SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair...

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

Mrs. Wilmot Evans of Boston was Capt. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins charming honor guest at a delightful Little Theatre Party on Tuesday evening. Charming Reception and Theatre Party.

One of the most beautiful affairs ever given in Anderson was the picture show party and reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Sullivan and Mrs. W. W. Sullivan. These two charming hostesses planned a very delightful afternoon for their guests and entirely different from anything ever given here. At three o'clock the guests all met at the Paramount theatre, a merry throng of happy women. The pleasure "Miss Nellie" with Mary Pickford in the leading part was an especially happy selection and for nearly two hours the guests fully enjoyed this charming picture. Automobiles were waiting for the ladies when they came out, and all were taken to the beautiful home of Mrs. C. S. Sullivan on South Main street, where the most complete plans were made for an informal and delightful reception. Participating at the door were Mrs. F. E. Watkins and Mrs. Henry Prater. In the hall and parlors assisting the hostesses in entertaining their guests were Mrs. F. M. Burnett, Mrs. Burton Paine, Mrs. C. P. Sullivan, Mrs. Lella Sullivan, Mrs. Will Webb, and Mrs. J. N. Kelli.

giant salad course with ices was served by Misses Vina Patrick, Helen Patrick, Louise Ligon, and Lydia Bewley. On leaving the dining room the ladies were carried to the "J" table in the rear of the hall presided over by Mrs. John F. Vines and Mrs. O. L. Martin. Here coffee and fruit cake was served by Mrs. Jake Sullivan and Mrs. Eugene Watkins. Little Misses Lucia Sullivan, Dorothy Sullivan, Lila Sullivan, and Babbie Sullivan planned on the souvenirs, about one hundred and forty ladies were the guests for this delightful occasion.

Dancing Class. Prof. W. H. Allmon is in the city and will this evening begin a dancing class in the hall upstairs in the Anderson theatre. Prof. Allmon has the finest testimonials from prominent men in every town where he has ever taught, and he comes with the very best recommendations. In Charleston where he taught a class, he has recommendations from such men as Dr. Rayneal, Mr. C. F. Jackson, Mr. F. M. Robertson and others. He hopes to have a large class in Anderson.

The Tiger. A recent edition of the Clemson Tiger has many nice things to say about Anderson and Anderson people in regard to the encampment. Anderson quite long her heart to the Clemson boys who were distinguished by their courtesy and gentlemanly bearing, and they are a crowd of boys of whom South Carolina may well be proud.

Beautiful Dance and Reception at Elks Home.

Beautifully planned and charmingly carried out in every detail was the delightful dance and reception given on Tuesday evening at the Elks Home on N. Main street. This handsome home is ideally fitted up for entertaining with its massive barbers and splendid dancing hall, and when brilliantly lighted makes an attractive gathering place for Anderson's social set.

This being the first large affair since Easter, all entered most heartily into the spirit of the occasion and fully enjoyed the happy hours spent there. Those receiving at the door were Mrs. C. F. Ross, Mrs. K. P. Smith, Mrs. Willett Sloan, Mrs. A. S. Farmer, Miss Carrie Fretwell and Miss Lela Wells.

During the evening dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. C. W. Cansey, Mrs. John E. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Ligon, Mrs. G. H. Bleich. The Anderson orchestra which is so well known for its beautiful music gave a delightful program during the first part of the evening and later played for tea dancing, a sufficient inspiration for the most indifferent.
