Mr. Mauldin wishes to thank his many friends for kindness shown during Mr. Boggs illness especially the people of Griffin church, also the attending physicians.

Sad Death in Easley.

Suddenly without a farewell word to loved ones the life of Mrs. W. T. Whitaker ended at her home on Bradley Ave., 21st. inst. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Mrs. Essie, wife of Dr. J. H. Meyers at whose home the funeral services were held the day following, conducted by Rev. D. W. Hiott, assisted by Rev. C. A. Waller and Rev. E. V. Babb. Several beautiful and appropriate hymns were impressively sung by the choir of the Presbyterian church, after which her body was laid to rest in West View cemetery, five of her nephews acting as pall bearers. Mrs. Whitaker was born in Parris, Texas, about 49 years ago and came with her parents to Spartanburg county when quite young. Her maiden name was Miss Ella C. Holmes. She was married to Mr. W. T. Whitaker about 30 years ago. Two children were born to them. One died when quite young. Mrs. Whitaker was a deeply pious woman, one who lived a consistent christian life. She will be greatly missed by her loved ones. She had been for many years a member of the Baptist church. Precious mother thou hast left us,

Thou hast crossed the swelling tide,

Thou art happy with the angels, Thou art safe on the other side. Bye and bye we'll go and meet thee,

Meet thee on the golden shore. Where we'll be forever happy. And sad partings come no more.

The call, it really seemed that the town must have been on fire. After careful and persistent inquiry we heard that it was a stove flew burning out. Others say it was an ironing board on fire.

B. C. Johnson, has been appointed Lieutenant on the staff of Col. C. A. Reed, Commander of the Second Brigade U. C. V. We congratulate Lieutenant Johnson as the compliment came as a surprise to him, and we assure Col. Reed that the honor could not have been more worthily bestowed.

In Memoriam.

God knows all things. We do not see why He took our father from us, but He needed him worse than we did. While it does not seem that way to us, still God knows best. It is hard for us to give him up, but we feel sure that he is in Heaven for he told us all to meet him up there. He is living in peace with God, while we are left here to mourn his death. He said on his death bed that he would soon be with his two daughters, Ella and Kate, who left us long ago to live with God above.

Father left a wife and nine children, three sisters and two brothers to mourn his death. May God be with us all and carry us safely through this sinful world and at last when we come to die may we receive a crown in Heaven and live forever with our father and sisters. May God's richest blessings rest upon our neighbors. They were so good and kind during his sickness. We feel that they did everything that human hands could do. But God saw fit to take him from this sinful world to where there is no more tears, no more deaths, no more sorrow.

His Daughter,
Etta Cater.

Annual Reunion of Veterans.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Veterans of Pickens county will be held on Tuesday, June 3rd. As has been the custom, the Pickens Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be the hostesses. They therefore take this opportunity to extend an invitation to all Veterans to be present on this auspicious occasion. An attractive program has been arranged. Judge Iderton W. Bowman, the distinguished son of a loyal Confederate soldier, will be the orator of the day. Crosses of Honor will be bestowed upon those whose applications were on file in due time. The Pickens Band will furnish delightful music, and after the exercises in the Court House, a picnic dinner will be served on the grounds. Let every Veteran be present. A friendly handclasp with an old comrade will give cheer. A cordial greeting will be extended to the wives who have borne the burdens and hardships of war.

The Pickens Chapter is most hearty in this invitation.

From a Corn Club Boy.

Hello, Mr. Editor, I am one of the boys. I turned my land with a No. 10 then bedded with the same plow and subsoiled with one horse. I have my rows 4 1/2 feet and planted 18 inches in the drill. I have two acres and used 3 sacks of 8-2-2 Franklin guano when I planted. I am going to cultivate the first time with a four inch gopher and side dress with high grade guano and nitrate of soda.
