ADDRESSES HEARD AT PALMETTO THEATRE

LADIES OF THE CITY ARE URGED TO ATTEND

CLEAN-UP WORK

F. M. Burnett and Dr. Ashmore Will Deliver Addresses to the Ladies This Morning

The third step in the Board of Health-Y. M. C. Chamber of Commerce-Civic Association joint Clean-Up, preparatory campaign will be pulled off today promptly at 9 o'clock at the Palmetto theatre when Chairman Burnett will deliver an illustrated lecture on cleanliness at the play house. The lecture will be well up to the high standard of efficiency which Mr. Burnett has set, and every lady in the entire city is expected to attend. It will be well worth hearing.

It was only decided late yesterday to have this lecture and the Intelligencer has been requested to give the same publicity. Dr. Ashmore of the Board of Health will also probably assist in this lecture.

It will be the fifth successive lecture delivered in the last three days by Secretary Burnett. Those held yesterday drew record crowds. Mr. Burnett is a stout talker and is extremely well posted on the topic which he will discuss. The slides are also elegant and up-to-date.

The city will clean up all the streets and also get up extra teams. 1,000 clean-up buttons will be distributed by Mr. Deagan, chairman of the advertising committee. The finance committee, consisting of E. E. Elmore, Dr. Ashmore and J. E. Grayson, will meet sometime Tuesday, to arrange the financial end of the work.

Special effort will be made to eradicate the rat infestation. Dr. Ashmore will give a special instruction given. City Health Officer Campbell will handle the city's end of the work; since cooperation of all forces in the city has been secured.

EVERYBODY HAPPY RACE INTERESTING

Political Pot Is Bubbling In Anderson Over the Race For Seat In Congress

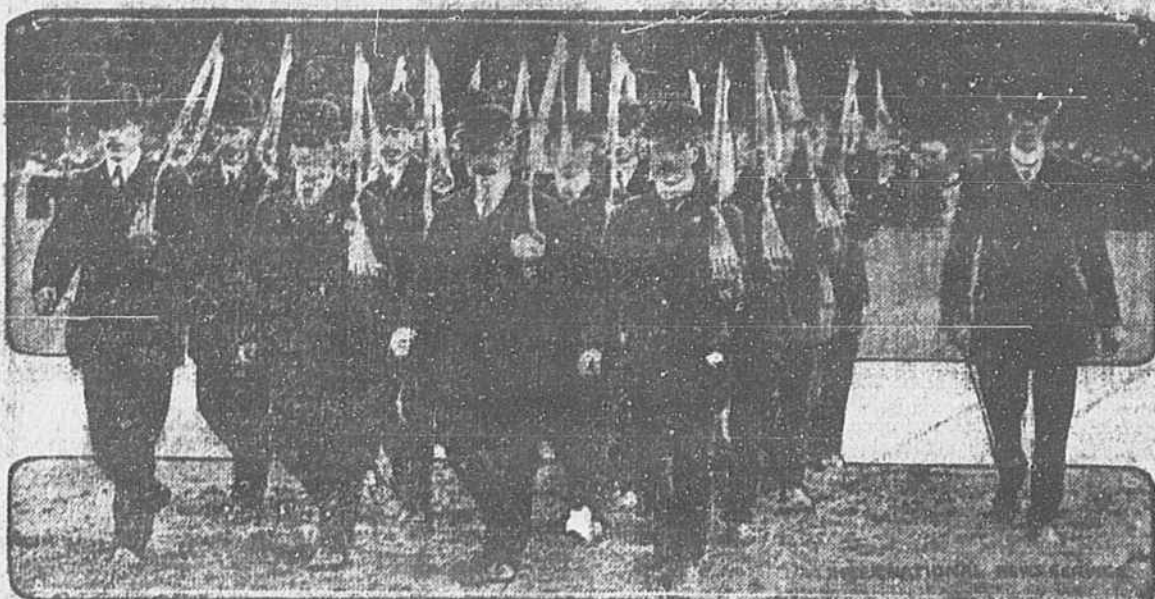

The political pot in Anderson, so far as the Congressional race is concerned, is certainly simmering and about to boil. With a bargain being made up by the race, Fred H. Dornick here going over the Anderson voters, V. B. Cheshire campaigning every day and W. W. Bradley, Mr. Allen's private secretary paying occasional visits to Anderson, it would seem that Anderson is the objective point and a race desired throughout with the candidates. It has been announced to Anderson that Mr. Cheshire had decided to withdraw from the race and that he was making a strong campaign and get many votes, not only in Anderson but in other parts of the district.

ACADEMY BOYS AGAIN DEFEATED

Bit by, Dust of Defeat at the Hands of Home Park Team Yesterday

The Pitkin School suffered the awful defeat of last Friday when the Anderson Home Park School "mopped up" with them, but whether they will recover from the drubbing they received at Home Park yesterday is another question. The Home Park team went down in defeat before the first team representing the Home Park School in a game of 19 to 1. Anderson boys had no look in at the game after the first inning and they steadily went from bad to worse for them.

SEEK TRADE FROM SOUTH AMERICA

SOUTHERN RAILWAY WILL MAKE CAMPAIGN The Appointee

AN AGENT NAMED

To Take Charge of the Work—Charles Lyon Chandler

Capt. Jno. R. Anderson, superintendent of the Blue Ridge Railway, yesterday received the following announcement from H. W. Miller, Jr., assistant to the president of the Southern Railway:

To aid southern merchants and manufacturers to extend their trade with Central and South American countries and the West India Islands particularly the new fields to be opened by the Panama Canal through South Atlantic and Gulf ports, President Fairfax Harrison announces that the Southern Railway, C. N. O. & T. P., Alabama Great Southern and Mobile and Ohio, have appointed as South American Agent Mr. Charles Lyon Chandler, who has been South American commercial expert in the copular bureau of the state department. His office will be at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Chandler has had years of experience in Central and South American countries and is thoroughly acquainted with their markets and the needs of their people. He will advise southern merchants and manufacturers as to where their wares can be sold, will assist them in preparation of letters and circulars and advise as to the methods of packing required for different markets.

Mr. Chandler will keep in touch with commercial bodies of Latin American countries and their diplomatic representatives at Washington and will be able to give southern business men the earliest possible information as to government and other large contracts to be let. He will also begin a campaign of Latin American markets calling attention to goods that can be shipped from the south and the advantage of shipment through southern ports.

Mr. Chandler is admirably equipped for this work. A Harvard graduate, he studied international law at the University of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, and was for many years in the consular and diplomatic service of the United States, the greatest part of this time having been spent in Latin America. His service will be at the disposal of southern merchants and manufacturers without any charge to them.

GRADUATE RECITAL AT THE COLLEGE

Senior Expression Recital Held Last Monday Evening By Miss Marie Elms

Miss Marie Elms, of North Wilkesboro, N. C., gave her Senior Expression recital Monday evening at the college auditorium. In spite of the rain there was a good crowd to hear her. She read well with perfect ease and comfort, holding the attention of her audience with the power of her personality. She has a very attractive bearing on the stage, and her work is subtle and sincere with no tricks to catch the audience. Her interpretation in "Lonesome Intelligence" showing clear insight into the author's thought, is given with a sympathetic feeling and an artistic finish. Her program was a varied one and of high literary standard, ranging from humorous to dignified and dramatic.

The lyric quality of Miss Elms' voice was noticeable in "Mid-Summer" and her atmosphere in "Marfana" and "The Governor's Last Leave" was particularly good.

A double trio consisting of Misses Louise Feinberg, Annie Tribbie, Caro Pradham, Marguerite Henry, Ruth Watkins and Alwina sang two very pretty songs, the "Villanelle" and "A Barcarolle."

The program was as follows: The Transfiguration of Miss Phila-Jana Kingsley, "Mid-Summer," "Trowbridge," "Wakenings—Mianche," "St. Agnes Eve—Kendall," "Mariana—Tennyson," "Danza—Bartarolite," "The Governor's Last Leave—Kennedy."

The stage was decorated very effectively with peach blossoms and greens. The marionettes were Misses Ethel Knight, Leslie Burris, Nellie Hawley, Joan Wakefield, Kate Johnson and Udena Koyette. The popularity of the young reader was evident from the many beautiful flowers and gifts received.

Misses Udena Boyette of Charlotte, N. C., and Kate Johnson of Chicago and Mr. Will Elms of Halle Military Institute were visitors for the recital.

COUNTY TRUSTEES ARE TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

CALL ISSUED BY COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

MUCH TO BE DONE

Open Letter From J. B. Felton Urges That Every School Trustee Attend

The meeting of the school trustees of Anderson county, to be held in the court house next Monday, will be full of interest and much business will be transacted by that body.

The meeting is to convene promptly at 12 o'clock and Mr. Felton said yesterday that he hoped to see every school trustee represented. If he can secure the co-operation of all the trustees in every section of the county he hopes to be able to map out plans for getting better results in Anderson county schools than ever before.

The following is the letter sent every trustee by the superintendent: "The next regular meeting of the Trustees Association will meet at the Court House at Anderson on Monday, April 6th, at 12 o'clock and it is urged by the county board of education that every trustee in the county be present."

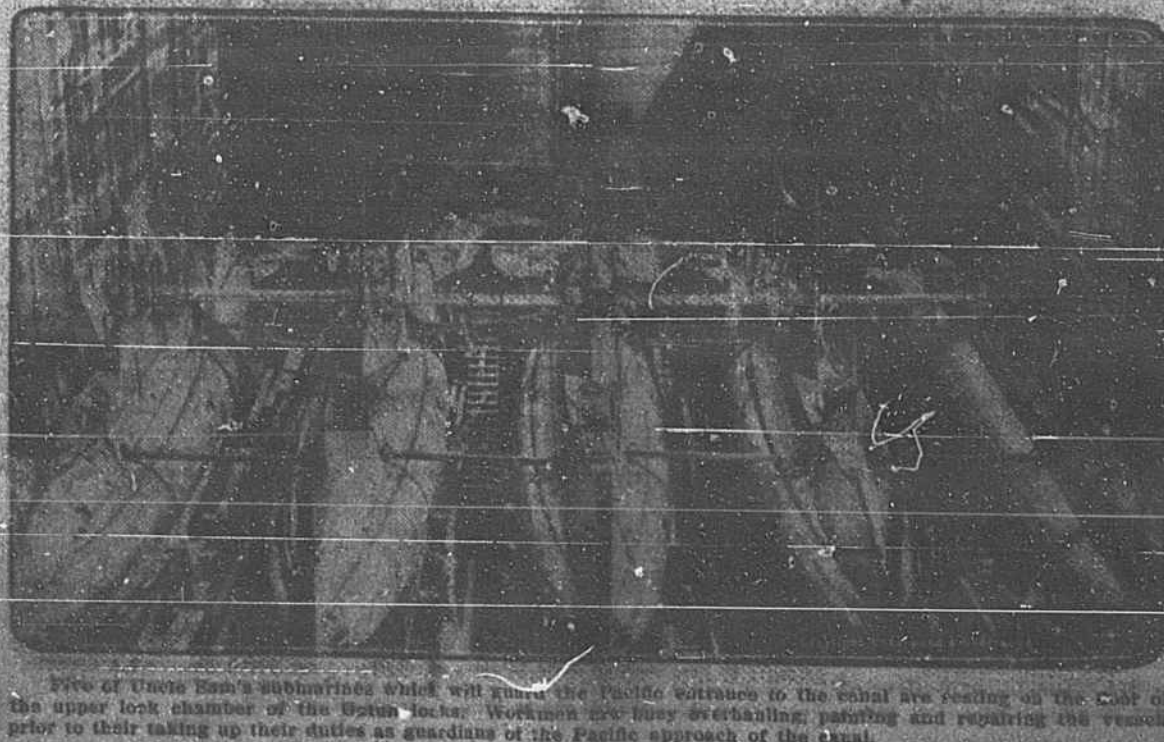

There are a number of things that will come up before this body on the above named date and we want the co-operation of the local trustees of the different districts of the county in the effort to make Anderson county the best county in the state from an educational standpoint.

"This will be a very busy time for the farmers of the county but we have got to make some sacrifices to get the best results in any line of business. The subject of continuing the rural supervisor of the county will come up at this meeting and the county board of education wishes to do the wishes of the people in this and every other thing that pertains to the uplift of the public education of the county."

"If any trustee of the county has anything that he wishes to bring before the body he will feel free to do so at any meeting."

"Expecting to see the largest attendance at this meeting that we have ever had and making these meetings more interesting as they come and go, I am, Very truly yours, J. B. Felton, County Supt. of Education."
