

NAMES IN THE INTELLIGENCER OFFICE

The following bit of monologue, in which play is made on the names of those connected with The Intelligencer, was written by Jack Lord, of the Dave Newman Musical Company, playing this week at the Palmetto Theatre, and read last night at the annual banquet of this paper:

'Twas a shady GLENN, on one side was a field of HAYES And over YON a cemetery with a creek running past the GRAVES Mattie was scolding her boy for going swimming in the Creek, ADAMS was MATTISON and the chastisement made him weep. He was weeping tears of sorrow, with his twin sisters, MARY-NELL. This gave the CREEKMORE water, for it made the river swell, Just then along came SASSEEN, with his pencil and his pad, and both girls knew at once that he was looking for an ad. Seeing there was no escape one girl jumped in the water GODFREY pulled out a cigar and with it tried to ROPER SULLIVAN screamed he can't miss if he's AULL WRIGHT KINNEY? NIX.

But the rope fell short, and the poor girl was in an awful fix she went down twice and had about made up her mind to die, when up arose a great big SMOAK and the creek went dry.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF INTELLIGENCER HELD

SECOND FAMILY GATHERING LAST NIGHT WAS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

NOVEL PROGRAM

Was Carried Out For The Entertainment of the Guests. Toasts Responded To.

The second annual banquet last night of the officers of The Anderson Daily Intelligencer Company, the staff of the paper and the employees of the various departments was in every particular a most enjoyable occasion. The affair was held at the Piedmont Cafe and was attended by several of the officers and directors of the company, the entire staff and all but two or three of the employees. A bountiful feast, short speeches by various ones present and a performance by a professional vaudeville troupe were among the outstanding features of the occasion. The event was made all the more enjoyable on account of the presence of the wives of several of the officers and employees of the paper. The occasion will long linger in the memory of those who were so fortunate as to be present.

At 6 o'clock the guests assembled about two long tables that had been arranged in the rear half of the Piedmont Cafe. The first surprise of the evening was furnished when the ten or more members of the Dave Newman Musical Company, who are holding the boards at the Palmetto theatre this week, filed in and took places at the table which had been reserved for them. The fact that arrangements had been made for the appearance of the vaudeville troupe was known to but a few who were in charge of arrangements for the banquet, and the entrance of the performers created no little surprise. Without loss of time, members of the vaudeville troupe busied themselves in entertaining the guests, and this they did in royal style. A number of catchy songs were rendered by soloists, a quartette and a trio during the evening, and some excellent monologue work was done by one of the troupe. Probably the most amusing feature of the entertainment was the rendition by one of the artists of a bit of monologue in which he made some play on the names of several of those connected with The Intelligencer. Among the most enjoyable songs rendered by the troupe was "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," this number being encored repeatedly. The work of Miss Carrie Hawley, possessor of an unusually sweet and charming voice, is worthy of special mention. One of her songs, "I Am Looking For Someone to Love," was encored. Other members of the troupe who did splendid work are: Jack Lord, Lew Gordon, Walter Wright, Misses Babe Lepore, Gustie Vernon, Isla Tolliver, Evelyn Leigh and Dolly DeVerne. The accompaniments for the singers were played by Mr. Dave Newman, in excellent style. When this part of the program had been completed, the members of the vaudeville troupe retired.

The remainder of the program was taken up with short speeches by various guests. Porter A. Whaley, secretary of the board of directors, acted as toastmaster, a position which he fills with splendid ability. The first speaker of the evening was Gen. M. L. Bonham, of the board of directors of The Intelligencer Company. After speaking a word of appreciation of the entertainment furnished by the vaudeville troupe, Gen. Bonham traced briefly the history of the doctrine of the freedom of the press, which is written into the constitution of the country. He closed the press as one of the greatest agencies for good in the world, standing next to the pulpit in that respect. He took occasion to speak of the fact that The Intelligencer stands for the moral uplift of this community as well as for the advancement of the agricultural, educational and commercial interests of the section. He pointed out how in the making of a great newspaper the success to which that paper attained is measured by the character of the men who were charged with the making of the paper. As long as The Intelligencer is maintained on the high plane on which it is now being conducted, he said, the directors would pledge their support to those who are actively connected with the affairs of the publication. And in addition to that, he stated, they will receive the plaudits of a public who appreciates the efforts the paper is making in the interests of the community.

During the course of the evening toasts were responded to by the following: M. M. Mathison, president of The Intelligencer Company, "Why I Like Newspaper Work." J. S. Fowler, vice president, "How Can a Newspaper Aid the Street Paving Movement." W. W. Smoak, editor and manager of The Intelligencer, "The Intelligencer, Its Past, Present and Future."

T. K. Roper, manager Job department, "The Job Department." L. M. Glenn, city editor, "Trials of a Newspaper Man in Anderson."

Phelix Sasseen, advertising manager, "Advertising." T. B. Goddard, circulation manager, "An Instance in Every Home."

T. Adams, telegraph editor and foreman, "The Mechanical Department." Rev. W. C. Kirkland, editor Southern Christian Advocate, "The Southern Christian Advocate."

Claude A. Graves, editor and manager The Belton Journal, "The Belton Journal, Its Future."

J. L. Aull, "Linotype Antics." Miss Sarah Hayes, bookkeeper, "Efficiency in The Intelligencer Force."

A. M. Wright, "Some Inside Talk." The program was brought to a close with the rendering of a number of popular melodies by The Intelligencer quartette, composed of Marynell, Godfrey, Haynie and Ortmann.

Mr. C. B. Earle, one of the most prominent young members of the Anderson Bar, has been appointed United States Commissioner for this county, Tuesday from United States Judge Henry A. M. Smith, of Charleston, judge of the United States District Court for the eastern and western districts of South Carolina.

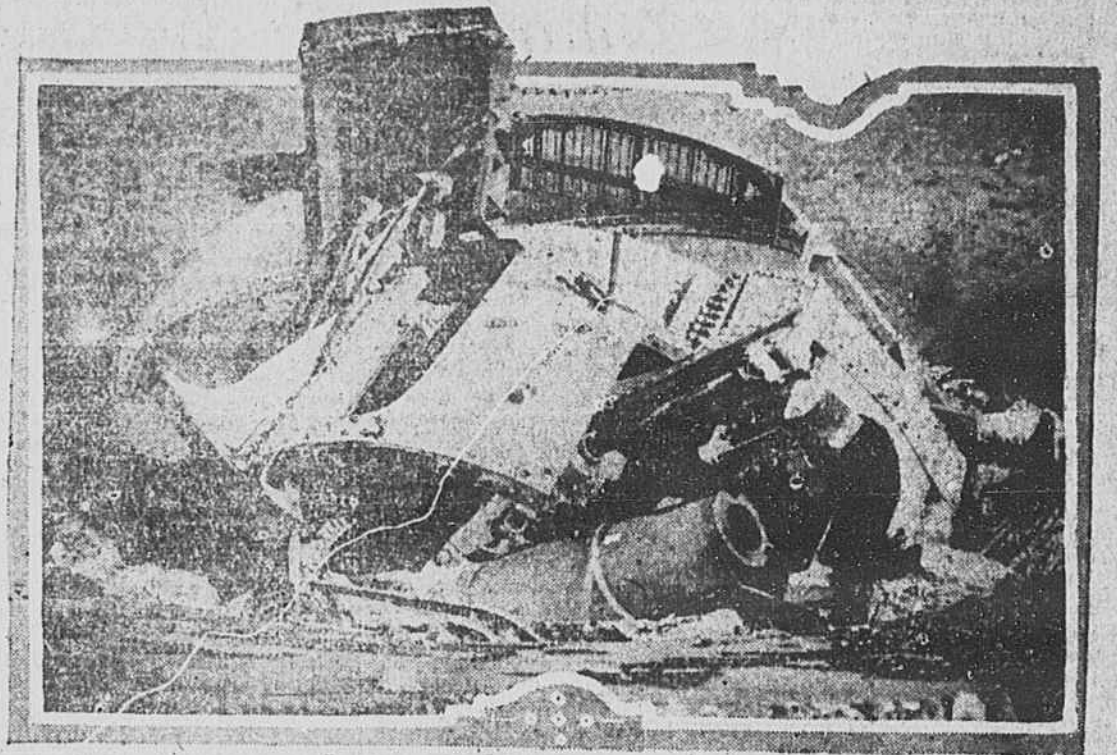

Mr. Earle succeeds as Federal Commissioner the Hon. S. M. Wolfe, who sent in his resignation, as the law would not allow him to hold the position of commissioner and serve as a member of the legislature at the same time.

The appointment of Mr. Earle is for a period of four years. There is no law with respect to the number of terms one can serve as commissioner, so it does not mean that Mr. Earle's duties in this line will come to a close at the expiration of four years. Should he care for the position again, he will be reappointed for another period of four years.

The new commissioner is qualified in every way to fill the position to which he has been appointed, and the action of the Federal judge in commissioning him will meet with the hearty approval of the members of the local bar and the public in general.

KEEPING IN GOOD CONDITION Many people suffer from indigestion and constipation and do not know it. A feeling of dullness and languidness, bitter taste in the mouth, headache, bilious fever—most of these conditions when you are not sick but don't feel right—can be traced to sluggish bowels and torpid liver. Foley's Cathartic Tablets cleanse the system, arouse the liver, banish indigestion and make you feel good all over—light, energetic and ambitious. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

What Remains of Fortress Bismarck at Tsingtau.

That the Japanese as well as the Germans have mighty guns for use in this war is proved by the appearance of this German fortress at Tsingtau, the German dependency in China, just taken by the Japanese.

This was Fortress Bismarck, one of the principal fortresses in the German fortification. It withstood the bombardment by the Japanese fleet until a shell struck it in the right place. Then it was torn to bits as shown in the first photograph of the results of the fight in China. The heavy steel encasement which held the German guns was literally lifted from the ground and a dozen men were buried in the ruins.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Hair coming out? If dry, thin, faded, bring back its color and lustre.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre. Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is fiery, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active (adv.)

THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION PEOPLE

WERE HAULED DURING 1914 ON LOCAL TRACTION LINES

NONE INJURED

Remarkable Record in This Respect Was Made—Not One Injured in the Slightest.

Approximately three-quarters of a million people, or to be exact, 732,528 passengers were carried during the year 1914 on the city lines of the Southern Public Utilities company, according to data given out yesterday by the resident manager of the company.

But a more interesting feature in this connection is the fact that these three-quarters of a million people were carried without injury, even to the slightest scratch, a single passenger. The record is a splendid one and speaks well for the painstaking and efficient manner in which the local street car system is operated. It is doubtful if the record is equaled by any city of Anderson's size in the country.

EXPECT BIG CROWDS FOR INAUGURATION

TRAVELING PASSENGER AGENT OF SOUTHERN HERE YESTERDAY

VERY LOW RATES

Will Be in Effect on Railroads on Account of Event—$3.90 From Anderson.

That there will be a large number of people in Columbia from all sections of the State on January 19 to witness the inauguration of Governor Richard I. Manning, is the prediction of W. R. Taber, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway, with headquarters in Greenville, who was in the city yesterday morning for the purpose of placing in the local papers announcements of special rates which his railroad would give to Columbia on account of this event.

Round trip tickets from Anderson to Columbia will be sold for the remarkably low sum of $3.90. This is even less than tickets to the State fair sold for. Mr. Taber said that the extremely low rate was made because it is expected that there will be a record-breaking number of people in the Capital City for the inauguration of the new governor.

Tickets go on sale here January 18, with return limit of midnight, January 20. It is probable there will be a number of people from this city who will go down for the inauguration.

SPARKLES FROM REFUGE

The good people of this place met and reorganized the Sunday school here last Sunday afternoon. Let's each and every one attend every Sunday, and not stay home discussing politics, war and low priced cotton. We believe if this is done, we will have a better community.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jenkins of Pendleton spent Saturday and Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sears and family of near Pendleton spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. William Kelley, of the Bishop's Branch section.

Mr. John Robert Wilson and family of near Six and Twenty have moved on the plantation of Mr. S. L. Hicks. Welcome into our community. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who are glad to have you for our neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Evatt and children and Master John Lenderman visited at the home of Mr. P. C. Gillespie Sunday.

Mr. Foster Evatt and a nephew, Master Warley Lenderman, and a negro, the Hicks, were driving through the lawn at Athabula farm in a wagon, late Thursday evening when the mules became frightened at something that looked very much like a black dog, and jumped, throwing the top bed from the wagon and Mr. Evatt and the negro with them, leaving Master Warley in the wagon alone. The mules continued to run for some little distance when they stopped, as suddenly as they started. There was no one hurt very bad, but the negro, who had his head skinned a little.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kay have been spending several days in Pendleton at the bedside of Mrs. Kay's father, Mr. Jasper Stewart, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but we are glad to know that he is very much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Evatt, and little son, D. C., Jr., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gillespie.

Mrs. W. F. C. Owen and charming little daughter, of Greenville, have been spending several days at Mr. W. G. Wilson's home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Phillips and little son, McDonald, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. J. Evatt has returned to her home near this place after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Lenderman of Athabula farm.

Mrs. R. W. Nelson and little daughter, Helen, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. T. F. Evatt.

Misses Sallis and Etta Gillespie were visiting their sister last Saturday, Mrs. L. T. Craig, of Central.
