The Ladies Embroidery Club met last week with Mrs. G. F. Kirby. A delightful salad course was served, and Mrs. Kirby proved a most charming hostess.

Our popular pharmacists, Dr. J. N. Hallum and Dr. R. E. Lewis, are among the most prominent men of Pickens. In fact they are the pillars of this town.

P. P. Boggs, who has been living at Nimmons for the past year, left this county Saturday for Savannah, Ga., where he has accepted a position. His brother, Will, has been in Savannah several years.

Few towns of this size can boast of an establishment like that of Hughes Brothers. These people have a complete blacksmith shop, woodwork shop and corn mill combined. They do most of their work with improved machinery, a ten-horse power gasoline engine furnishing the power. And they are preparing to install in their woodwork shop a jointer of the latest pattern. They turn out some mighty good work, a specimen of which is the two-horse wagon they have just built, selling it before they finished it.

POTASH PAYS

There will always be a market for Rice. Half the people of the world live principally on rice, and their demand makes raising too much impossible. But if you are to profit by this demand and market good crops, you must see that your land is rich enough in available

POTASH

Grain crops and rice especially make great inroads on the Potash of the soil. Keep your soil up to the high mark of production by insisting on a fertilizer containing at least 8% Potash.

If your dealer doesn't carry such brands, for Potash Sales, write to us for prices on any amount from a 20 lb. bag up. Write, also, for free book of profitable fertilizer formulas and directions.

Fall sown oats are generally fine. Many farmers are watching for a chance to sow a few acres this spring. If you sow in the spring sow spring oats if you wish a harvest.

We learn that Tom Massingale killed a large rattlesnake near Martin school house last week, which is a very unusual happening at this time of the year.

Dr. Lawrence Roper and family are now making Pickens their home. Dr. Roper has been practicing dentistry in Georgia for the past three years but decided to come back to the best country in the world, and we are glad to have these good people back.

Notice of Final Settlement and Discharge

Notice is hereby given that I will make application to J. B. Newberry, Esq. Judge of Probate for Pickens county in the State of South Carolina, on the 13 day of March, 1913, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon or as soon thereafter as said application can be heard for leave to make final settlement of the estate of R. O. Williams deceased and obtain discharge as executor of said estate.

It will be good news to the many Pickens friends of Messrs. Sam Craig, Cleo Mann and Gignilliat Christopher, who are taking the law course at University of South Carolina, to know that each of them successfully passed the recent examinations. Twenty-three out of fifty in the class failed, but all the Pickens boys passed.

H. M. (Dock) Lewis, who was sentenced to jail about four months ago for violating the whisky law, was released by Sheriff Roark last week, and has gone back to his home in the Sunset section, where he will make a crop this year. As soon as he was released he came to The Sentinel office and subscribed for this paper. He paid for it in advance and told us that he had never taken a paper before, but he wanted to take his county paper. We are glad to send it to him and hope he will enjoy reading and derive much benefit from it. While in jail he was a model prisoner. In fact, he is a good, honest man, but just didn't see what right the law had to interfere with him in this case.
