Mrs. Harry Cunningham of Greenville has been spending several days with Mrs. J. G. Cunningham. She returns to Greenville today. Mr. Cunningham has been transferred to Charleston and they will go there on a few days to make their home.

Lovely Dinner Party.

A lovely dinner party was given on Friday night by Mrs. Joe Fretwell, Jr., in honor of Mr. Fretwell's birthday. It was a delightful surprise for Mr. Fretwell. Mrs. Fretwell making all her plans without his knowledge his first intimation of the occasion was the arrival of the guests for the evening. The home was bright with pink carnations. The arrangement on the table being especially pretty and effective. An elegant course dinner was beautifully served. The guests for the evening were: Mr. William Laughlin, Mr. A. G. Means, Mr. J. J. Fretwell, Sr., Mr. Raymond Fretwell, Mr. Langdon Fretwell, Mr. T. L. Cely, Mr. B. B. Blackley, Mr. John Wall, Mr. Walter Dobbins, Mr. Clarence Prevost, Mr. Noel Sharpe.

Hearts Delight Club.

The Heart's Delight Club was delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas Eskew at her attractive home just north of town. The time was pleasantly spent sewing and chatting. Mrs. Eskew read an interesting selection on "Rural Clubs For Women." After the sewing was put aside the hostess served a delightful salad course.

Mrs. Bonnie Orr left Friday for her home in Charlotte after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Irving Brownlee.

Charming Little Affair.

Miss Vina Patrick entertained a few friends at a charming little in formal affair on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Willett Sloan. These two young couples have been the recipient of many lovely social attentions. Mr. and Mrs. Webb have only a short time longer, before returning to their home in Panama, where Mr. Webb has a government position. Miss Patrick had planned cards for her guests and several interesting games were played, after which Miss Carrie Fretwell and Miss Helen Patrick gave two beautiful selections, that were very much enjoyed by those present.

Miss Lucile Humphreys of Donald is the guest of Mrs. John M. Hubbard.

Mr. Joe P. Giles spent the past few days with his father, Mr. J. M. Giles.

AN INTERESTING DAY AT CLEMSON COLLEGE

BEN GREET PLAYERS THERE FOR THREE PERFORMANCES

BASEBALL GAME Between Clemson and the Citadel Yesterday Was a Very Slow Affair.

A large number of Anderson people went to Clemson College yesterday to attend the performances given there in the afternoon and last evening by the famous Ben Greet Players and witness the baseball game between the Citadel and Clemson College. Among the visitors were the young ladies of the Anderson College, who made the trip to and from the college in the large automobile truck of W. L. Brisse, which that public spirited gentleman placed at their disposal, together with a driver for the machine.

The Ben Greet Players gave a most delightful rendition of "Twelfth Night" on Friday evening. Yesterday afternoon they were seen in "As You Like It," and again last night in "The Merchant of Venice." Those who were fortunate enough to witness a performance by these well known artists when they appeared here last year can appreciate in but a mild way the three delightful performances which they gave at Clemson. In showing here the players were under canvass, but at Clemson they gave their performance out in the open, using the ground for a stage and green boughs for stage settings.

The game of ball took place directly after the performance of the Ben Greet Players, and was a slow affair, Clemson winning by a score of 13 to 3. The game was replete with errors. The features of the game were two home runs by Citadel men and a beautiful running one-hand catch of a fly by the left fielder of the Clemson team.

AMUSEMENTS

THE ANDERSON

TO REMAIN NEXT WEEK

The Fountain Stock Company at the Anderson One More Week.

The Fountain Stock company, which has been the attraction at The Anderson for the past week, have endeared themselves to the theatre goers of Anderson and Manager Bleich has decided to keep this company for the coming week. The theatre was crowded during the matinee yesterday when "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" was offered and last night "The Wolf" was played to another large audience.

For the coming week the programs interesting and the opening bill Monday, "The Parish Priest," will no doubt fill a large crowd present. The other plays for the week are "St. Elmo," "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Girls of the Golden West," "Army of the Circus," and "A Midnight Trip to Chinatown." The usual matinees will be held Wednesday and Saturday.

Manager Bleich announced last night that the prices for the coming week will be only 20 cents for the entire lower floor and 10 cents for the entire balcony, all seats will be reserved as usual and reservations may be made for any night during the week.

THE PARAMOUNT

"The Warrens of Virginia" Most Pretentious Lasky Offering.

The Lasky-Belasco production of "The Warrens of Virginia," pictured with Blanche Sweet as the star and a truly exceptional cast, is beyond all comparison the most pretentious offering yet shown to the public under the Lasky banner. In fact this great and moving drama of the American Civil war, is said to be the most stupendous war-drama ever produced for the film in this country, and a veritable army of actors was employed in taking the picture.

Among the foremost artists appearing with Miss Sweet are House Peters (who is the Northern hero of the cast), James Neill, Mabel Van Bayne, F. E. Peters, Dick La Reno, Sydney Deane, Raymond Hatton, Milton Brown, Dick La Strange, Lucien Littlefield, Gerald Ward, Minda Harris and Mrs. Lewis McCord. At the Paramount Tuesday.

Tale Told Too Late.

"Now, Thomas," said the teacher severely, "how many times must I tell you not to snap your fingers? Put your hand down and presently I'll hear from you."

Five minutes later she said: "Now, then, Thomas, what was it you wanted to say?"

"There was a man in the entry awhile ago," said Thomas serenely, "and he went out with your new silk umbrella."

Over and Over. Sample of the question a clerk in a public building has to answer. "Where is the office of the Registrar of Woes?"

"Right over this room; noor above."

"Upstairs?"

"Yes; the foot above is always upstairs."

Skin Game

Officers Raided House Last Night And Placed Four Under Arrest.

Raiding an alleged gambling house on Falstaff street last night, Private J. W. Whitten and J. W. Brown and Deputy Sheriff J. Olin Sanders placed under arrest four negroes, John Andrew Mitchell, Bub Latimer, Joe Banks and Wade Miller.

The officers had reason to believe that gambling was going on in a house on Falstaff street in which Wade Miller lives. They made an investigation they state, and detected several negroes engaged in the well known fascinating game of "skin." Rushing into the house they placed the four negroes mentioned under arrest.

Additional charges of running a gambling house were lodged against Wade Miller.
