

EDUCATIONAL PAGE

Published Every Tuesday in The Daily and Semi-Weekly Intelligencer and devoted to the cause of Education in Anderson County and everywhere.

PENDLETON SCHOOL

Miss Margie Garlington visited our school Thursday, February 18th, and visited in organizing a school improvement association.

Miss Annie Garlington visited our school Monday. She gave us practical questions concerning the school district to be answered next autumn.

The first and first advanced grades had a very interesting spelling match Monday morning.

The civic league held a "Mystery Auction" at the school house on Monday night, February 22, beginning at half past eight.

On Friday afternoon, February 26th, the school improvement association held their monthly meeting at the school building.

These meetings will be informal and free of charge. The committees will exert every effort to make these social gatherings pleasant.

HAMMOND SCHOOL

Our Improvement Association met Friday afternoon and a very interesting, instructive program was carried out on the famous character George Washington.

DOUBLE SPRINGS

We are beginning spring cleaning early this year. We spent a half holiday Monday in improving the looks of the grounds and building.

In the near future we hope to have a new stock of books for our library. For the purpose of raising this library fund, we propose to give an entertainment of some nature for the public.

Two of the boys of the high school have wired in the flower garden and have also erected wires across the drives leading into the school yard.

LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL

Last Saturday our basket ball team went to Seneca and beat their team 13 to 8.

Debate—Resolved, That Columbus deserves more praise than Magellan. Affirmative—Roy Craig and Bessie H. Hill.

Do not forget the entertainment at the school house Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be dialogues, jokes, popular songs, etc.

On Friday afternoon, February 26th, the school improvement association held their monthly meeting at the school building.

TOWNVILLE SCHOOL

TOWNVILLE, Feb. 27.—The following students made a hundred on spelling examination this month: Misses Mae Shirley, Ruby Reeves, Eunice Chest, Katy Thrasher and Lila King.

Among those who are practicing for the declamation contest that is to take place on Friday evening, March 6, are Misses Inez King, Annie McLeister, Marie Gaines, Marie Post, Allene Nicholson and Lolla Bell.

CLEVELAND SCHOOL

We are glad to report that most of the pupils here get on well and are back in school again.

All the school girls and boys are looking forward with pleasure to field day exercises. We have been marching and all seem to take an interest in it.

HONEA PATH SCHOOL

We are glad to note that in the honor roll for the third month of school work, our school stood near the highest.

93 4-5—Rock Hill, Miss Ollie Simpson. 93 1-6—Williamston, Geo. E. Welborn. 91 1-2—Belton, J. B. Watkins.

Program. Song—"Old Folks at Home"—By the society. Debate—Resolved, That South Carolina should have a compulsory education law.

Affirmative—Marie Timms, James Monroe, Frank Viles. Negative—Jessie Trench, Olin Tice, Carlisle Cannon.

There is great satisfaction expressed on all sides that the Y. M. C. A. building is to start up at once.

S. C. COLLEGE

COLUMBIA, Feb. 26.—Rev. J. O. Reeves, D. D., formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, but more recently of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, addressed the Y. M. C. A. at the University of South Carolina this week on "The Modern Crusade."

The University's 1915 catalog has been compiled and is now in the hands of the publishers. The catalog will be printed this year by the University press, the first time the printing establishment has undertaken this task since it was installed summer before last.

The Columbian society held a contest last night to select two speakers to enter a contest with the representatives of the honor of speaking for the school. B. F. Thornton and B. N. Benjamin were the winners.

Present W. S. Currell continued to lecture at various places in the State. Every week finds him responding to requests to deliver addresses, and he has been very busy engaged the past week.

The second of his magazine was headed by E. S. Cambrell of Belton, who is the new editor-in-chief, have gotten out a very creditable issue of "The Carolinian" in the February number, which is being mailed out this week.

WINTER BOUGLES WORK. In winter the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is hampered by perspiration, cold weather, with little out door work or exercise to cause sweating the kidneys have to do double work.

CLEMSON COLLEGE

CLEMSON COLLEGE, March 1.—The historic town of Pendleton will have a great day on October 13, 1915. It will be the celebration of the centennial of the old Pendleton Farmers' society, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country.

The State Agricultural and Mechanical society has shown such interest in the preparation for the celebration of this centennial. It has appointed five of its members to attend as representatives of the association.

It is proposed to raise a fund at the celebration for the endowment of a scholarship at Clemson College, to be known as the Pendleton Farmers' society scholarship. This scholarship is to be open to agricultural students from the old Pendleton district.

CLEMSON COLLEGE, March 1.—The "Tiger" Clemson's weekly paper, gives a column to the charming address of Professor Yates Snowden of the University of South Carolina, which address was delivered last Tuesday morning at the chapel exercises, the subject being George Washington. Professor Snowden was invited to deliver the address by the Andrew Pickens Chapter, P. D. A. R. The address was interesting and instructive from beginning to end and charmed all who heard it.

There is great satisfaction expressed on all sides that the Y. M. C. A. building is to start up at once. The old Clemson man has his congratulations for its erection. Those of the class of '92 and a classmate of Prof. J. B. Lee, the designer of the building, will erect the structure. President Riggs spoke of the erection of this building as being the greatest thing done for Clemson since the college was founded.

The Clemson Glee Club made a trip to Greenville, and with the Chicora Glee Club had an entertainment in the evening at Chicora College. The basketball team has been doing excellent work, though not winning all the games on the schedule. The following composed the last road team: F. P. Thornton, Glover, Stripling, Hill, Geo. captain, and Schuchter, Vebler Sifton, who is to coach the basketball this season, was here yesterday looking over the material and making arrangements for beginning regular practice. Prospects for a winning team are bright.

The Columbian society held a contest last night to select two speakers to enter a contest with the representatives of the honor of speaking for the school. B. F. Thornton and B. N. Benjamin were the winners. The same society had already chosen W. E. Blake and J. R. Clark to contest for the honor of representing the society in the contest for the trustees' medal.

The following are the Y. M. C. A. officers recently elected: D. E. Folger, president; C. W. Ward, vice president; F. T. Bulce, secretary; P. L. McCall, treasurer.

Clemson's football schedule for next season is about complete. September 5, Furman in Greenville; October 2, Davidson on the campus; October 9, University of Tennessee, in Knoxville; October 16, Auburn in Anderson, S. C.; October 28, University of South Carolina in Columbia at the State Fair; October 30, the Citadel in Charleston; November 6, University of North Carolina, in Greenville or Charlotte; November 13, V. M. I. in Richmond; November 23, Thanksgiving, University of Georgia in Athens.

October 2, the date for the Davidson game on the campus is to be a great day here. It is the intention to dedicate the new athletic field, to be known as "Riggs Field" in honor of President Riggs. There will likely be many representatives of the old players present to take part in the exercises. The athletic committee is expecting to have a big crowd of visitors and to make it a gala day.

IVA HIGH SCHOOL

We have a race trace now for the girls which is enjoyed by all that take a part.

Rev. S. J. Hood opened the school exercises Monday morning, February 22nd, and it being George Washington's birthday he gave a very interesting talk which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. C. D. Coleman visited our school Monday morning, February 22. Mr. Willie Wright and Alvin Hardin were visitors here Monday from Clemson.

This is one of the many improvements which we have made during this session.

The Timrod Literary society met Friday afternoon, February 26. The program was: Debate: Resolved, That it is better for each pupil of this school to pay five cents monthly as janitor fee than to do the work themselves.

After the society Friday afternoon the high school pupils and a few of the sixth and seventh grade pupils met and elected the following officers for the athletic association: Mr. T. A. Shepard, president; Mr. Eugene Watt, vice president; Miss Essie Cook, secretary; Miss Neta Adams, treasurer.

ZION

This is the first time our school has been represented on the school page, and in order that you may not get the impression that we're sleeping we are going to write.

Our school is in good condition. The average attendance is good at present. We have now one hundred and sixty-five pupils enrolled.

Miss Annie Hammett, who is taking Miss Morrison's place as teacher of the primary grades spent the week-end with her parents at Greenville, S. C., accompanied by little Mary Lois Ballard, one of her pupils.

ERSKINE COLLEGE

At the recent contest held, Mr. C. T. Stewart of Monitor, West Virginia, was chosen to represent Erskine at the State Oratorical contest to be held in Rock Hill. His subject was "The Flower of the Nation." Mr. E. L. Davis of Monticello, Ark. speaking on "Humanity's Maelstrom" was selected as alternate.

The faculty of the Woman's College attended the meeting of the Episcopalian Literary Society on last Friday evening.

The semi-annual celebration of the Calloper Literary Society will be held in the Erskine auditorium on next Friday, March 5.

BELTON GRADED SCHOOL

The first and second grades entertained their mothers last Friday with the following program:

The Lord's Prayer—First and second grades. Sunbeam Song—Nan Trammel and Marguerite Harris.

Recitation—"The Patter of the Shingles"—Bill Wilson. Song—"Mr. Duck Went to Call on Mr. Turkey—Six Little Girls."

Recitation—"A Doll's Wedding"—Lucile Parker. Recitation—"A Little Boy's Troubles"—Rufus Acker.

Recitation—"The Railroad Crossing"—Jim Bowen. Song—"To Washington"—By five girls and four boys.

Recitation—"A Busy Day"—Robert Parker. Recitation—"A Place for Boys"—Ralph Butterfield.

Recitation—"The Railroad Crossing"—Jim Bowen. Song—"To Washington"—By five girls and four boys.

Recitation—"A Place for Boys"—Ralph Butterfield. Dialogue. Recitation—"The Railroad Crossing"—Jim Bowen.

Recitation—"A Busy Day"—Robert Parker. Recitation—"A Place for Boys"—Ralph Butterfield.

KENNEDY STREET SCHOOL

Kennedy school is a very school. It is a two story brick building with fourteen large rooms and a playground. At present girls play jump the rope, ball, pool and many other games, the boys play marbles and base ball.

Mr. Chambers is teaching the wood work. Washington's birthday was observed by several grades with song speeches. The seventh grade is doing very interesting program.

Saturday afternoon the teachers from the schools were invited to reception. Washington's and Marquette were decorated with flowers, which made it very attractive. The girls have a camp fire every two weeks. Miss Major, the leader, Mrs. Chambers taught us to make "spoon biscuits." They were very good.

Miss Major read us a sketch of the new International Dictionary which we thought was very fine. It is an illustration of the new method of pronouncing words. The words spelled like the sound with the new Anderson Theatre the afternoon to see "The Sign of the Cross" as she took her seat, someone asked the question, "Is that Ne Caesar?"

Last Friday Col. Lewis Cannon gave us some real interesting penings of his personal experience during the "War Between the States." We enjoyed having Col. Cannon very much and hope he will be back to see us again.

We have a nice new school last year. Mr. Chambers is teaching seventh grade boys manual training. The first thing that they made was a bench hook to keep the work from getting scratched up. This thing was a flower stick, then a stand, a coat hanger, a bread box and now they are making a dress chair. This will be on display some of the stores up town.

Miss Jean Harris is teaching girls to sew. They are making of pretty things. Our teacher is Miss Eliza Major and she has a fine time at school every morning at 10 o'clock and have one recitation at ten and another at twenty after twelve.

Our principal game at present marbles. In a few weeks we will get a ball team and pick out the best to play. We hope to win some from other boys in town.

Mr. Chambers teaches the boys drill almost every day. The teacher had a party Saturday and they all had a fine time. The girls cleaned the school yard and it was nice and clean. We think that we have the best school in town.