

DOLLAR DAY CAPTURES CITY

MOST SUCCESSFUL SALES EVER CONDUCTED IN ANDERSON

EVERY ARTICLE ONLY A DOLLAR

Thousands of Dollars Saved Public by Enterprising Merchants

Dollar Day literally took the city by storm yesterday. Although this sale compromised articles whose sale price was exactly a dollar, no more and no less, it proved to be one of the most successful sales ever conducted in Anderson.

Enger buyers phoned the stores participating in this first combined Dollar Day Wednesday, asking to have articles reserved, stating that they were afraid that the articles which they wanted would be gone before they reached the store; but in most cases the merchants refused to reserve these special bargains, explaining that they were extraordinary bargains of Dollar Day only.

One very amusing incident occurred early yesterday morning, when a crowd of about fifteen or sixteen men came into Thompson's Shoe store, followed almost immediately by two of Anderson's best policemen.

Mr. Madden of the T. L. Cole Co. stated that they were very, very pleasantly surprised in the amount of sales they had made on account of Dollar Day, and that they realized that they would derive other benefits in new customers, better friends on account of the great values given the trade on this day, etc., etc.

Mrs. Trowbridge, in charge of Mrs. Boyd's store, during her absence, told a representative of this paper that she had had a splendid day as a result of Dollar Day; that their cash sales were considerably in excess of any day's sales lately.

The Sullivan Hardware Co., and the Two Hardware Co., both had big sales as a result of the Dollar Day's sales; they found that they not only sold Dollar Day articles, but sold a great many other things also; this appears to be the case with all the Dollar Day merchants.

Mr. Babb of the well known jewelry firm of Marchbanks & Babb stated that they were delighted with their first Dollar Day, and that they would gladly go into another one. That they found that the people responded to the Dollar Day advertising as well or better than any other advertising scheme they had tried for a long, long time.

Messrs. Sol Lesser and Will Lesser, both were loud in their praise of the Dollar Day scheme; they stated that they had a big day; that they had found that this novel advertising scheme had brought new people into their store, and that they were sure the extra good values which they had given the people would make them some new friends.

Mr. Will Lesser wants to make it a weekly affair, but Mr. Sol Lesser stated that he thought that would be too often, but that he was of the opinion that monthly, it would pay every merchant in town. Mr. Sol Lesser caught the idea of getting the combined pulling power of all the merchants to get a big trading day on one day every month, and that's the best part of the Dollar Day scheme.

Mr. Walter H. Keese remarked about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, that the Dollar Day scheme had certainly proven a very pleasant surprise to him. That they had to replenish their show window several times already; and later in the day M. R. Cochran stated that they were amazed at the results obtained. That the firm of Walter H. Keese & Co. could be counted on to enter another Dollar Day almost any time.

Mr. Max Geisberg of the firm of D. Geisberg told a reporter for The Intelligencer that their first Dollar Day had proven a huge success; that they would be heartily in favor of repeating the performance at an early date. Mr. Geisberg stated further, that while he has expected some business from this advertising stunt, that he had not anticipated any such results as they had obtained. You can put me down as heartily in favor of the Dollar Day scheme.

Mr. R. W. Tribble stated that he had received a phone message from a customer who had been dicker with him for several days about purchasing an overcoat, Thursday asking him if he could get that overcoat which he had been trying to buy for several days. Mr. Tribble stated that he had been formerly priced to him, and he told that he could if he bought it Dollar Day, the sale was made. This with other somewhat similar about convincing Mr. Tribble that Dollar Days were paying propositions. Mr. Tribble had a good day's sales.

Mr. Harry Geisberg reported a good day's sales yesterday; and stated that he noticed several new faces in his store yesterday, and naturally concluded after their asking for the specific bargains advertised, that they came as a direct result of the Dollar Day advertising proposition.

"Uncle Jno." Aust, as he is affectionately called by his many, many friends stated that he had had a pretty good day's sales; that he attributed it to Dollar Day entirely. Mr. Austin said that among his first customers was a man who wanted some of the advertised articles.

There were several other merchants who participated in the Dollar Day sale, but whom the reporter failed to interview, but it is known in a general way, that each one of them was well pleased with their first Dollar Day sales; and all of them wish to make it a monthly affair. In another column will be found mention of those tags from the balloons which have been returned and redeemed, that The Intelligencer has been advised of; there are several incidents connected with the finding, and return of some of them quite interesting, indeed.

This story would hardly be fair to the merchants participating in the Dollar Day just closed, without stating in the plainest language, that the values they gave the people of Anderson were, in the main, exceptional bargains indeed. They grasped the idea of Dollar Day, and instead of trying to fake the public, they gave extraordinary values, in almost every instance. The sales were pretty well advertised, but in the final analysis, the merchants "made good," by giving the people tremendous values for their money.

With the enthusiastic support proffered by the merchants who participated in Anderson's first Dollar Day, the ad man feels that he can do nothing else than acquiesce, and hereby agrees and binds himself to hold, or conduct another Dollar Day sale in Anderson on Friday, March 18th, next. And with the nucleus of twenty merchants to begin with, the next Dollar Day sale should be even bigger, and grander success than this one.

With this notice, the merchants will have ample time to make due preparation for the event, and the people can begin saving their spare change to take advantage of this great bargain event, on March 18th, next. Of course, there will be another Dollar Day in Anderson.

Commerical and Financial

Stocks and Bonds.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Foreign influences were again the controlling factors of today's dull and sagging stock market. Developments in connection with Germany's maritime war policy were awaited with the keenest interest and were anticipated in further selling of high grade securities for European account.

After the close of the market it became known that the British treasury had issued a notice prohibiting British shareholders from participating in the New York Central $100,000,000 six per cent. debenture issue and would not permit dealings in the bonds on the London stock exchange.

Bankers pointed out that this prohibition would not hold British investors saw fit to forward their participations direct to this country. Leading shares were under pressure, most of the session, but declines in this group were merely nominal. Movements in certain specialties excited adverse comment, but were otherwise without effect.

Foreign exchange continued to move unevenly, but at no time did it decline to the low rates of the previous week. There were wide fluctuations in francs and marks, but these also held above recent quotations. The Bank of England, reported a further loss of gold, its decrease of $8,300,000 being traceable in part to exports from Canada to this country.

Deposits of the Bank of France showed a contraction of $12,000,000 from the previous week, while discounts were reduced by about $6,000,000. Sales of Northern Pacific 4's and the several Southern Pacific shares for future delivery at concessions were the features of the heavy bond market. Total sales, par value, were $1,923,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Cotton was very quiet today but ruled generally steady and closed steady at a net advance of 9 to 11 points.

Cables were about as due on yesterday's New York close, and the market was somewhat irregular at the start, with first prices 2 points lower to 3 points higher. There was very little cotton for sale after the call and prices soon turned steadier on scattered covering and a little trade buying.

The steadier ruling of exchange, the absence of southern selling which could be attributed to increased pressure of actual, and the continued heavy export movement seemed to be working rather a more optimistic feeling around the ring, and offering continued very light.

Demand was at no time active or general, but the market reached its peak point in the late trading and closed at practically the high point. The revision committee of the New York cotton exchange has not yet been able to secure sufficient data to establish differences under the provisions of the cotton futures law which went into effect today, but it is anticipated that all necessary information will be available in time to take care of differences for deliveries on March contracts.

Cotton futures closed steady: Open High Low Close. March 8.32 8.47 8.41 8.49. May 8.22 8.37 8.29 8.37. July 8.11 8.26 8.18 8.26. October 8.06 8.18 8.07 8.18. December 8.27 8.34 8.27 8.34. Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 8.55. No sales.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 18.—Cotton had a steady underdone today. Moderate buying served to keep prices at 4 points on the near months at the opening. The close was at a net gain for the session of 6 to 7 points; middling lost 6 points at 7.55 for middling, but this was lost sight of in the rather large sales of 3,540 bales. By some it was believed that the reduction in quotations was due to further adjustment to meet the new government standards.

Reports from New England that many mills were running full time were a stimulating feature of the day's news. Some of the buying apparently was based on an export movement. Foreign shipments for the day amounted to 33,485 bales, while total net receipts at all ports were only 55,692 bales. Exports thus far this week amount to 338,295 bales and those for the season 4,560,985.

Cotton futures closing: March 8.12; May 8.41; July 8.29; October 8.25; December 9.00. Spot cotton easy, 3 points off. Sales on the spot 2,840 bales; to arrive 1,200.

Liverpool Cotton.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 18.—Cotton, spot, lower; good middling 5.25; middling 4.85; low middling 4.54. Sales 6,000; nomination and export 1,600. Receipts 25,241. Futures steady. May-June 4.67 1/2; July-August 4.94; October-November 5.07 1/2; January-February 5.14 1/2.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Men's wear was today ordered actively by buyers who favored advances. Cotton goods and yarns were steady but quiet. Raw silk was quiet with an earlier tendency.

Cotton Seed Oil.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Cottonseed oil was today under scattered liquidation induced by the weakness in hogs products and the disquieting foreign shipping conditions. Final prices were generally 10 to 12 points net lower. Sales 8,700.

The market closed easy. Spot $7.00 @ 7.15; February $7.05 @ 7.15; March $7.09 @ 7.13; April $7.14 @ 7.12; June $7.24 @ 7.28; July $7.32 @ 7.33; August $7.40 @ 7.43; September $7.25 @ 7.54.

Live Stock.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Hogs weak. Bulk $6.45 @ 6.55; light $6.30 @ 6.55; mixed $6.35 @ 6.55; heavy $6.15 @ 6.50; rough $6.15 @ 6.25; pigs $5.25 @ 6.50. Cattle strong. Native steers 5.25 @ 8.50; western $4.80 @ 7.35; cows and heifers $3.40 @ 7.60; calves $6 @ 10.50. Sheep firm. Sheep $6.40 @ 7.25; yearling $7.25 @ 7.90; lambs $7.25 @ 8.70.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Export demand prevailed over market in a bid to break a 4-5-8 that was largely due to the deadlock over the so-called submarine war zone. The market finished strong at 1-3-8 to 1-3-4 net advance. Corn gained 3-8 @ 1-2 to 5-8 @ 3-4 and oats 1-3 to 1-8 @ 1-4. In provisions the outcome ranged from a shade to 27 1-2 decline. Grain and provisions close: Wheat, May $1.61 3-4; July $1.33 1-2. Corn, May 78 1-8; July 79 3-4. Oats, May 59 7-8; July 55 7-8. Cash wheat, No. 2 red, $1.55 1-2 @ 1.61 3-4; No. 2 hard, $1.56 1-2 @ 1.61 3-4.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 18.—The heating system at the Citadel, furnishing heat for the cadet barracks and officers' quarters, has been rendered inoperative by a general breakdown in the boiler-room. One of the large boilers is completely worn out and must be replaced before satisfaction may be expected. Coincidentally with this mishap a cold wave has set in, causing much inconvenience among the cadets in order to keep warm many of them are profiting by the generous grant allowing beds to be kept open during the evening study hours.

Col. Bond, capt. has gone to Columbia, where he hopes to obtain an emergency appropriation from the legislature covering the cost of a new boiler. George Shindles says the detection of Charley Deal will not cause the Braves in the least. The "Miracle Man" is of the opinion that he would never amount to a great deal.

ROAD COMMISSION IS FORMALLY ORGANIZED

MEETING OF THOSE WHO WILL HANDLE PROPOSED BOND ISSUE

MAKE STATEMENT

Commissioners Are Anxious to Take Public Into Their Confidence on Matter

For the purpose of organizing and discussing various preliminary matters, a meeting of the five citizens of the county selected to take charge of the proposed bond issue of $750,000 for road roads met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the office of Judge J. S. Fowler, who was designated in the bill as chairman of the commission.

At this meeting all those selected for membership on the commission agreed to serve, whereupon formal organization was perfected. The commissioners then went into a discussion of various matters pertaining to the election and the proposed bond issue.

Members of the commission brought encouraging news from their respective sections of the county. What opposition to the measure existed when the bill was first mentioned has been dispelled as people have learned more of the details of the proposed movement, several of the commissioners stated.

The commissioners asked that the fact be stressed that they are not only willing but anxious to take the public into their confidence and will gladly answer all questions pertaining to plans for improving the highways and expending the proceeds from the proposed bond sale.

When the conference had been concluded, the commission issued the following statement: "Realizing the vast importance of giving to each part of the county its share of the proposed county highway system, we herewith pledge ourselves to see that each and every one part of Anderson county does receive its share, consistent with a connected and practical system of highways. We pledge ourselves also to see that each and every provision of the bill is strictly and impartially carried out, all funds being equally pro-rata deposited in the different banks of the county, and every piece of work done to be handled in accordance with strictly modern methods of road building.

Later on, we believe each and every person in Anderson county will after studying all the conditions, come to the inevitable conclusion that the building of $750,000 of permanent highways will be the cheapest and only way to secure a county system of highways, and call the attention of all that the interest in such bonds will sink each year by at least ten thousand dollars than is now spent in the county annually towards keeping up the present system of dirt roads.

It is not our duty to make the campaign, and we shall leave to others the working out of plans to carry the election; we are not candidates for office and have not sought appointment as such. It is therefore proper for the people generally to perfect plans for the carrying of the election. We promise to do our duty as we see it, conscientiously and for the good of the whole county and of every community in the county, and call on all people to assist us. We want to advise with all and shall take pleasure in explaining anything we can to all who may ask.

J. S. Fowler, Chairman; J. M. Broyles, J. P. Earle, P. F. Earle, H. F. Cely, C. E. Harper.

ANDERSON MAN CHAIR LEADER

Members of House and Senate Join Singing "It's a Long Way to Tipperary"

COLUMBIA, Feb. 18.—"It's a long way to Tipperary" sang members of the house and senate tonight standing around a piano in the lobby of the capitol with Representative Deckett of Beaufort acting as pianist. The singing chorus of the legislative science know that the end of the session is near when the house begins to sing.

Representative Fant of Anderson was one of the choir leaders. The "Jitney" Invasion. All that is required to be a transportation magnate now is to own a Ford car. It carries all of the large and many of the small cities the "jitney" bus is cutting into the profits of the street car companies and making owners of autos rich. When it was at first suggested that owners of machines could make any money carrying passengers for a five cent fare it was thought to be impossible. A few wiser than the rest, started "jitney" lines with their machines. It has been demonstrated in San Francisco that the owner of a car can clear from six to ten dollars a day by carrying passengers at the "jitney" rate. In most of the cities these busmen have said are making trips on regular schedules. A "jitney" by the way, is a nickle five cents.

Hughy Jennings will take a squad of thirty-one players to the "Finger" training camp in the spring. The "Finger" camp will be satisfied if he is able to develop a second baseman from his big collection of rookies.
