

Commerical and Financial

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Cotton was lower today under more or less realizing from Wall Street and western sources, with the close barely steady at a decline of 11 to 13 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 4 points on overnight buying orders attracted by the strength of late yesterday and sympathy with the steady showing of Liverpool.

The unsettled and nervous ruling of the grain market may have been partly responsible for liquidation of cotton by houses with western connections, and except for some New Orleans selling here during the early trading, there appeared to be no offerings of consequence from southern sources.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 8.60. Sales none. Cotton futures closed barely steady: Open high low close

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 3.—Liquidation of the long interest worked against the price of cotton today. At the lowest the trading months were 13 to 14 points under yesterday final prices and the close was at a net loss of 8 to 13 points.

The steadiness of the market at the decline was due to the amount of fresh buying orders. This buying was stimulated by the strength of southern spot markets and the continued heavy export movement.

Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Sales on the spot 1,400 bales; to arrive 2,750.

Cotton futures closing: March 8.24; May 8.52; July 8.71; October 8.99; December 9.13.

Cotton Seed Oil.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Cotton seed oil advanced a couple of points early on short covering in March, but later the bid turned easy under selling by refiners and scattered liquidation by holders.

Stocks and Bonds.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The outstanding feature of today's dull and irregular stock market was its extremely professional character. Trading was almost entirely given over to that faction and there was a quiet, but persistent pressure upon leading issues for the greater part of the session.

United States Steel, which led yesterday's rise, kept well above its minimum, most of the selling being concentrated upon Reading and Canadian Pacific.

Tended towards a lower level. There were some contrary movements in the industrial and special groups, petroleum shares adding to recent gains on reports of another advance in the price of the crude product.

Cereal markets attracted less attention, although May wheat once more moved in sensational fashion, suffering a severe decline at the close.

The feature of the bond market, which reflected the contraction in stocks, was the introduction to the board of the new Pennsylvania Railroad 4-1-2 per cent' which sold at their recent high prices.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Men's wear were today opened by the American Woolen Company for fall 1915 delivery. Advances ranging from 7 1/2 to 25c a yard over were announced.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 3.—Cotton, spot, easier, good middling 5.41; middling 5.07; low middling 4.88. Sales 8,000; speculation and export 1,000. Receipts 43,074.

Futures steady. May-June 4.95 1-2; July-August 5.03 1-2; October-November 5.14; January-February 5.19 1-2.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Fluctuations covering a range of 9 1/4 cents demoralized wheat today and finally left prices unstrung at 4 3/8 to 5 3/4 under last night. Other net losses were: Corn 2 1/4 to 2 3/8@12; oats 1 7/8@2 to 2 1/8, and provisions 5 to 20c.

mediate probable opening of the Dardanelles and of peace moves were chiefly responsible for the collapse at the start.

Grain and provisions closing: WHEAT—May 1.59 1/4; July 1.58 5/8. CORN—May 81; July 82 7/8. CASH GRAIN—Wheat, No. 2 red, 1.58@1.65, No. 2 hard, 1.58@1.65.

Live Stock.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Hogs higher. Bulk 7.05@7.20; light 6.55@7.20; mixed 6.85@7.25; heavy 6.70@7.25; rough 6.70@6.80; pigs 5.60@6.75.

Cattle firm. Native steers 5.80@9.35; cows and heifers 3.20@8.25; calves 8.25@11.75.

Sheep strong. Sheep 6.25@7.15; yearlings 7.25@8.10; lambs 7.50@9.10.

MUST ALL POSE! OUR INTERESTS

set of men has one set of interests and another set of men has another set of interests; the more I feel the solidarity of the nation, the impossibility of separating one interest from another without misconceiving it, the necessity that we should all understand one another in order that we may understand ourselves.

Praises Organization. "To my mind it is a picture of the world, if you have lost other interests, and do not know the relation of your own interests to those other interests, then you do not understand yours.

His Mexican Experience. "I had somewhat that experience about Mexico, and that was about the only way in which I learned anything that was so, for there have been vivid imaginations and many special interests which have depicted things as they wished me to believe them to be.

Should Know the United States. "The advantage about a chamber of commerce of the United States is that there is only one way to boost the United States, and that is by seeing to it that the conditions under which business is done throughout the country are the best possible conditions.

How to Learn the Truth. "Of course, I learn a great many things that are not so. But the interesting thing about it is this: Things that are not so do not match.

The Government's Power. "The first is the government's power of inquiry—systematic and disinterested inquiry—and its power of scientific assistance. You get an illustration of the latter, for example, in the department of agriculture.

Should Plant More Grain. "There is a shortage of food in the world now. That shortage will be more serious a few months from now than it is now.

A Bureau of Information. "The government of the United States is very properly a great instrumentality of inquiry and information.

Other Ways to Use Government. "But there are other ways of using the government of the United States. You can use the government of the United States by influencing its legislation.

The Value of Cooperation. "It is a splendid thing to be part of a great wide-awake nation; it is a splendid thing to know that your own strength is infinitely multiplied by the strength of other men who love the country.

Secretary Bryan Speaks. Secretary Bryan addressed the chamber of commerce today with a plea for support for the administration.

use whatever to the general body politic.

A Splendid Side to War. "There are a great many dreadful things about war, as nobody needs to be told in this day of distress and of terror. But there is one thing about war which has a very splendid side, and that is the consciousness that a whole nation gets, that they must all act as a unit, for the nation; and when peace is as handsome as war, there will be no war.

Asks For Advice. "There is a specific matter about which, I, for one, want your advice. Let me say, if I may say it without disrespect, that I do not think you are prepared to give it right away.

Our Anti-Trust Laws. "Our anti-trust laws apparently make it illegal for merchants in the United States to form combinations for the purpose of strengthening themselves in taking advantage of the opportunities of foreign competition.

Urges Legislation. "Closer cooperation between business men and the government was urged by President John H. Fahey in his annual address.

Is "From Missouri". "American merchants feel that they are at a very considerable disadvantage in contending against that.

What I would like very much to be shown, therefore, is a method of cooperation which is not a method of combination.

Solid Thinking. "There are thinking spaces in this country, and some of the thinking done is very solid thinking indeed; the thinking of the sort of men that we all love best.

There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.
