Marriage in Due West.

On Thursday of last week at the residence of Captain Robert C. Sharp, his second daughter, Miss Mattie, was happily married to Mr. W. J. Gillespie, of Kentucky.

A Pleasant Affair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Douglass had a most pleasant reception at the "Rock House" last Thursday evening. The evening was spent very enjoyably in conversation and dancing.

The Electoral Vote.

Mr. Benet says, in regard to the South Carolina electoral vote, that if Senators Hampton or Butler had been in Washington there would have been no trouble.

Death.

The Rev. E. R. Miles, of Charleston, who was at one time Rector of Trinity Church at this place died in Charleston last Thursday. Mr. Miles was a member of the distinguished family to which Attorney-General Miles, Hon. W. Porcher Miles and Dr. Frank Miles belong.

Found Dead in the Woods.

Friday evening an aged colored man named Jacob Aiken living about six miles up the Due West road disappeared. Search was instituted for him and continued Saturday. Saturday evening late he was found in the woods dead.

Public Speaking.

Lawyers, Ministers and Politicians before addressing an audience, should take two good doses of Brewer's Lung Restorer and they will find that their throats will not become parched and voice husky.

MESSAGES.

The fox hunters got ahead of poor Reynard this morning.

The roads are pretty muddy but business seems to be brisk all the time.

It is said that Manuel McKeller, who figured prominently in this locality till quite recently, is in Selma, Alabama.

Mr. A. K. Watson does not think the cold and sleet has done any injury to the oat and wheat crops.

Shriner's Indian Vermifuge will destroy and expell worms. It is reliable. It is cheap. Only 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. P. F. Gary was in Charleston last week attending the meeting of the State Board of Health, of which he is President.

We had the pleasure of meeting in Abbeville last week, Maj. J. B. Ezell of Columbia, who was here on insurance business.

Captain A. W. Lites, Messrs. G. M. Sibert, Ben Chiles and T. C. Lites were in town on a case before the Master, last Tuesday.

Captain E. Cowan, the worthy and efficient ex-School Commissioner of this County, was in town last Saturday settling up the last business of his office.

Mr. Lex Templeton left yesterday for Mississippi where he will make his home in the future. He has very many friends here who sincerely regret his departure.

Messrs. W. P. Wideman, W. T. Bradley, Hon. Jno. E. Bradley and others, were engaged in legal business in the Probate Judge's Court on Monday.

We saw a few days since a picture of two cherubs that would put Raphaels celebrated innocents to the blush. The looks of innocence and simplicity were true to nature.

Mr. A. E. Miller is studying medicine with his father Dr. J. L. Miller and Mr. J. P. Kennedy, Jr., and Mr. E. B. Pressley are studying under Dr. J. W. Wideman.

The young colored boy David McCaw had yesterday a severe talent for drawing. It would be a kind act on the part of the community to assist him in cultivating it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most potent blood purifier, and a fountain of health and strength. Be wise in time. All baneful infections are promptly removed by this unequalled alternative.

The annual sale of the books, periodicals and papers of the Literary Club will be had at the office of B. S. Barnwell, Esq., Librarian, Thursday the 15th, at 12 o'clock, noon.

Mr. Seal is clearing up the woods in rear of Mr. McIlwaine's, and it opens up from Maine Street a fine view of Fort Pickens. Before long we expect to see some houses built over there.

Mrs. Lawson killed two pigs last week that weighed 353 and 383 pounds net. They were of the common breed and were just sixteen months old. Attention to stock is never wasted. It always pays.

Messrs. W. Joel Smith and son advertise for "Selling millions." And they offer to sell many a bale of cotton and corn with. Read what they say and try their goods and prices. They will suit you.

There is considerable agitation over the forming of a Building and Loan Association in town. We have always advocated the organization of such an enterprise, and hope that our people will take hold of it right away.

We had a very kind letter last week from Mrs. A. S. Spradley of Abbeville, in which she hopes, "that our venture in the field of journalism will prove as successful financially as it has been from a literary point of view." Kindly and gracefully said, good friend.

We were very glad to meet our friend Captain John Frank Hodges in Abbeville on Friday. The Captain is preparing to go to Florida. We wish him good luck wherever he goes, for no more honest and better man lives than John Frank Hodges.

Rev. Dr. Mendonhall preached his first sermon in the Baptist church last Sunday, and his congregation were much pleased with him. We have heard this distinguished preacher and feel sure that he will prove acceptable to his people.

Rev. Donald McQueen has preached a series of sermons in the Presbyterian church, closing them on Sunday last. We heard him spoken of as an able and interesting preacher, but we do not know if the Session has called him to the pastorate of this church.

Judge Lyon was telegraphed for to go to Newberry on Friday to hear an important case in the stead of the Judge of Probate for that County, who was disqualified by being a party to the proceedings. The Judge returned on Saturday.

Capt. R. B. Cade has sold his DuBose plantation containing seven hundred and sixty-four acres, to Messrs. R. F. Morris and S. E. Cowan, for $10,000. This is a very fine place and these young men are full of vim and energy and will make money out of their purchase.

Dr. S. G. Thomson, under very suspicious circumstances, deserted us for a few days last week. It is rumored that he went in the direction of Edgefield, as he has a little thursting for that County of late. Much may be inferred. Look sharp "Billy Walker" and good luck "Sammy Phat."

Judge Aldrich spent a day in Abbeville last week on his return from Baltimore. The operation on the nerves of the face is entirely successful and he has not suffered the slightest twinge of pain since it was performed. The Judge is in Orangeburg this week holding Court, and will soon be in his usual strong and robust health.

Ayer's Hair Vigor improves the beauty of the hair and promotes its growth. It imparts an attractive appearance, a delightful and lasting perfume. While it stimulates the roots, cleanses the scalp, and adds elegance to luxury, its effects are enduring; and thus it proves itself to be the best and cheapest article for toilet use.

This is the week among the lawyers in which the thunderbolts of the law are being forged. Many an unhappy debtor will receive an unwelcome new year card before the shades of Saturday evening close which will make him wish for the day when there will be neither hard hearted creditors nor worrying lawyers, associates of the devil as Tulliver used to say.

An old Sheriff of this County used to say, that he could always tell when a man was first sued. If he had never been sued before he would take the summons from the sheriff's hands and in the middle of the field ploughing, perhaps, would push back his hat and lending eagerly over the paper read every word of it. On the other hand if it was an old soldier to whom the "summons came" he would testify throw it aside with the remark "take the d---ing away from me." This week will doubtless witness many such scenes.

PERSONAL.

Dr. W. E. Link was in town Tuesday. Squire Keller was in town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Trowbridge are in town.

Captain J. W. Perrin went to Lodges last Saturday. Dr. P. H. Adams, of Phoenix, was in town on Friday.

Dr. J. W. Wideman, of Due West, was in Abbeville on Friday. W. C. Benet Esq., went to Columbia on Monday.

Mr. J. N. Seawright came to town on Tuesday to see the Master on business. Hon. W. P. Wideman graced our streets on Monday.

Capt. R. J. Robinson was in town last Monday. Mr. Abe Rosenberg, of Greenwood, came up on Sunday to see his relations and friends.

Fred Werber, Jr., Esq., of the Newberry bar, was in attendance on the Master's Court Tuesday.

Rev. H. C. Fennel was in town on Monday and Tuesday. We caught a glimpse of Mr. B. A. Boyd in town yesterday.

Mr. E. C. Simkins and family, now of Laurens, are on a visit to friends at Troy.

Col. Jno. F. Calhoun gave us his usual hearty grip of the hand, on our streets this morning.

Mr. T. J. Ellis and D. H. Magill, Esq., were in town on legal business last week.

Messrs. T. C. Lites and Ben Chiles, solid and substantial citizens of Troy were in the city yesterday.

Telegrams from Due West.

Due West, January 12, 1885. Miss Susie Calhoun has returned from Augusta.

Mr. J. E. Todd has a brand new buggy. The new carpets for the new church have been laid and "all things are now ready," when the debt is adjusted, to enter and worship. At a meeting of the A. R. Presbyterian session it was unanimously agreed upon not to worship in our new church until the debt was adjusted.

Dr. W. M. Grier has been selected by the pastor with whom the session left this whole matter to preach the dedicatory sermon. The day of dedication has not been decided on, though, 25th of this month has been mentioned.

Professor J. W. Magill left our town to-day to take charge of a cornet band in Greenville County.

Mr. Wm. Alewine and his neighbor Mr. McClain had two legal battles before Trial Justice Sitton on last Saturday. Mr. J. W. Magill representing Mr. McClain. Each suit was for trespass of stock. Mr. McClain won his and Mr. Alewine lost by jury disagreement.

A number of new pupils have entered the Female College since the holidays. One or two have also entered Erskine.

We notice that Miss Jesse Bell one of the fairest daughters that was in attendance on the Female College last year, returned last Saturday and will take the senior class.

The sudden death of Capt. H. M. Johnson, the present proprietor of the Phoenix Hotel, cast a gloom over our town. Few were aware of his sickness, which was of only a few days. Mr. Johnson had long been fighting against consumption, though a very active man. The late damp and disagreeable weather gave him an attack of pneumonia and filled the bronchial tubes, suddenly causing suffocation. Sabbath evening at 4 o'clock, Rev. W. L. Pressley preached the funeral and Rev. W. M. Grier made prayer. A very large crowd was present to see the rites done to their deceased friend. It was a grievous morning, and the stricken family need all the sympathy and aid their friends can give them.

The choir was particularly happy on last Sabbath morning in their selection of church music, and sang with much force and beauty. It is suggested they are tuning for the dedication.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Blake, of Greenwood, spent last Sabbath with Prof. Hooke's family, and worshipped with the Associate Reformed people. They seem to enjoy their new life. "I have the best husband in the world," so says the young bride. We understand Mr. Blake is a model young gentleman and fully reciprocates these sentiments.

MORE ORANGE BLOSSOMS. On last Thursday the whole upper end of Due West was in a stir. Cards had been issued by Capt. R. C. Sharp and lady, inviting the fortunate receivers to the marriage of their youngest and only remaining daughter, Miss A. Ada Sharp. The groom, Mr. W. T. Gillespie, is an extensive land owner of Kentucky, and is a fine looking gentleman. They say the third time is the charm; so was it with this gentleman; he had made two trips; on the third, he carried back with him his blushing bride. The ceremony took place at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. W. L. Pressley officiating. The groom, faultless black cloth, with necktie to correspond, and white kids. The bride, navy blue satin, with gold brocade, orange blossoms, and diamonds. After the ceremony the select guests were invited to a sumptuous feast, where all went as merry as a marriage bell.

The happy couple left on the evening train for New Orleans. They expect to spend some three weeks, taking in the Exposition. A letter post received from them, that their trip was made by close connection, and in every way pleasant, and that they will be glad to have their friends write them at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans.

Marriages.

Married at Pelzer, S. C., Dec. 16th, by Rev. W. A. Rogers, Mr. Frank C. Greeno, of Greenwood, to Miss Helen C. Clary, of Pelzer.

Married on the 25th Dec., 1884, by Rev. H. G. Fennel, Mr. J. T. Wilson, and Miss Rosa Black.

Married at the residence of Wm. W. Klueck, Esq., on Dec. 30th, by Rev. S. M. Richardson, Mr. M. Warren Fouché and Miss Melissa Franklin, all of Coronaca, Abbeville County.
