AMUSEMENTS

At "The Anderson" All Next Week

The Fountain Stock company opening an engagement of one week's stay at the Anderson theatre Monday and changing plays daily, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday, comes to Anderson recommended as the best popular priced attraction for the season, in as much as each member of the company is an artist in his or her respective line. Mr. Fountain the owner and manager has spared neither expense nor pains, in the selection of his company, and in consequence has the best aggregation of ladies and gentlemen touring the South. Each play is selected with the same care that has marked Mr. Fountain's success, and the patron of Anderson will have the pleasure of witnessing plays for a small price that they have always paid as much as two dollars a seat for. The opening play, "The Man of the Hour," tells a gripping story of a young district attorney, who is struggling against the corrupt politicians of a large city, to establish an honest government. How they struggle to defeat him and, every means available, honorable and otherwise, to compromise him and place him in their power. How these means embrace a bribe aimed at him through his sweetheart and the influence brought to bear, by the unscrupulous guardian, a corrupt capitalist. Throughout the story an adventures, whom fate and persecuting relatives have created, is searching for her daughter, and in an attempt to compromise the nominee, and his sweetheart, the mother and daughter are brought face to face, and after a sensational scene, in which the sweetheart offers to sacrifice her reputation, to save the election for her affianced husband, and in what seems to be a victory for the unscrupulous "Boss" the story is brought to a delightful conclusion by the mother's defense of her daughter whose honor she saves, and a complete defeat for the corrupt politician, which means good government, a happy family, and a well pleased audience. Special inducement—Ladies free for the opening night when accompanied by one paid admission. Prices 10c, 20c and 30c. Reserve seats on sale at theatre box office.

TWO YEGGMEN ARE REPORTED CAPTURED

Report From North Carolina Town Says Men Robbed 2 Safes in This Country.

Reports were current on the streets yesterday that two persons supposed to be yeggmens who robbed the post-office safes at Home Path and Williamston early last Tuesday morning had been placed under arrest at Marion, N. C. Further than that no information could be had, and the report that the yeggmens had been apprehended could not be confirmed. Word came from Williamston in the forenoon that two men had been rounded up at Marion, N. C., and that evidence had been secured which showed that they were implicated in the robbing of the safes at Home Path and Williamston. It was said that the information received at Williamston came from a post-office inspector at the North Carolina town.

WALKER-McELMOYLE

The farmers are very busy now, some are planting, some are hauling fertilizer, and some are planting cotton.

Our school is moving along nicely, only four more weeks. Let us strive to make these last weeks the best yet. McElmoyle played ball with Bishop Branch on last Friday. We are proud of our boys, they have won every game this season. We will not give the score, but ask the Bishop Branch writer why they didn't give it.

Just three more days till field day. We are all looking forward to the day and hope it will be a grand success. Mr. W. H. Martin made a flying trip to Anderson Monday. The School Improvement association will meet April 16. This will be our last meeting so we urge all the members to be present. Mrs. Thompson of Spartanburg is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Allgood. Miss Cora Hadden spent the weekend with her parents near Due West. Mrs. Whitten of Piedmont spent several days with her mother, Mrs. S. Johnston, who has been sick with grip.

Prof. J. M. Hunter spent Saturday with home folks.

TOWNVILLE NEWS

TOWNVILLE, April 8.—The Easter exercises by the Sunbeam band last Friday evening at the Baptist church were quite a success. Our enthusiastic leader, Mrs. R. H. Price, had arranged a very interesting program as follows. Introduction. Song—Fevive Us Again. Scripture reading by Elias Earle. Prayer by Rev. J. E. Crim. Song, "Praise Him! Praise Him!" Recitation by Jessie Lee Crim. Recitation by Clay Mahaffey. Song by Louis Shirley. Quartette. Recitation by Christine O'Neal. Recitation by J. E. Crim, Jr. Recitation by Lottie Bell Boleman. Recitation by Ruby Gray. Song, "Beautiful Morning Crown the Saviour," by six little girls. Recitation by Josephine Whitfield. Song, "Crown Him." Recitation by Willie Sue Boleman. Song, "Send the Light." Easter Acrostic by six little girls. Recitation by Annie Mae Ledbetter. Recitation by Inez King. Quartette. Song, "Christ Arose." Recitation by Doris Price. "The Hyacinth," by three little girls. Recitation by Lila King. Song, "I Will Sing the Wondrous Story." Recitation by Susie Lee Marett. "Victory Acrostic" by six little girls. Song, "Faith is the Victory." "Little Jewels," by four little girls. "The Holy City" by Mrs. S. A. Wideman. Address by pastor. Recitation by Daisy Whitfield. Misses Nell Kelleet, Lillie Galoway and Lila King have been on the sick list.

Rev. John Harris from Oklahoma. Rev. Zenna Harris from Gainesville, Ga., and Mr. Jim Harris have been visiting relatives here. They were called to the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Handy Harris. Mrs. Sam McClellan and children of Anderson are visiting her father, J. F. Ledbetter, and family. Prof. C. H. Witt assisted by the Priscilla club entertained the school children at an Easter egg hunt on the beautiful lawn at the home of Miss Mattie McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kay are rejoicing over the arrival of a little lady at their home. J. W. Dickson, bookkeeper for the Townville Bank, made a business trip to Anderson last Friday. W. C. King has returned from Richmond, Va. Miss Gatha, Davis and brother, Wilton, of Fair Play spent the weekend with relatives. Guy Heller, who is employed with G. W. Gignilliat & Co., spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. S. R. Heller. Miss Alice Price recently visited relatives at Oakway. Quite a crowd from here anticipate attending field day exercises at Anderson next Friday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stribling of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Earle

Barton and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Grubbs spent Sunday with J. I. Barton and family. Mrs. J. B. Ligon taught the first, second and third grades during the absence of Miss Kelleet. Mrs. Ligon was a teacher in the Townville school about six years ago. Albert Hawkins of Starr was a visitor here last Tuesday. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jones at Mountain View hotel. Messrs. Edrew Cropper and Harrison Price have returned from a visit to relatives in Texas. Mrs. Ed Earle and children have returned from a visit to relatives at Belton. Miss Lucille Johnson is much better after her recent illness, having suffered intensely from a severe attack of neuralgia. Mr. and Mrs. Kenney Brown were shopping in Anderson Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Earle of Beaverdam spent a few hours in town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jones spent Wednesday evening with Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hobson at their pretty country home.

WEST CHEDDAR NEWS Easter Sunday was a pleasant day and our young people all seemed to enjoy the day. Misses Mary and Lola Copeland and Olive Mahaffey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Breazeale. Our Sunday School is in a very flourishing condition, also our every day school has a large attendance. The wedding bells are ringing in our community. Mr. Miles Ellison of Anderson and Miss Earle Bruce of West Cheddar were happily married last Wednesday at Belton by our pastor, Mr. McCuen, after which they went to their home in Anderson. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life. I have often thought I would get married. Perhaps I am like a lot of young men, a little bit too slow. I hope my time will come some day. I know my name would be in all the papers then. Our farmers are getting along fine with their work. A number have already planted a lot of corn and getting busy to raise more at home to live on, and expect to plant a very small amount of cotton. A number of them are not going to use any fertilizer this time.

BELTON NEWS NOTES Mrs. T. Edgar Link from Walterboro, arrived in Belton last Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gaines. Mrs. Link will spend several weeks in Belton and Anderson before returning back to Walterboro. Mr. Gathen Gaines has returned to his school after being home for two weeks. He had a slight attack of appendicitis, but his many friends will be glad to learn he is able to go back. Mrs. M. J. Bolt of Portman spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Gaines, at Belton. Her many friends were glad to welcome her back in Belton again. Mrs. Bolt is in her seventy-eighth year.

THE HOUSE FLIES. See the city with its flies! Deadly flies! What a world of sickness and of death The word implies! How they're swarming, swarming, In the summer's balmy air; Every residence they're storming— On the edibles they're foraging, And they leave death's message there! With their specks, specks, specks, Typhoid germs, consumption flecks, And other dread diseases which most frequently arise From the filthy visitation of the flies! —Exchange.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily. Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

WAR IS DECLARED ON VAGRANTS BY POLICE

Having declared war on vagrants, Chief of Police Sammons yesterday morning instructed his men to cast the dragnet far and wide and haul in habitual loafers and others who could not show some visible means of lawful support. The dragnet was thrown out as instructed and before recorder's court convened at noon two victims of the chief's edict had been bagged. During the early afternoon three more suspects were rounded up. Besides that, dozens of characters suspected of being vagrants were frightened into flight by the blue coats who made a round of the sections of the city where loafing is popular. Gub (that's the way the name is spelled on the police court dockets, and it is said to be an abbreviation of "Gobber," synonym for peanut) Fuller and Walter Williams are the names of the victims of the dragnet yesterday morning. Upon being brought before the recorder they failed to produce evidence sufficient to convince the judge that they were not habitual loafers, and as a result His Honor required of each that he pay a fine of $15 or serve 20 days on the gang. Early in the afternoon three others suspected of being in the same class as Gub and Walter were placed under arrest. Their names are J. P. Calhoun, Nick Williams and Dock Williams. Their cases will be argued when recorder's court convenes at noon today. Several police privates made round of the city during the day in search of vagrants, and while comparatively few were arrested, dozens were given the fright of their lives. In speaking of the matter yesterday, policemen stated that on several occasions as they passed through the outskirts of the city they would look up and see a negro doing a marathon across the landscape. The word had evidently gone out, the police believe, that war had been declared on vagrants, and when a negro loafers saw a blue coat approaching from afar would pounce the greatest distance possible between himself and the officer.

TWO CONVICTED AND 3 OTHERS ROUNDED UP ON FIRST DAY

MANY "BEAT IT" As Officers Scoured Outskirts for Loafers But the Latter Were Fleet of Foot.
