ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Noting Was Popular Sunday.

Sunday being one of the balmy days Anderson has experienced this winter, few people spent the day indoors. Those who own automobiles had them out, and those who don't own them had themselves out foot for a walk about town or ramble into the country. A number of automobile parties went to Clemson College, Greenville, Beasley, Honea Path, Hartwell, Ga., Belton and other nearby points for a part or the whole of the day.

Richards Expected Here This Week.

Edward H. Richards, who is coming to Anderson from Wilkesville, N. D., to take charge of the grain elevator which is to be erected here, is expected to arrive in Anderson the last of this week or the first of next. Carrington's Get Tables and Chairs.

Carrington's Anderson's new ice cream parlor de luxe, situated in the new theatre building, received yesterday, through the People's Furniture company new tables and chairs. The furniture is particularly handsome. The metal portion of the furniture is made of bronze, while the wood is of highly polished oak. Mr. Carrington is having considerable painting done on the interior of his place, which with the new furniture adds materially to the already attractive appearance of the place.

Garlington, in charge of the girls' tomato and canning club work and home demonstration work in Anderson County, has returned from the annual meeting of the home demonstration agents of the State, which is held every year at Winthrop College. Fire Alarm Sounded Sunday Afternoon.

An alarm of fire was received Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock, the scene of trouble being the barn of Mr. Furman Smith, on the western outskirts of the city. The automobile truck made a trip out to the barn, but as the structure was beyond the city limits and the reach of the hose lines little could have been done by the firemen had their services been needed. No damage was done to the structure by the blaze, which was extinguished soon after it was discovered. Just how the blaze started, is not known.

Mr. Pearman is Doing Nicely.

A telegram received yesterday from Sheriff Joe Ashley, who is at Mayo Bros. hospital, at Rochester, Minn., with Clerk of Court James N. Pearman, stated that Mr. Pearman had a good night Sunday night and was feeling better Monday morning. The message stated that Dr. Lee Sanders, the attending physician, announced that the patient was getting along fine.

Car of Ballast Jumped the Track.

A freight car loaded with 65 tons of rock ballast for the roadbed of the Blue Ridge Railway jumped the track of the Blue Ridge road a short distance of the west end of the Main street bridge yesterday morning. The car was gotten back on the track in about 45 minutes.

This Magistrate Has Reconsidered.

Mr. C. M. Barrett, who some days ago turned in his resignation as magistrate for Rock Mills township, has reconsidered and decided that after all he wants the job. His resignation has been accepted by the governor, but he will be recommended for reappointment.

Old Depot Leased For Roller Mill.

R. E. Burriss has leased from the Blue Ridge Railway company the old passenger station which he will convert into a roller mill and machinery for shelling corn and grinding feed. A considerable quantity of the machinery has arrived already for the mill, and work of installing it will begin right away.

Mr. Gordon to Speak to Negroes.

Mr. S. D. Gordon, of New York, who is conducting a series of meetings in Anderson this week, has announced that he will stay over until Thursday night and address a mass meeting of the negroes at St. Paul's Baptist church.

R. W. Tribble is Back From North.

Mr. R. W. Tribble has returned from the northern and eastern markets where he went to purchase spring goods for his up to date haberdashery. Mr. Tribble stated that while business conditions were somewhat depressed, he found business men confident that better times were ahead, and that the war in Europe will come to an end this summer or fall.

Held for Breaking Into Fretwell Office.

Jim Ware and Marion Brown are held at the police station on charges of having broken into the office of the Fretwell company in the Blackly building. The little negroes were discovered by Private Whitten, as he was making his rounds early Sunday morning. One of the negroes was caught just as he darted out the rear door, while the other, who made his getaway, was arrested Sunday. It is probable that steps will be taken looking toward sending the boys to a reformatory.

Trio of Editors Were in City.

A trio of editors were visitors yesterday in Anderson, the three being: William P. Greene, of the Abbeville Press and Banner; Claude A. Graves, of the Belton Journal, and G. E. Moore, of the Honea Path Chronicle.

Mr. E. A. Hathaway, good roads inspector of the United States government, who superintended the beginning of work on the piece of government work on the extension of West Market street, stopped over in Anderson yesterday to take a look at the stretch of highway. When seen at his hotel last night Mr. Hathaway declined to talk about the piece of road work done here. He stated that he had been engaged in road construction in the State of Maine, but during the winter season, when work there was impossible, had been in Florida. He is now on his way back to Maine.

In Jack Frohisher's London drawing room, before his frightened wife, Harry Dallas, his dissipated eyes glistening evilly points out Frohisher to the western sheriff, who has journeyed from the Rockies to apprehend the slayer of "Hankey" Bannister, years before. Behind Dallas, Jim Sherwood, ex-miner, with a cheap swaggering air of triumph, watches the scene. But suddenly the sheriff's revolver is whipped out of his pocket. He aims the weapon, not at Frohisher, but at Sherwood and Dallas. In consternation they fall back. But the sheriff sternly orders them to stand still.

"I want you and not Frohisher for Bannister's murder!" he snaps to Sherwood, "and you," he adds, whipping round on the white-faced, cringing Dallas, "for conspiracy to ruin a good man's name."
