IMPORTANT RACE SAW ONE CHANGE

Unofficial Returns Show That W. W. Scott Has Ousted Wolfe In Fight For House

When the returns from White Plains and Pierstown came in yesterday, the nomination of J. Mack King for supervisor was confirmed, but W. W. Scott received a large enough majority in these two boxes to run ahead of Sam W. Wolfe for the house of representatives.

Rufus Fant, Jr. of this city and J. H. Hutchinson of North Anderson maintained their respective leads, but Mr. Wolfe who was thought to be safely in the lead of Mr. Scott appears to have lost out by 21 votes. The returns up to yesterday morning gave Wolfe 3,547; Scott 3,464, a difference of 83 for Mr. Wolfe, but the Pierstown and White Plains boxes pulled the total up to 3,651 for Scott and 3,632 for Wolfe.

These are unofficial figures taken over the telephone and it may be that some errors may be discovered today when the executive committee meets to make official tabulation.

The following are the unofficial totals for the county:

For Supervisor
 J. M. King 3,574
 C. F. Martin 3,494

For Treasurer
 G. N. Coleman 3,720
 W. A. Tripp 3,392

 A. A. Hall, Jr. 3,237
 J. H. Hutchinson 3,698
 W. W. Scott 3,654
 S. M. Wolfe 3,632

Necessary for a choice 2,417. Four candidates received a majority of the votes, but the three receiving the highest are winners of course.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.
 "My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

ENGLAND'S FINANCES
 London, Sept. 8.—10:10 p. m.—"We want every penny we can raise to help fight the enemy," said David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, replying to a deputation from the municipalities which wanted the aid of the treasury in securing loans at cheap rates.

"We must come out triumphant in this struggle," continued the chancellor, "and as finance is going to play a very important part we must husband our resources. We do not want a penny spent which is not absolutely essential to relieve distress. In my judgment the last few hundred millions may win this war."

"The first hundred millions our enemy can stand as well as we, but the last they can't, thank God! Therefore, I think cash is going to count much more than we imagine. At the present moment we are only at the beginning; we are fighting a tough enemy who is well prepared for the fight and probably will fight to the very end before he will accept the only conditions upon which we can possibly make peace."

"If we are wise, that is where our resources will come in, not merely of men, but of cash. We have won with a silver bullet before. We financed Europe in the greatest war we ever fought and that is what won. Of course, British tenacity and British courage always come in, and they always will. But let us remember that British cash tells too."

Venezuela.
 Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 9.—The merchants and importers of Venezuela are anxious to learn what lines of manufactures they can advantageously import from the cities of the South which to them is a new section, just opened by the recently established steamship service between Mobile and Venezuelan and Colombian ports writes the American consul at La Guaira to the Chattanooga Industrial Board. He states that the Venezuelan business men are now in the proper receptive mood to be impressed with the opportunities for doing business on a better basis than formerly when they could import American goods via New York.

The new service from Mobile to these Caribbean ports gives the South a better chance to enter these markets than formerly. The consul says that Venezuelan manufacturers little import a little or everything so that there is a wide field for the sale of products manufactured in the United States if they were properly exported. He reports that a salesman representing a Chattanooga house recently told him of great success in selling his line in Venezuela. Mr. Charles L. Chandler, South American Agent for Southern Railway, Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and the Queen and Crescent Route, will give full information and extend any possible aid to any merchant or manufacturer who desires to enter the South American trade. The services of the South American agency will be given without charge of any kind, all its expenses being borne by the railway lines supporting it.

Making Old Building New
 A force of painters went to work yesterday morning on the building of the Lesser company on the square, and the adjoining building, in which C. S. Minor's store has been located, and the building now looks as good as new. The work is progressing rapidly and within a few days the interior improvements. The Minor store has been moved from the square to the remodelled building on South Main street and Mr. Minor says that he is immensely pleased with the new quarters.

"The Morning After" Attracted Visitors.
 More people from the country spent yesterday in Anderson than have been here for some time, due in all probability to the fact that it was the day after election and a number of the managers of the various precincts had to bring the boxes in, while others came out of curiosity to see if they could gather any later information about how the election went. People all over the state are heartily glad that South Carolina is through with politics and elections for two years and are glad of the respite.

Two Weddings
 Of Interest Yesterday.
 Two weddings of more than ordinary interest occurred in Anderson yesterday when Miss Marie Pruitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Pruitt, was married to John E. Wofford, Jr., at Starr and when Miss Leon Smith was married to Clifford Dean Coleman at the Lebanon church in Pendleton. The Smith-Coleman wedding was preceded by a magnificent reception Tuesday evening and the ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock yesterday morning while the Pruitt-Wofford wedding was at high noon on yesterday.

More Activity Along All Lines.
 On the very day that the month of September was ushered in, travel into Anderson began to increase and to a noticeable extent at that. There is no surer way to judge business conditions in a town than by the amount of travel to and from a city, and a hotel register is a sure indication of whether the town is going forward or backward. The people around town report that business conditions in Anderson are almost normal and that almost all buying and selling is going on in Anderson as at this season of any year.

A. R. P. Meeting Is Successful.
 Yesterday was the first approach of the winter months, so far as Anderson is concerned. The month of September did not bring any cooler weather here when the first rolled around yesterday there was a trace of fall in the air and Anderson weather prophets say that winter will soon be here in earnest. They predict that the fall and winter months will bring severe cold.

Mr. Carpenter Has Resumed His Duties.
 A. M. Carpenter, at one time editor of the Anderson Daily Mail but for the last few years an attaché of the Congressional Library in Washington, has returned to the capital to resume his duties. Mr. Carpenter has been spending part of the summer in Anderson, taking a vacation, and before he left he said that his stay here had helped him wonderfully, and that he felt very "fit" indeed.

October Brings Teachers' Examination.
 Notice has been issued by J. B. Felton, superintendent of education for Anderson county, to the effect that the next teachers' examination will be held in the court house on the first Friday in October. The examination held in October always attracts a larger number of applicants than at any other time. Probably because a majority of the country schools will just be beginning to open at that time.

Directors Had Pleasant Time.
 Anderson people returning yesterday from Chick Springs say that the meeting of the Piedmont and Northern lines railway directors, held at the magnificent Chick Springs hotel Tuesday evening, was a most pleasant occasion. A large number of the 35 directors were in attendance, and after the business meeting had been disposed of, they spent the remainder of the evening around the banquet table. The election of officers was the most important part of the evening.

Wesley Class To Work Saturday.
 The Wesley Philanthropic Class of the St. John's Methodist church will conduct a "parcel post" party next Saturday, beginning at noon. The party will take place in the store room recently vacated by the Citizens National Bank and ice cream and cake will be served throughout the afternoon. The class is anticipating a liberal patronage.

Holliday Says His Friends Were Kind.
 J. M. Holliday, one of the candidates for county commissioner in the second race and defeated Tuesday, was in Anderson yesterday and while here said that he did not mind his defeat so much, since he found that he had more good friends in the county ready to help him fight his battles than he had ever possessed before. Mr. Holliday says that he appreciates everything that any voter did for him.

Movement Is Gaining Ground.
 The "Buy-A-Bale" movement recently launched in Anderson in an effort to help the cotton farmers of this community with their cotton crop, seems to be gaining ground every day. It is understood that a large number of bales were bought in Anderson yesterday by local business men, each of them paying 10 cents per pound for the fleecy staple. The first bale to be sold here yesterday morning, so far as is known, was purchased by B. O. Evans from A. L. Majeski of Anderson R. F. D. He paid $45.30 for the bale.

Anderson County To Hear Singing.
 E. L. Bannister, secretary of the Anderson County singing convention issued notice yesterday that the convention will meet with the Six and Twenty church on the fourth Saturday and Sunday of this month, September 26 and 27. Mr. Bannister says that he expects more good singers to be present at this convention than have ever attended a similar event in this country and he believes that every minute of the entire two days will be enjoyable.

Small Blaze Did But Little Damage.
 The fire alarm sounded yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the department made a quick run to the Coneros Rope Mill on Earle street near the Blue Ridge station. The fire originated in the opening room where the bales are torn apart by the machinery and the machine teeth struck either a nail or some other metal, causing a spark. This ignited the cotton and in a few minutes the fire was beyond control of the employees of the mill. When the fire department arrived the blaze was extinguished with but little difficulty and small damage.

Asking Information On Grain Elevators.
 The Anderson chamber of commerce has sent out a number of letters within the last few days to the people interested in grain in Kansas City, Wichita, and other points in Kansas and western points, asking for information on the subject of the grain elevators. The plan of building a grain elevator in Anderson was suggested by Col. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture for South Carolina and a letter has also been addressed to him asking for more detailed suggestions and an outline of the plan to be followed. It is believed that such a plan would take well in Anderson.

L. J. Scott Is Now Recovering.
 L. J. Scott, the aged janitor employed by the Anderson chamber of commerce and the Central Presbyterian church, is beginning to recover from the injuries he received when he was struck by some falling timbers while riding on the elevator at the local mill several days ago. When Mr. Scott was first carried to the hospital it was thought that both of his legs were broken but later it was found that his right leg was only badly bruised and sprained and the left leg broken. Physicians at the hospital say that he is getting along very nicely and that the broken bone has begun to knit.

A Lame Back-Kidney Trouble Causes It.
 It don't take long for kidney and bladder trouble to give you a lame back, and even worse, if not checked. Mrs. H. T. Straygne, Gainesville, Ga., was fairly down on her back with kidney trouble and inflamed bladder. She says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills and now my back is stronger than in years, and kidney trouble and painful bladder sensation have entirely gone." Good druggists are glad to sell Foley Kidney Pills because they "always" help. They contain no habit forming drugs. Evans' Pharmacy, agents.

"Frolaset"

"Frolaset" means, literally laced in front—but it has come to mean much more.—It means "THE BEST" in the corset line—correct form, style, comfort.
