heard. It was decided to have "clean-up day on March 20. Plans were made for put-ting out flowers on the school ground. A number of men spent last Mondi, morning improving our school teenth. Bessie and Alice Whitten, who are attending school in Greenville, spent the wesk-end with their father, Mr. A. L. Whitten. Our base ball team was disappoints Consilection.

Consil

We have fine times.

Washington's birthday was observof pronouncing words. The words are spelled like the sound with the marks. One of the teachers went to the new Anderson Theatre the other af-ternoon to see "The Sign of the Cross", as she took her seat, someone heard her ask the question, "Is that Nero or Caesar?"

Last Friday Col. Lewis Campbelle gave us some real interesting happenings of his personal experiences during the "War Between the States."

We enjoyed having Col. Campbelle very much and hope he will come back to see us again.

SARA FRANCES STEPHENS.

The first thing that they made was a bench hook to keep the new table from getting scratched up. The next thing was a flower stick, then a flower stand, a coat hanger, a bread board and now they are making a dressing chair. This will be on display in some of the stores up town.

Miss Jean Harris is teaching the girls to sew. They are making a lot of pretty things.

Our teacher is Miss Eliza Major. We take in school every morning at nine o'clock and have one recess at half past ten and another at twenty minutes after twelve.

and it was nice and clean.

We think that we have the nicest school in town.

FANK KAY.

McCuen, Mortimer Poore, C. W. Smith, Nan Trammell, Eugene Tolli-son, Ruby Tollison, Sam Vaughn, Mary Acker, Carrie Acker, Mabel Cox, Gladys Johnson, Frank Johnson, Rufus Shirley.

00000000000000000 0000000000000000

Reading—Miss Alice Belle Newton.
Freports from the committees on the improvements that might be made on

We were not fortunate enough to set holiday on Washington's birthday, but honored his memory with appro-priate exercises on Friday, the ninc-

600000000000000