Commerical and Financial

Stocks and Bonds

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—There were indications at odd moments of today's stock market session that the limit of absorption had been reached, but these were dispelled in the later dealings, when a broad buying movement wiped out most of the early losses and sent numerous important issues to the highest level attained since the renewal of open trading.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—An early decline in cotton was followed by a very sharp recovery today and most of the active months sold a point or two above the previous best level with the close firm at a net advance of 13 to 15 points.

Table for New York Cotton showing various grades like Middling Uplands and their market prices.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 20.—The cotton market today rose from a net decline of 9 to 11 points in the early trading to a net advance of 17 to 19 points in the afternoon and closed at a gain of 15 to 17 points in the morning.

Cotton Seed Oil

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Cotton seed oil declined early today under talk of crude being offered more freely and scattered profit taking, but later the list firmed up on fresh buying for long account and in sympathy with the strength in cotton and grain.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 20.—Cotton lower; good middling 5.41; middling 5.09; low middling 4.62. Sales 7,000; speculation and export 700; receipts 25,772.
