NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with ains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been re-lieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a

TRIAL RESUMED IN CASE FOWLER VS. GLOBE & RUTGERS INS. CO.

The second week of the court of common pleas for Anderson county having convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, trial was resumed in the case of Judge J. S. Fowler against the Globe and Flatgers In-surance company, this matter having been continuously before the court since last Wednesday at 3 o'clock. The taking of testimony in the case was completed last week, and yesterday morning arguments were heard by the court as to whether the matter should go to the jury for decision or be transferred to the court of equity. The court ruled that the matter was one for the jury, and that they should pass on the ques-tion of whether there was a valid award made in the matter over here is this suit

Arguments Begun. When court recessed at 6 o'clock last evening one argument had been made for the plaintiff and one for the defense, the argument for the former having been made by Capt. H. H. Watkins and the case of the latter having been presented by T. Frank Watkins. It was agreed that there would be four arguments, and when cc :rt meets this morning at 9:30 o cock the remaining two arguments will be made, after which the court's charge will be delivered and the matter will go to the jury.
