It was another phare of this same question which caused him to take this decided stand on the Panama Canal tolls. He said he was not willing to strike a blow at the transcontinental railroade merely to give an advantage to a rhipping monopoly. Under the treaty, any way, he did not believe that the United States could properly legislate to provide for the passage of American rhips through the Panama Canal, otherwise than on a basis of entire equality. a basis of entire equality.

and the collier Storstad will be held here tomorrow when the bodies will be buried.

Mayor Napoleon Druin, aided by the Cauadian Pacific officials and prominent men of the town, arranged for the ceremony, which will be imposing. There will be a public procession headed by the royal Canadian sarricon artillery hand and detachments from the warship Essex and the local military forces will be in line. The rchools will close and for a time business, will be suspended.

The number of disputes that have arisen is a rurprising feature of the identification work. In one case two persons, contended for possession of one of the liftle cirl victims with the result that when the biar was closed last night the body still was classed as unclaimed.

A curious case was that of Mrs.
Price, of New Zealand, who has been deatified by her niece. Miss. Townsend of New Zealand. Somewhat of a dilemma was created when lifteen or sixteen of the Emprers crew arrived on the scene and claimed the body as that of Miss Leder, formerly siewarders of the steamer. While the scame, were insistent in their deptifications, it was Miss Townsend, who won the day as she was positive who won the day as she was positive that the jewelry worn by Mrs. Price was known to her and she was backed an by Mr. Webher of the Canadian Pacific railway, who knew Mrs. Price personally.

ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

Would Be a Sorry Day For the United States, Says West
Atlanta, June 2.—"It would be a sorry day for the United States if it ever adopted government ownership of railroads," declared United States Sunday for Montana to take part in Senator W. S. West, of Georgie, in a recent discursion of the sueject which has attracted widespread attention.
Senator West's words are of particular importance, because as a student and scholar, as well as a man in public life he has studied the actual ticular importance, because as a flu-dent and scholar, as well as a man in public life he has studied the actual results of government ownership as practiced in the European equntries and consequently is able to back up his opinions with facts.

It was another phase of this same the way.
