Wish to Send Girl to Columbia.
 One of the good women who has been assisting in the relief of distress among the people in Anderson who are in abject poverty stated last night that she has a little girl of some 12 years of age whom she wishes to send to Columbia Monday, where she will be placed in an institution. The girl lives with her mother, who is unable to work, and with an idiotic brother, who will probably be sent to the county home. The girl is said to be a bright child, and it is believed that she would be better off in an institution in Columbia than in her present environs. Mrs. J. S. Sargent is the lady reporting the case, and stated that if the necessary papers could be gotten ready the child would be sent away Monday with Mr. Sargent, who has to go to Columbia on business that day.

$15.55 For Belgian Relief Fund.
 The Chamber of Commerce received yesterday from Grace Methodist church, at Williamston, the sum of $15.55 for the Belgian relief fund. In sending in this money Miss Maida Goodlon writes: "I wonder if it has occurred to you to ask Miss Carlington to interest the school children of our county in the Belgian children. Pellagra in South Carolina.
 Those interested in the matter of pellagra will be interested in the following information with reference to the subject taken from the current issue of the Insurance Herald-Argus: "According to statistics received by the South Carolina board of health, during the year 2,530 cases of pellagra including every county in the State except Jasper, were reported. Though this is a large number of cases represented in one disease, it does not represent the total, as only 507, or about 35 per cent., of the physicians, reported. Females appear most susceptible to the disease, the gross figures showing: White adults, male, 327 cases; females, 968. Negro adults, male, 196; female, 431. White children, male, 193; female, 208. Negro children, male 47; female, 60. Experiments being made in the treatment of pellagra at Spartanburg are proving satisfactory, according to Dr. O. W. Leonard, and many improvements are reported. Dr. Leonard does not believe the disease is purely of dietary origin, but due to a germ that infests the intestines, and it is upon this basis that treatment is being made. He says it is too early yet to report definitely, but is well pleased with the results thus far shown."

RECOVERS BRACE FINE PISTOLS AND A WATCH

HAD BEEN HIDDEN IN CEILING OF NEGRO MAN'S HOUSE

MAN CONFESSES

Deputy Drennan Found at the Same Time a Third Pistol. Clever Bit of Work.

As the result of a clever bit of detective work by deputy Bill Drennan of the office of Magistrate W. C. Broadwell, a brace of handsome pistols and a gold watch have been recovered for Col. James T. Roberts, these articles having been stolen from the latter's residence several days ago by some one then unknown. At the same time that Deputy Drennan recovered this brace of pistols and the watch he recovered a third pistol, which, it is believed, was also stolen property.

Steve Robinson, a negro man of some 35 years of age, was arrested by the officer upon the finding of this property concealed in the ceiling of the colored man's house. Deputy Drennan stated that Robinson confessed to taking the pistols and watch from Col. Roberts. The negro is in jail.

Stolen From House.
 The brace of pistols are of the well known Smith and Wesson make. They are of the hammerless pattern, have pearl handles and are of .38 calibre. Several days ago Col. Roberts returned to his home and discovered that some one had entered his house in his absence and stolen the pistols and the watch. The matter was reported to Deputy Drennan, who at once set to work on the case, with the result that he recovered the property last night.

Concealed in Ceiling.
 Deputy Drennan went to the house of Steve Robinson, who lives on what is known as Leathers' Row, a negro settlement in the rear of Col. Roberts' home. He made an examination of the house and discovered the pistols concealed between the ceiling and the outer wall of the house. A piece of the ceiling over the door had been forced open and the weapons and watch dropped through. A large picture hanging over the door obscured the hiding place of the pistols the negro attempted to run. Mr. Drennan grabbed Robinson and held him while he made the negro's wife get up on a chair and take the pistols down from their hiding place. In the same hiding place was discovered a small Ivers & Johnson pistol, but as yet the deputy does not know to whom this belongs.

Friday for the purpose of appearing before County Superintendent of Education Thomas A. A. Smith of that county with a bid for furnishing the school furniture. There are 502 desks in the order and they will be distributed among the schools of the 23 districts in that county. The Anderson firm won out in the bidding over several other concerns. The desks will be shipped to Oconee with fnyw d a ea s w g3.FD in a few days and installed right away.
