

TOWNVILLE SCHOOL

TOWNVILLE, Feb. 15.—Recently a class meeting of the tenth grade was held and Paul Smith was chosen class prophet; Miss Ruby Reeves, poet; Miss Enna Stevenson, musician. Miss Mank Earle was selected to write the class will.

Miss Bessie Hanks and brother, Paul, visited friends at Oakdale on Saturday.

Misses Alline and Annie Mae Ledbetter and Miss Doris Price spent the week-end with Miss Lilla King at "Livingston Farm."

Miss Beatrice Bruce was a visitor recently at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Sue O'Neal.

Among the visitors to Anderson Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ligon, Misses Carrie Stewart and Quillie Craft and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jones. C. H. Witt, our principal, attended the teachers meeting.

During the next few weeks, with fair weather, a good deal of work on the school grounds will be done. Under the leadership of Raymond Gaines, Joseph Thrasher, Thamer Gallaway and others of the larger boys, various kinds of apparatus have been erected on the school grounds the past week. Already there is developing considerable interest in the different athletic contests.

CARSWELL INSTITUTE

On Wednesday morning we had a visit from Miss Maggie Garlington, we were sorry that more of the patrons could not be with us to hear Miss Garlington's talk. A school improvement association was organized with the following officers: Mrs. F. S. Prince, president, Mrs. J. C. McPhail, vice president; Miss S. M. Sharp, secretary and treasurer. On Friday afternoon, the 19th, we are to have the first meeting. We hope that all the patrons will be present. A short program for Washington's birthday is being prepared by some of the pupils. The cooler adds much to the convenience of the school and we are grateful to Mr. Pelton for his help in ordering it for us. Last Thursday we finished laying off our basketball court and are eager to play.

IYA NOTES

Mrs. Lem Relé entertained the following young ladies at a dinner Saturday: Miss Maggie Thompson, Miss Nellie Wyatt, Miss Carrie Howell, Miss Kate Ramsey, Miss Nancy Pearson, Miss Annie Beatty and Miss Annie Sadler.

Messrs. Carlton Watt and Clem McGee of Anderson spent the week-end here with their parents.

Miss Vera Spooner has returned from a short stay with friends in Honea Path.

Miss Elmer Bally of near Carswell was a visitor here recently.

Prof. Cliff D. Coleman and Mrs. Sullie L. Wright attended the teachers association in Anderson last Saturday.

Miss Minnie Gally, who teaches near Honea Path spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Minnie Vandiver of the Midway section was the guest last week of her friend, Miss Annie Brown.

Messrs. Walter and Lester Sadler have returned to their homes in Anderson, after spending a few days here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Sadler.

Mr. Albert Hawkins of Starr was in town a short while Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhett Pruitt and children of near Honea Path have been spending a few days at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Galley.

Mr. F. M. Vandiver and family of the Midway section spent a few days here recently with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McGee have returned from Anderson where they visited at the home of Dr. J. E. Watson.

Miss Alma McMahan of Belton was the guest last week of Miss Marie Cann.

Mr. Cliff D. Coleman, who has been spending several days with her mother in the Lebanon section has returned home.

Rev. W. B. Hawkins and son of Starr spent yesterday here with friends.

Mr. Wade Thompson of the Flat Rock section, and Mrs. Lou Herron of Starr were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. J. A. McAllister.

Dr. J. E. Watson of Anderson was here Sunday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones are spending some time in the Holland Store section with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jones.

"Down in Dixie" was rendered by members of the high school in the auditorium on Friday night. The young people performed their parts well, and a neat sum was realized, which will go to help pay the expenses of the athletic association.

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. H. S. Wakefield entertained the following young people with a card party: Miss Kate Ramsey, Miss Nellie Wyatt, Miss Carrie Howell, Miss Vera Spooner and Mr. T. C. Jackson. Mr. Milton Sherrard and Mr. T. E. Strubling. During the evening delicious cake and chocolate was served.

Mrs. Crayton Cann of Anderson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Burris.

Much to the regret of the small boys the carnival left today after a two week's stay here.

Lesser Company "Where You Pay Less"

Merchant's Balloon Party For Tonight

Tags attached to each balloon good for valuable merchandise. Don't fail to attend to attend. Premiums will be given lucky persons during Dollar Day sales Thursday. Don't fail to attend the merchant's balloon party tonight, provided it's not raining; if it is, the party will be postponed until Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. In addition to the premiums already offered there are the following: A three pound can of Golden Glow Coffee, valued at $1.00; one pair of men's pants, valued at $2.00; Mrs. B. Boyd Graves gave a lady's shirt waist, valued at $1.50; Dr. W. T. Burris gave a silver filling, worth $1.00, and possibly one or two others. A full list will be published Wednesday morning. The tags will be attached to the balloons; each balloon carrying at least one premium, and possibly more, and the finder will only have to get the tag, and bring it back to the merchant or person donating it, on Thursday, the 18th, and collect his premium. There's nothing to buy to get the premiums. These balloons will rise into the air and some of them will probably fall within the limits of the city, while others, caught by a strong wind will sail 15 or 20 miles before they drop. If you can arrange your affairs so that you can come down to The Intelligencer office tonight at 8 o'clock we will be glad to have you witness the sailing of these balloons. This is just another instance of the progressive and aggressive methods of some of our leading business men to get business. The man moves in sending these balloons into the air is to focus the attention of the people of the city and county on this dollar day sale, which is to be held here Thursday, in which 20 odd of our leading merchants are participating; and who are offering exceptionally good bargains for that particular day. You are cordially invited to attend this balloon party; but you are especially invited to bring the children; and remember if it's raining tonight at 8 o'clock the balloon party will be postponed until Wednesday night at the same hour. Dollar Day Thursday in Anderson. Be Here!
