OUR DAILY THOUGHT

Loyalty. I think not of tomorrow, its trials or its task, but still, with childlike spirit, for present mercies ask, with each returning morning I eat old things away; Life's journey lies before me; My prayer is for today.

DESTROY THE "TIGER."

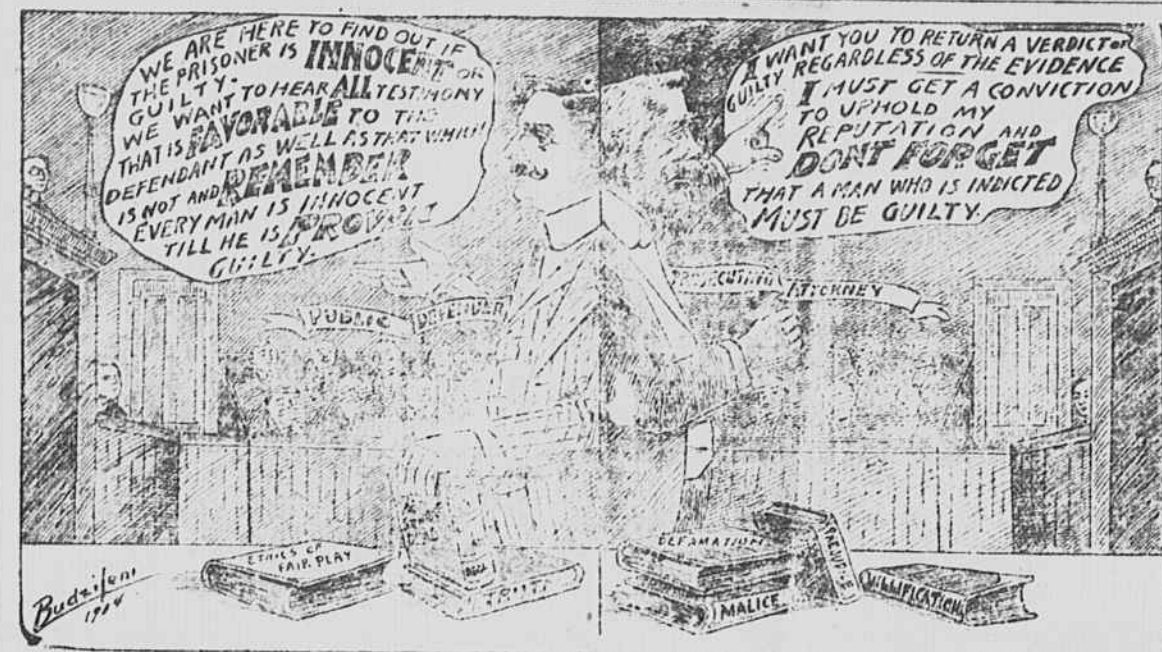

Suppose that during last night a wild tiger should have come up out of the Seneca river, and have attacked and carried off a little boy living on the outskirts of Anderson.

Men of Anderson: A much worse deadly enemy to the life and happiness of your boy and girl has been committing depredations in your city. The victims have been and are to be, not one or two boys and girls, but scores of as bright and pretty little boys and girls as you today tripping to school, or playing round the fire-side.

This matter of putting a stop to the sale of liquor illegally in the city of Anderson is no child's play, and it is a task in which every citizen who has the welfare of the city and of his children at heart should engage.

LA FOLLETTE'S BREAK-DOWN

The report from Wisconsin to the effect that Senator Robert M. LaFollette has again broken down in health recalls the fact that a similar occurrence took place in Philadelphia a year or two ago, and the Philadelphia incident took place while Mr. LaFollette was engaged in making a speech, as was again the case in Wisconsin a few days ago.

The Public Defender—As He Really Appears.

A SPLENDID MOVE.

The city officials of Anderson have launched a determined move against the blind tigers of that city. Detectives were secured from Atlanta and a number of cases against alleged tigers were made out. In some of the cases convictions have been secured.

THE BELTON FAIR

These are fairs and fairs. Some are held for the benefit of "horse races"—some for the benefit of the fair association—some for the benefit of fake side-shows and gambling schemes where you toss rings or put your money on the "lucky turn of the wheel."

OUR DAILY POEM

The Woman's Thanks. There is so much strong men are thankful for, A nation's progress or a slow strife's end;

The little common joys of every day, My garden blowing in an April wind, A linnets' greeting and the morning fall

The dear, accustomed joys we lightly take Too much for granted sometimes as a child His father's girls; and, so remembering,

FRUITS OF DEMOCRACY

Today the fruits of President Wilson's administration, not yet a year and six months old, are piled high before us. We were warned that the passage of the tariff act, which was its first conspicuous achievement, would flood American markets with foreign goods,

LABOR UNION CAUSED CONSIDERABLE MIX-UP

FIGHT AT ANDERSON MILL MONDAY NIGHT

WOMEN WERE HURT

Representative of American Federation of Labor Was trying to Organize Association Here. While a speaker was addressing a large crowd of mill workers at Edmonds store on F street in Anderson mill village Monday night, a fight took place between Henry Alken and W. S. Edmonds, during the course of which Edmonds was cut across the arm and his wife and daughter also suffered painful injuries from knife wounds.
