PENDELTON CENTENNIAL.
The Farmers' Society is 100 Years Old in 1915.
To the Members of the Pendleton Farmers' Society:
The committee appointed to arrange the program for the centennial celebration next year, desires to make a report to the society at the August meeting on Thursday, August 13, 1914. We are prepared to submit a full program to the society at that time, but in order to make this centennial celebration a success, we must have, and the society must have, the hearty support of every member. We therefore urge you to be present at the meeting on Thursday, August 13th, to receive and discuss our report.
We make special request not only for your own attendance, but also ask that you bring as many of the men in your community as possible, and get them to join the society and assist in this celebration.
Yours very truly,
J. H. HARPER, Chrm.
J. C. STRIBLING,
H. M. HUNTER,
T. R. MCCARTHY,
W. H. MILLS, Sec'y.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou.
The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

NEW ADVANCES.
Sugar Soars Still Higher in Price—New High Records Established.
New York, Aug. 12.—The upward tendency of the sugar market continues and new high records were again made today when fine granulated sugar was quoted at 6.50 to 7 cents, and centrifugal 96 test at 5.58. The consumptive demand was very active both for local and foreign accounts and holders of raw sugar in Cuba had in many cases withdrawn offerings in execution of much higher prices.

CITY COUNCIL HAS CHOSEN NEW MEN FOR THE SERVICE

W. C. LEE, CHIEF OF POLICE TO BE SUCCEEDED BY J. W. SAMMONS

E. M. SCOTT WILL BE CITY CLERK

J. L. Foster, W. A. Clamp and W. S. Hall Will Be Added to the List of Patrolmen, Effective Sept. 1.

It was announced yesterday morning that a meeting of the Anderson city council would be held at 9 o'clock for the purpose of selecting certain new officials to serve the city during the ensuing term, but when that hour arrived and Alderman King had not returned to the city, it was necessary to again postpone the meeting. Mr. King arrived in the city yesterday afternoon about 6:30 o'clock and at 7 o'clock the new council with the exception of Alderman Tate, had assembled in the Chiquola hotel office. Mr. Tate had been called away from the city but left with the mayor a sealed ballot.

Mayor Godfrey called the council to order at 7 o'clock in the hotel and the election was taken up. The following is a complete list of council's selection for the various offices:
J. E. Barton, mayor pro tempore for a term of two years.
E. N. Scott, city clerk and treasurer for a term of two years.
G. Cullen Sullivan city attorney for a term of two years.
G. B. Walton, auditor for a term of two years.
J. A. Sammons, chief of police.
Olin E. Bell captain of police.
W. W. Driskell, J. W. Brown, M. M.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Many Automobiles Being Bought Here.
Already ranking well up with Richland and Greenville counties in the number of automobiles in use in the county, Anderson county bids fair to pass them all in point of machines if the present rate is kept up. Anderson automobile dealers simply can't get cars as fast as they can sell them and if the present rate is maintained a man on foot will soon have no chance at all, even out on a country road. John Sander has just brought to Anderson for his garage a car load of Hupmobile machines and these will probably be sold within the next few days. Other dealers are equally taxed to supply the demand.

Runaway Was of Short Duration.
Two mules, hitched to a wagon and tied in the rear of Todd's auto shop, became frightened yesterday when an automobile was cranked up and tried to run away. They made a good start and for a second or so it seemed that the wagon would be demolished but the sudden start of the frightened animals caused the wagon to be turned entirely over and as the bed flew off it came to the ground and struck on the lines, holding them to the ground. This stopped the mules in short order and but little damage was done.

Capt. McCully Will Go To St. Petersburg.
Dispatches from Washington reached Anderson yesterday which say that Capt. N. A. McCully, of the United States Navy, has been assigned to duty at St. Petersburg, Russia, and will leave for that point within the next few days. The dispatch says that Capt. McCully's friends in the navy are all envious over this splendid appointment to service as it will enable the Anderson officer to see some real fighting. Capt. McCully has a number of friends in this city and county and they will all be pleased to learn that such confidence is reposed in him by the government officials.

Anderson Is Now Exporting Goats.
Anderson already possesses a reputation of leading South Carolina in a number of things but it remained for James Thompson to establish Anderson's reputation as a goat-exporting center. He yesterday shipped to F. D. Simpson, at Toccoa, Ga., some of the finest Angora goats ever seen in this part of the country. They have long, silky wool, which is said to be worth about $8.00 per pound and were perfect specimens in every respect. It is said that the goat-raising industry can be made very profitable in this section.

Costly Ring Is Seen Here.
One of the prettiest rings ever displayed in Anderson is now on exhibition at the jewelry store of W. H. Keese & Company. The ring contains a beautiful white diamond and its sparkling is almost equal to that of the noon day sun. The price of the ring is $1,500 and so far no Anderson man has seen fit to consider buying it.

Orchard Is Being Agaid.
The Orr Cotton Mill, which has been closed down for the past fortnight, started up its machinery again yesterday morning and is running on full time. It is the custom with the cotton mills of this section to close down for two weeks during the summer months and to give their employees a vacation, at the same time repairing all of the mill's machinery and getting the plant into shape. The people of the Orr cotton mill all had pleasant vacations but they said yesterday that they were glad to be at work again.

Payne, J. W. Whitten, M. J. Aiken, M. M. Stuart, C. N. Saunders, W. C. Ginter (all former members of the police department); J. L. Foster (new), W. A. Clamp (new), and W. S. Hall (new), patrolmen.
All members of the police department are elected to serve "during the pleasure of the mayor and city council."

Thos. A. Campbell was recommended by the board of health for re-election as health officer for a term of one year. The recommendation was adopted.
J. C. Gilmer was re-elected as street overseer.

The newly elected officers will assume their duties on September 1st. A committee consisting of Alderman Barton, Spearman and Carter, acting with the mayor was appointed to dispose of the West Market street drain matter so that the C. & W. C. railway can proceed with its terminal improvements.

Election of officers and drivers and members of the fire department was postponed, also cemetery sexton and assistant sexton. These elections will occur at the September meeting of the council.

Mayor Godfrey announced he would name the standing committees of the council in the next day or two.

It will be seen from the list of those elected on the police force that Patrolmen James, McClelland and Bolt were defeated for re-election while Chief Lee did not offer for the position again. J. L. Foster, one of the new members of the force is a carpenter, as is W. S. Hall who will also become a patrolman, while W. A. Clamp, the third new member is now janitor at the court house and a special deputy.
Considerable interest will now surround the election of a fire chief and the firemen for the next term.

Editor of Gazette.
Enjoyed The Day.
A. L. Gossett, editor of the Tugaloo Tribune at Westminster, passed through Anderson yesterday en route to his home. Mr. Gossett had been to Westminster, where he was one of the guests at the McGee family reunion and he said that he had never spent a more pleasant day in his life. Mr. Gossett said yesterday was a sample of the way all McGees live he would like mighty well to be one of them.

Mr. Mann Back From Meeting.
Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Mann have returned from Lee and Marion counties, where they have been engaged for the last three weeks in conducting a series of revival meetings. Mr. Mann says that his efforts were attended with great success. This week Mr. Mann is assisting Rev. N. G. Wright in conducting a meeting at Mount Bethel church.

Large Crowd At Both Meetings.
The county candidates yesterday delivered addresses at two points, at the reunion of the pupils of the Mountain Springs school and at the picnic held at Walker-McElmoyle. It is understood that the attendance was large at both these meetings and that the candidates had careful attention. The school reunion was one of the best ever held and the Walker-McElmoyle picnic was the best ever.

Wilkes Webb Is Visiting Anderson.
Wilkes Webb, who holds a responsible position in the government service in Panama, has arrived in Anderson for a visit to his father, C. W. Webb. Mr. Webb made the passage on a British steamer and he says that the boat made the entire trip in without lights, expecting every minute to be fired upon by some German cruiser. Mr. Webb will probably be in Anderson for three or four weeks.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Aug. 11.—An increase in the market for food supplies because of the European war, together with charges that farmers and stock raisers are holding hogs and cattle for further price advances, were listed today as causes for a considerable increase in prices at which foodstuffs are being sold.
An investigation whether the prices are justified will be begun by a Chicago council committee, which, according to its chairman, will meet with state officials, heads of civic organizations, expert economists and representatives of wholesale and retail dealers.

"Retail prices are going up no faster than the cost of raw materials," said F. E. White, a director of Armour & Company today. "All classes of meat are advancing. This is only natural because we are called on to live off our own supply of cattle and hogs and at the same time Europe wants to buy from us, being unable as yet to import from South America and Australia."
A comparison of retail meat prices shows an increase since last week as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Today, Saturday. Round steak .25-28c 22c. Sirloin steak .28 25c. Porterhouse .35 30-32. Rib roasts .23 25c. Pork chops .30 22-24. Lamb chops .30 25c. Leg of lamb .24 22c. Veal steak .35 25-27.

Similar advances have been made in the prices of other foodstuffs within ten days as follows:
Now, August 1. Flour, bbl. $6.00-$7.00 $5.50-$6.25. Sugar, lb. 6-7c 5 1-2c. Eggs, doz. 30c 26c. Lemons, doz. 35-40 25c.

Retail meat dealers blame the wholesalers and a meeting of the United Butchers' Association has been called for Thursday.
And Seen Nothing Better.
"Say, did you ever know a woman to buy what she wanted at the first store she came to?" "Yes. My wife frequently does—that is, she returns to it after she's been to all the other stores."
