J. H. HUTCHISON IN THE RACE. Belton Journal. J. H. Hutchinson of Anderson, who is well known throughout the county, entered the race last week for the legislature. Mr. Hutchinson has served his county many years as Magistrate and made a fair and impartial officer. He was in Belton a few days ago and stated that his friends were responsible for him being in the race and if elected would do all in his power to be of permanent service to his county while a member of the lower house. His card appears elsewhere in this issue of the Journal.

Vote for John A. Horton For United States Congress

A man without any political record except that he served the town as mayor for several terms, but what is better, he is a successful business man, and has made a success in his own affairs and will represent the Third District and work for the best interests of the people.

Vote for him because he is a man that made his own way, worked on the farm, because he had to, paid his own way through college, went into business, and the people of the town realizing that he would do to trust, helped him to organize a bank and he made a success of it.

Having made a success of every undertaking, don't you believe he will make you a good representative?

Coming from the people and having to make his own way and not born with a silver spoon in his mouth, don't you believe him more capable of realizing the hardships and struggles of the great majority of the people. If you do vote for him every indication is that he will be in the second race, and if he is he will be elected. Help put him there by your vote.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE

From the best information we can get as to the Congressional race in this district it appears that John A. Horton will be in the second race, and just at this time it is not certain who the other man will be, Alken or Dominick. Mr. Horton made a most favorable impression at each of the campaign meetings and many people were heard to remark "that he is a good clean man that could be trusted."

John Horton has no political record to speak of and that is considerably in his favor, but he has a most remarkable record in his business career having made a success in every undertaking and the people of the Third district have decided that they will quit voting for people with "political records," as they have never received any special benefits from these records. A great many people are going to vote for John Horton because he has been a success in conducting his own business and they believe that it is the best indication that he will attend to the people's business more efficiently than the politician.

Many people in the Third district, and especially in Abbeville, his home county, do not understand why Mr. Alken could vote against President Wilson on the repeal of the free Panama tolls act. They say that if President Wilson and Secretary Bryan could see they were wrong and changed their mind; why couldn't Mr. Alken? Some do not understand either why Mr. Alken should have voted against the "Pure Food Bill" which was before congress for several sessions and which was bitterly fought by the manufacturers. Mr. Alken was one of the 17 democrats to vote against the bill, and he gives as his reason that there was an objectionable clause in the bill. If so, why didn't he propose an amendment knocking out the objectionable clause. Another thing many people do not understand is why Mr. Alken is shown as being "present" 14 times when questions were being voted upon instead of casting his vote either for or against. Being "present" and not voting is the same as voting for a bill.

Every where you go you find a sentiment for a change as Mr. Alken has been in congress 12 years and his father was there 16 years and many think it an opportune time to make a change, and many there are who are turning to Mr. Horton because he knows what it is to earn a living by the "sweat of his brow," and having made his own way from the ground up, educating himself and knows made a success of his own affairs, the people will take delight in honoring him by making him their representative.

Remember, Mr. Horton has no political organization and cannot send out letters under a frank, and has no friends to appoint to office that are working for him on the side. Stick to John Horton if you want a friend that will do "to tie to"

"Birds of a Feather Flock Together." I was very much interested in the congressional campaign and especially the meeting at Anderson. It was really amusing to see how our present congressman, Hon. Wyatt Alken, twisted and squirmed under the attacks of his opponents. His explanations were really ridiculous and the more Mr. Alken explained the more untenable his position seemed. Mr. Alken said the "Steamship Trust" told him, that its representatives, that they really wanted the "Free Tolls" done away with. We all know it was a case of the Rabbit begging not to be thrown into the briar patch—and yet Mr. Alken had the audacity to hand that out to an Anderson county audience. The explanation did not explain though. Every true American Democrat knows that free tolls through the Panama Canal is a "Ship subsidy"—taking money out of the people's pockets and putting it into the coffers of the ship owners. And to our utter surprise what do we find on page three of the Daily Mail of August 7th. We find John L. McLaurin coming to the rescue of Mr. Alken. Mr. McLaurin is a political outcast of the democratic party of South Carolina and he owes his predicament to this same thing of voting against the people. After that memorable vote in the United States senate the people of South Carolina left "Curley Headed Johnnie" at home the first opportunity. Mr. McLaurin has "Skinned the Cat" and "Looped the Loop" time and again to get back into the good graces of the True Democrats of South Carolina—but all to no avail. And the latest repudiation of Mr. McLaurin was by the "Bleasites." He cut a double-back-action summersault and landed in the Bleasite camp. But after they looked him over they decided they did not need him. And now Mr. Alken's friends are trying to justify his acts by this same "Curley-headed Johnnie."

Mr. Alken did not explain that vote of his against the "Pure Food and Drugs Act" to the satisfaction of the voters of Anderson and the Third District. If you want the record in the matter ask Mr. Alken to send you copy of the Congressional Record of June 23d, 1906. Look on page 9356 and you will find Mr. Alken along with 16 others voting against this law, and the only member of the South Carolina delegation so voting. $42 voted for the measure. VOTER.

Abbeville county, a part of the third congressional district, has had the congressman for 20 years. What right or claim does Mr. Alken put up to the Anderson county voters for a continuance of their support? Why go into another county for your congressman when we have a man of ability—one if elected will work in season and out of season for the whole district. A man who was born and raised in Anderson county. A man who helps you pay the taxes of your own county. A man who has your county at heart. A man who at all times will be on the job. Why tell John A. Horton, your home man, to stand aside till Mr. Alken has served ten more years in congress. Did you treat your county man right to vote for the Abbeville man. It is customary in other counties to take care of the home man first. Why, Mr. Alken himself, deep down in his heart knows that John A. Horton deserves the support of his home people, but for the love of the salary attached to the office, he will still continue to try and persuade you to leave your home man at home and continue to send him (Mr. Alken) to congress indefinitely. No one knows better than Mr. Alken that he has held this honor long enough.

Mr. Dominick will come to you Anderson voters and insist that you ask Mr. Horton to stand aside this time and give him your vote. This will not be treating your home man with the proper respect that is justly due him. Mr. Voter, of Anderson county: Vote for Mr. Horton, your home man in the first primary, and if you do this he will not only be in the second race, but he will be your next congressman. Think it over. Will you do it? Anderson county will poll nearly 9,000 votes on the 25th of August and a good majority of this vote should appear in the Horton column. Stand to your home man like men.—Adv.

MR. WRIGHT ENTERS RACE

Belton Journal. J. H. Wright, of Rock Mills township is in the race for county commissioner from District No. 2, comprising Rock Mills, Centerville, Fork and Pendleton townships. Mr. Wright is a very successful farmer and a man of good business ability. He has had many years experience in road and bridge building. If elected, he claims that he will use no partiality, giving each township a square deal. Mr. Wright was in Belton Saturday afternoon shaking hands with his friends. He attended the campaign meeting at Honea Path Saturday afternoon, and made a speech to a large number of voters. His card appears elsewhere in this issue.

Remember, Mr. Horton has no political organization and cannot send out letters under a frank, and has no friends to appoint to office that are working for him on the side. Stick to John Horton if you want a friend that will do "to tie to"
