Richard Jones' Store on Emerson Bridge Road Entered Monday Night-Negroes in Jail.

"Boss, I ain't had nuthin to eat at my house an' I stole dem things cause I wuz hongry," are the words of ex-planation spoken last night by Alvin Thompson for himself and his partner-in-crime, Joe Bates, as they stood gazing through the bars of the county iams at their homes several miles below the city. Monday night they broke into the store of Mr. Richard Jones, who lives three miles south of Jones, who lives three miles south of the city on the Emerson Bridge road. The staple fastening the door was drawn with a pick and upon entering the negroes helped themselves to some cheese, crackers, and other articles of food and a pair of shoes.

The sheriff's office was notified of the robbery yesterday morning and immediately put officers to work on the case. The officers spent practically the entire day in rounding up the negroes. One of the negroes has been living on the plantation of Mr. been living on the plantation of Mr. Ham Acker, while the other lived on the Majesty place. Both negroes admit that they broke into the store and stated that they did it because they were hungry and had nothing to eat at home.

When the reporter called at the jail about 6 o'clock both were sleeping soundly in their cells. A good supper each at the hands of the county authorities and warm dry beds in which to sleep had done the work.

PROHIBITION BILL

HAS BEEN PREPARED

SPARTANBURG, Jan. 3.—Under the direction of the headquarters committee of the Anti-Saloon League, Senator Howard B. Carlisle has drawn the Statewide prohibition bill that will be introduced in the approaching legislature and made the basis of the fight by the prohibitionists of the State before that body. It will be submitted to the members of the committee tomorrow; but may not ists of the State before that body. It will be submitted to the members of the committee tomorrow; but may not be made public for the time being. The document is said to be simple and brief and seeks to apply to the whole State the liquor laws that apply to the dry counties at the present time. During the past week several conferences have been held by members of the headquarters committee, and it is said thay are confident, from what they hear from over the State, that prohibition will win in the legislature and the question be submitted to the people at an election to be held next fall.

An interesting rumor is current locally as to an amendment to existing liquor laws to be advocated by the advocates of prohibition. It will be proposed to make it unlawful for any person to receive more than one yallon of liquor per month, according to this report. At present the law allows individuals to receive for personal use packages of four and a fraction gallons as often as he desires.

"Craig Kennedy" scientific detective, promises to outrival the famed Sherlock Holmes, from a popularity standpoint. Kennedy doesn't use bull-dozing methods and strong-arm principles to ferret out crime. He depend: "900 science to sid him, and he uses only scientific methods in running down criminals.

In "The Exploits of Elaine." the latest and conceded to be the very best piece of work yet turned out by Arthur B. Reeve, creutor of the "Craig Kennedy" detective stories, science is siven full sway in the working out of the mysteries surrounding this attractive young miss, who happens to be none other than the pretty Pearl White, so recently a spectacular figure in "The Perlis of Pauline." The Elaine series, is being put on. The film was made by the Pathe establishment in collaboration with the Hearts syndicate of newspapers. This combination has developed one of the country's biggest film-producing companies, and the films it turns out are conceded to be among the very best to be seen anywhere in the world. The company that had produced "The Exploits of Elaine" is an all-star cast and is headed by that sterling actor. Arnold Daly. Associated with him, in addition to Miss White, are Sheldon Lewis, William Riley Hatch and others. Mr. Reeve, the author of the serial, has in collaboration with him the well-known playwright Charles L. Goodard. Together they have solved a piece of entertsining action, based entirely upon scientific deductions, which promises to eventually become the greatest serial story ever screened.

MONEY STOLEN MONDAY NIGHT FROM HOME ON SOUTH MAIN

CLUES NO

Two Negroes Who Were Under Arrest Have Been Released.

The theft early Monday evening of $52 from the residence of Frank P. Robertson, 505 South Main street, has puzzled police detectives at work on the case no little. They are without a single clue as to who took the money, and two negroes who were detained on suspicion have been re-leased, as no evidence could be had pointing to their connection with the obbery.

The money was in a bureau drawer in a room used by the children.
Mrs. Robertson was in the room not more than 30 minutes before the more than 30 minutes before the money was missed, but whether she saw the money when she was in the room at this time, police were not prepared to state. The matter was reported to police headquarters Monday night, and immediately officers were set to work to ferret out the thief, if possible, the premises were arrested that night and held in the city jail that night and up until late yesterday afternoon, when they were released.
