Photography.

Mrs. Ware, the lady artist of Georgia, is in Abbeville now, for the purpose of doing any work in the line of photography. She comes highly recommended and the work she exhibits, is really fine. Abbeville has not had a first class artist in some time. Those who wish to avail themselves of this golden opportunity had better call early, as it is not known hyw long she will be in our midst. She is assisted by one of the best artists of Augusta, Ga. The gallery is in rear of the New Hotel. Ρ.

The Stock Show.

Don't fail to attend the Stock Show at Ninety-Six on the 10th of August. This is one of the institutions of the county that we ought to be proud of. There is no doubt that it will be very interesting. A special train will be run as was done last year. Let us all go and let those who own stock exhibit it.

Public Meeting.

A meeting of the citizens of the town of Abbeville is called Thursday, August 12th at 6 p. m., in the Court House to take into consideration the advisability of purchasing a town clock. Don't forget the day and be sure to attend and let us have a town clock. We need one, and we need it badly.

Ice Cream Festival.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have an ice cream festival to-night in the yard of Capt. L. W. White. Be sure to attend and our word for it you will enjoy it. The ladies of the Presbyterian church not only know how to make ice cream but also how to entertain their patrons.

The Bible Society.

The Sixty third annual meeting of the Abbeville District Bible Society will convene (d. v.) in the Methodist church in Abbeville village at 11 A. M. on Wednesday the 28 July 1886.

MESSAGES.

Frank Bradley of Laurens, is in town. The roof of the Episcopal Church is being repaired.

The Misses Norwood have gone off for the summer.

Judge Aldrich is visiting Capt. Bonham and family.

Mrs. W. R. White of Greenville, has been visiting relatives in Abbeville.

this week to be present at the banquet carried away soon. to be given by the graduates of the Citadel. He responds to the toast of the Press and we know he will do it well.

Mr. LeRoy Wilson, father of Mr. M. Wilson, died on last Friday. Mr. Wilson was an old man and had lived a useful life. He will long be remember- hugely. ed for his good deeds and kind acts in his immediate community.

Mr. R. H. Wardlaw, Jr., delighted his many friends in Abbevilie by his appearance among them last week. There | for hours. is no more genial, courteous, and lively gentleman in this whole country than Hal Wardlaw, and no one has more friends than he. We hope he will be with us for some time.

I cannot name all my goods in an advertisement, but request all who wish the enjoyment of a pleasant smoke to ask for "The Round Knob Cigars," only five cents each. And I will guarantee satisfaction to all who favor me with their patronage

THOMAS MCGETTIGAN, Proprietor, Palmetto Saloon.

The re-union of Company G, 19th Regiment, took place in the office of Hugh Wilson, Esq., on last Saturday. There were only six snrvivors present. In revising the roll it was found that 47 members of the company were still living; 13 were killed in battle; 19 died from disease; 2 from wounds; and 30 have died since the war. The company was first commanded by Joel H. Cunningham, and was distinguished alike for its bravery in the field and faithfuluess in the camp.
