Report of the Library Committee of the Ladies' College Association. (Some weeks ago the society editor of The Intelligencer requested the chairman of the library committee to give her for publication a report of the committee's work. As the chairman had offered her resignation, to take effect December 31, 1914, and expected to give a full report to the College Association, she promised to send a copy to The Intelligencer. Below is the report):

Three years ago, while Anderson College was in process of building, Prof. J. K. Breedin, the dean of the college, asked the writer to act as chairman of a library committee, whose duty it should be to raise funds to receive gifts of books and to arouse interest in the minds and hearts of the people in establishing a library in keeping with the high standard that the promoters of the college had set before them. No other persons were appointed on the committee by the dean, but the chairman was requested to select her own helpers. A little later a Ladies' College Association was organized and Mrs. E. F. Cochran became president. She retained the chairman of the library committee previously appointed, and approved the policy already adopted by the chairman, which was not to select a permanent committee, but from time to time to call upon different people for aid in various ways. This plan has been continued during the three years (and more), and this explanation is made so that those wishing to know who the members of the committee are, (or have been), may know that they are (or have been) all those names included in this report as giving help in any way.

At the very outset Prof. Breedin handed over to the chairman a list of people who had promised to give him money for the library. There are 13 names on the list, but as only two have the amount appended, and we do not know whether the other ever paid or not, we give only those two names, which are: Dr. Olga Pruitt, $2; and Dr. A. L. Smethers, $5.

The writer wishes it to be understood that this report does not claim to be an exhaustive one concerning the gifts of money and books to the library during these three years, but simply those funds and gifts made through her, or reported to her by the donors. Even of those there may be some omissions, due to loss of written record. Anyone knowing of such omission would do a favor to bring it to our remembrance.

In the summer of 1912 we decided to have a concert by local talent. It was to be in the opera house on the evening of July 4. Mr. Furman Smith then had charge of the opera house and he let us have it very cheap as his contribution to the library. We wish we could recall the names of all who so kindly promised to take part in the concert, but only a partial list would be possible now. Just the day before the concert, however, through the efforts of Miss Margaret Evans, and others, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Miller, who were visiting in Anderson, were prevailed upon to sing for us (although they had come to rest), so the other concert was postponed indefinitely, and really never came off.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller sang to a full house, and most kindly and magnanimously refused to take any of the proceeds, making that amount as their gift to the college of Mr. Miller's home town. The net proceeds of this concert were a little over $200, which amount was at once turned over to Prof. Breedin who invested it in books.

Not long after this the chairman began another method of raising funds, and also began keeping the funds in the Anderson Library. This new plan which was approved by the president and members of the College Association and also the college faculty, and which seemed to promise so much, was in reality not so successful as we had anticipated, and was a very tedious, never-ending way to get money. The plan was this: All organized alumnae associations were asked to make donations to the Anderson College library in the name of their alma mater; and where there was no real organization, the alumni and alumnae were to be seen individually by some one appointed by the chairman. A good many of the organized associations promised to make gifts, and some have responded beautifully. Perhaps the others still intend doing so!

We should be glad to give the names of all who have thus responded, as well as of all who worked the plan, but it is impossible to do so from the organized associations, as they sent their gifts to the chairman by check and without individual names; either shall we give the names of those solicited individually, since we can't give the others. It would not be fair, however, not to give the names of those who so kindly used a good deal of time collecting from others. They are: Mr. Stark Sullivan from the Clemson alumni, Miss Bessie Major from the Hollins alumnae, and Miss Helen Burries from the Bessie Tift alumnae.

We now append the names of the various schools and colleges making gifts, and the amounts given:

Limestone College $15.00 (and E. A. Poe's works.)

Clemson College 9.00

Hollins College 5.50

Converse College 14.50

Lander College 4.00

(and six books.)
Due West College for Women . . . 13.00
Ligon men 18.00
(Two men giving $5 each.)
Furman University men 10.00
Patrick's Military Institute men . . . 3.00
Bessie Tift College 5.00

Total $50.00
Dues 5.00

(All dues paid to College Association by chairman, or member gotten by her, were allowed to go into library fund.)

Grand total from these two sources $101.00
Total from these and concert previously mentioned a little over $300.
The following books have been given through the chairman or reported to her:

"Set of Historical Tales," 15 volumes, Mrs. J. L. Glenn.
Sir Walter Scott's complete works, Mrs. R. C. Webb.

"The South in History and Literature," through Mrs. E. C. Webb for Dr. E. Lee chapter of U. D. C.'s.
"Modern Painters," by Ruskin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Paget.

Waverley novels in 12 volumes by W. Scott; "David Copperfield," "Old Curiosity Shop," by Dickens; "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," by Ian McLevan; "Southern Women in the Confederacy," volume 11; "The Old Stone Church," "Old Pendleton District," given by Mrs. J. R. Vandiver.
Disbursements: The $200 was expended by Prof. J. K. Breedin in Feb. 4, 1914, purchased "Volume Library" which is a one volume encyclopaedia . . . $10.50
October, 1914, New International Encyclopaedia 78.63
October, 1914, Dictionary 11.00
Total $100.13
Owing to the fact that a part of this was in the savings bank for some time we now have on hand a balance of $2.07.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. L. SMETHERS,
Chairman.

Misses Ivest and Sparks Entertain.
Misses Lucile Provost and Evelyn Sparks delightfully entertained a few of their friends at an informal rook party yesterday afternoon at the home of the latter. After many merry games a dainty sweet course was served.

Mr. and Mrs. William Muldrow spent this week in Columbia.

The many friends of Mr. Tom Maxwell are glad to see him on the streets again after a short illness.

Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. Ida Pruitt on Greenville street Tuesday afternoon. The weather was very disagreeable but we had a large number present and a very interesting meeting. We were sorry indeed after getting there to find our excellent president, Mrs. William Laughlin, absent on account of sickness. But we were fortunate in getting Mrs. Charles S. Sullivan to take the chair. And together we started our program with several musical selections which were enjoyed very much by the society. And also a very interesting talk from Mrs. John F. Vines. Reading by Mrs. Master on "Several Rules for the Making of Christ," which was much enjoyed. We were so glad to welcome Mrs. J. P. Kinard who joined with us. At the close of the program the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ed Kinsey, served delightful refreshments of sandwiches and tea. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Sullivan on South Main street January 26.

Misses Nelle Pruitt and Eunice Gibson.

Elementary Union.

A very interesting meeting of the Elementary Union was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Central Presbyterian church. Quite a number of the members were present despite the disagreeable weather. The subject for this meeting was "How to Make the Departments of the Sunday School Go." The following interesting exercises by Mrs. J. W. Speake, Cradle roll demonstration by Miss Nora Hubbard, Beginners, Miss Clara Osborne, Primaries, Miss Vera Pruitt. Special songs for the wee folks, Mrs. J. W. Speake.

give their annual dinner in honor of the Confederate veterans on Tuesday, January 19, at 12:30 o'clock. All veterans and visiting veterans are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Earle are planning to move into their pretty new home on South McDuffie street.

Mrs. D. B. Dunbar of Atlanta is the guest of Mrs. D. A. Ledbetter on the Boulevard.

Miss Crayton goes to Washington.

Miss Kate Crayton leaves tomorrow for Everett, Washington, where she has accepted a position in the high school to teach English. Miss Crayton has been teaching in the West for several years but has been at home for six months visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crayton.

Mrs. Bond Anderson has issued invitations to a dance on Tuesday evening in honor of her attractive visitor, Miss Wilma Polk, of Jackson, Tenn.

Gen. and Mrs. M. L. Bonham go to Columbia tomorrow for a short stay.

Miss Anna Berger has returned from a short trip to Greenville.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother. If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the box. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

ANNUAL MEETING OF CHAMBER ON JAN. 25.

THREE SPEAKERS WILL ADDRESS LOCAL COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION

TO BE HELD IN MAIN QUARTERS

Traffic Manager of A. C. L. Ry., Prof. Long and Gen. Bonham Will Make Speeches.

The annual meeting and smoker of the chamber of commerce will be held on the evening of Monday, January 25 in the quarters of the organization, on North Main street. The speakers of the occasion, of whom there will be three, will be W. J. Craig, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, Wilmington, N. C.; Prof. W. W. Long, State agent of the Farmers' Cooperative Demonstration Work, with headquarters at Clemson College; and Gen. M. L. Bonham, of the local bar.

After a conference of arrangement of the committee in charge of arrangements for the annual meeting it was announced that the smoker would be held the evening of Monday, January 25, one week from tomorrow night. It is believed that the date will meet with the approval of all concerned.

The following program of the meeting and smoker, which will begin at 8 o'clock, was also announced:

Chairman and presiding officer—Hon. J. D. Hammett, chairman of the executive committee.

Invocation—Rev. J. W. Speake, pastor, St. John's Methodist church.

Address—Mr. W. J. Craig, traffic manager, A. C. L. Ry., Wilmington, N. C.

Address—Mr. W. W. Long, State agricultural agent, Clemson College.

Address—"Future's Outlook,"—Gen. M. L. Bonham.

Election of three new directors. Distribution of Annual Report. Plans for 1915 work.

Preparations for Smoker. Early this week Secretary Whaley will send out reply post-cards to all members of the chamber of commerce, containing the announcement and program of the annual meeting and blanks for them to fill in stating whether or not they will attend the function.

Three directors whose terms of office expire at this meeting are Mrs.

Mrs. M. M. Mattison, T. Frank Watkins and W. L. Brisse. Nominations to elect directors to fill these vacancies will be made from the floor, but they will be elected by secret ballot after the selection of these three directors they will meet with the six who hold over and elect an executive committee of three members. This executive committee manages the organization and will elect a chairman and a vice chairman. The chairman of the executive committee is chairman of the board of directors and all membership meetings.

The board of directors, at its first meeting, will elect a secretary and treasurer of the chamber of commerce. The secretary will later appoint his assistant. The agricultural demonstrator is appointed by the authorities at Clemson College and of the United States department of agriculture, usually upon the recommendation of the agricultural committee of the chamber of commerce.

The executive committee has charge of the appointment of all standing committees, but the board of directors fixes the number and the character of the committees and outlines their duties.

The presidents of the several railroad lines operating into Anderson, and Governor Richard F. Manning and commercial secretaries of neighboring towns and cities will be invited to the annual meeting as the guests of the chamber of commerce.

THE ANDERSON GUARANTY & TRUST COMPANY

will place your money for you secured by first mortgages on Real Estate at not over 60 per cent. valuation. All expenses to be paid by the borrower. The mortgages to bear 8 per cent interest. We will guarantee you that the property mortgaged in a first mortgage against the lands covered and that it is free from incumbrance and that the title to the property is perfect.

For further information call at our office in store room of Blackley Building below the Peoples Bank. Also watch for list of amounts wanted with number of acres as security, valuation, etc.

Pick out the amount you want and secure same as we do not intend to confine ourselves to Anderson County alone in placing these desirable loans.

There has been a great need here for the business we propose to engage in, a place where the borrower and the parties who have money to loan can place their money without waiting.

Come to see us at once whether you have money to loan or want to borrow and we will soon get the machinery working to place large amounts in the near future. Our president, Mr. J. J. Pringle, has ridden twice the distance around the world in this county and knows the location and value of Anderson County lands better than others who have had no experience in this line of work. Where we have any doubt as to valuations we will send one of our agents to inspect and report on the property.
