Broadway Star, in "THE BARGAIN"

"THE BARGAIN" is a great Western story—Western characters, western scenery—laid in the Grand Canyon of Arizona—and typical Western situations. William S. Hart, the famous Broadway favorite plays the leading role, which abounds in situations which demand daring and courageous acting. The entire plot is a sensation from start to finish, and Paramount patrons desiring to see a production of this nature are assured of the best to be had along this line. "The Bargain" is the only picture of the strictly Western character which has been accepted by the Paramount Corporation; it abounds with the beautiful scenery of the Grand Canyon.

THREE WARRANTS FOR HIM ON SAME CHARGE

C. W. ROWLAND CHARGED WITH DISPOSING OF MORTGAGED PROPERTY

IS BOUND OVER

Two Cases in General Sessions Court and Third in Court of the Magistrate.

With an indictment for disposing of property under mortgage hanging over his head in the court of general sessions, and with a similar case against him coming up for trial in the magistrate's court on February 16, C. W. Rowland was yesterday bound over to the court of general sessions on a warrant charging him with disposing of mortgaged property in a third instance.

All three cases against the defendant have been brought by D. Y. Busby. Yesterday he was bound over to the court of general sessions on a warrant charging him with disposing of a bale of cotton which was under mortgage. The defendant was released on bond in the sum of $200.

The defendant is to be tried in the court of Magistrate W. C. Broadwell on February 16 on charges of disposing of corn which was under mortgage. The case which is now against him in the court of general sessions, and on which he has been indicted, charges him with disposing of three bales of cotton which were under mortgage.

The case in which it is alleged that corn was disposed of comes before the magistrate for trial because the value of the corn is of an amount that puts such a case within the jurisdiction of a magistrate.

MAN TAKES OWN LIFE IN HARTSVILLE CELL

Death is Found by Hanging With Wire—Suffering From Deranged Mind.

HARTSVILLE, Feb. 3.—A white tramp, poorly clad, calling himself C. H. Holliday, about 45 years of age and heavily built, committed suicide in a cell at the town guard house here this morning at 6 o'clock by hanging himself with a wire. The man arrived yesterday evening about dark and asked for lodging in the house of Mrs. A. B. Hatchell, who conducts a boarding house. His mind seemed deranged. He said he had walked to Hartsville from Darlington and that two men were fighting him and had followed him from Massachusetts through Virginia to this State. After going to bed, he said two men were after him at 12 o'clock. He got up and came up town. On the street he met Policeman J. K. Brand, and asked Brand for a pistol. He and the policeman engaged in a tussle. The pistol discharged without injury to either. Holliday had on his person a putty knife and small paint brush, and claimed to be a sign painter. He tried to cut Brand with the putty knife, but did not succeed. Brand succeeded in getting the man in the guard house, where he spent the balance of the night which ended in the suicide. The wire had been left in the cell by a former prisoner, who had used it for a clothes line.

Coroner Kelley held an inquest this morning and found a verdict in accordance with the facts. The man had a card on his person on which was written the name of his mother, which he gave as Mrs. W. W. Peaches, Oswega Falls, N. Y.

In the absence of answer to inquiries the man was buried by the

IN MEMORY

Death of James A. Williams. He bore all of his suffering without a murmur. His last words to his family were walk straight and be good, so you all can meet your God in peace. He had given up the world and would tell his friends as they passed by, "live so you can meet your God in perfect peace." Just a little while before the end he said, "I will soon be over yonder," then said, "Mamma, I am gone." He was 51 years and five months old. Interment in Silver Brook cemetery by his wife. He leaves two sons and one daughter, B. C. Williams and Annie Williams of Anderson, and Floyd Williams of Atlanta, Ga., and a mother, Mrs. S. A. Williams, one sister, Mattie J. Hall of Anderson, one brother, John A. Williams, of Atlanta, Ga.

May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one of our neighbors and friends for the kindness they showed towards us in our saddest hour.

Missions

Were Discussed Yesterday by Delegates of Association.

Fifty or more delegates, consisting of pastors and laymen of churches of Saluda association, were in attendance yesterday at the conference held at the First Baptist church for the purpose of discussing mission work. The conference was presided over by the Rev. W. E. Wilkins of Greenville, who was delegated by the State Baptist convention as field agent in the campaign for State missions.

At the forenoon session of the conference two addresses on missions were made, one by the Rev. D. W. Herring and the other by the Rev. Mr. Wilkins. Mr. Herring has been a missionary to China for the past 29 years, and his talk yesterday on the subject of foreign missions was thoroughly interesting and instructive. The address by Mr. Wilkins on the subject of mission was "so thoroughly enjoyed. Following these addresses there was an exhaustive discussion of the subject of plans for meeting the missions proposition in South Carolina. The discussion was continued at the forenoon session.

At 1 o'clock lunch was served by the ladies of the church in the dining room in the basement of the church. The executive committee of the association mapped out a table of mission apportionments for the 49 churches in the Saluda association. The table was read at the afternoon session and the delegates of the various churches allowed to state whether or not they thought the apportionments can be met.

Representatives of other associations were in attendance on the conference among them being Mr. T. Oregon Lawton of Greenville.

Col. Banks

Becomes Editor of Columbia Record Succeeding Jas. H. Moore, Resigned.

That Col. William Banks, formerly editor of The Anderson Intelligencer, had accepted the editorship of the Columbia Daily Record, is the information given out here yesterday by Secretary Porter A. Whaley of the local chamber of commerce. Upon his return from Columbia Wednesday night, Mr. Whaley told several friends confidentially that Col. Banks would be offered the editorship of the Record, but as no agreement had at that time been reached in the matter any publicity on the subject would have been premature. In long distance telephone conversation with Columbia at noon yesterday, Mr. Whaley stated, it was officially announced that Col. Banks had been tendered the editorship of the Record and had accepted the same.

Col. Banks is one of the best newspaper men in the State. For years he was city editor of the Columbia State. Several years ago he came to Anderson to assume the editorship of the Daily Mail, resigning this position after a year or so to become editor of The Anderson Intelligencer, a position which he gave up last fall to accept a position in the office of Col. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture, commerce and industries.

An editor of the Columbia Record, Col. Banks succeeds Mr. James H. Moore, who has gone to Knoxville to take charge of the editorial page of the Knoxville Sentinel, the afternoon paper of that city.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act natural, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ELOQUENT SPEAKER

ADDRESS MEN SUNDAY

REV. MILLARD A. JENKINS, D. D. ATHENS TO SPEAK TO THE MEN

ONE OF THE BEST

No More Brilliant or Eloquent Speaker in Georgia—Will Be at Courthouse.

The Rev. M. A. Jenkins, D. D., a Baptist minister of Athens, Ga., will address the men's mass meeting here next Sunday afternoon, the subject of his address being "Running Past the Signal Lights."

Recently Dr. Jenkins delivered this address before the Y. M. C. A. at Athens, and the Athens Banner says of him:

"Rev. Millard A. Jenkins delivered one of the most masterful addresses of his career. His subject was 'Running Past the Signal Lights.' Never has a choicer speech been heard in Athens than the one that fell from the lips of the wonderful preacher.

"It was resplendent with descriptive language of the purest English and he handled his great theme of God's salvation for a lost humanity tenderly but so honestly and fearlessly that the hardest-hearted could not bend their hearts before the great gospel message that fell upon their ears."

Dr. Jenkins is considered one of the most forceful speakers hailing from the State of Georgia, and the local Y. M. C. A. considers itself fortunate in securing his services.

The meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the court house. There will be no charge for admission, and all men of Anderson and vicinity are cordially invited to come out and hear this gifted speaker.

Dance This Evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Farmer will entertain at a dance this evening at their home on West Whitner street.

In Honor of Mrs. Meane. A beautiful affair and a pretty compliment to a charming visitor was the dance given on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrington Godfrey at the Rose Hill Club in honor of Mrs. Albert Means of Philadelphia.

The beautiful club rooms were never more attractive than on this delightful occasion which was very informal. The Paramount orchestra furnished the splendid music, which was the only necessary requisite for a beautiful dance. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ligon, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. DeCamp, Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Burriss Metal Shingles

GREAT FIRE PROTECTION

In the case of the fire Monday afternoon, which destroyed the two story house at No. 404 Bleekley Street, and occupied by Mr. Will Edwards, the houses adjacent thereto would surely have burned if they had not been as wet as they were as a result of the extremely wet weather we have been having recently.

A Burriss Metal Shingle roof will afford great protection in case of fire near you; this has been proven time and time again.

Better look into this NOW, Our Fire Department is terribly handicapped in getting to the fires on account of the very bad streets.
