Experienced poultry raisers know that lice reduce profits. Poultry can never do well when tortured with lice. # INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. BELLEERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 29

THE VICTORIES OF FAITH.

READING LESSON—Acts 7:9-16; Heb. 11:20-22. GOLDEN TEXT—"This is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith." 1 John 5:4.

The reading lessons for today are a New Testament commentary upon the past quarter's work. The first lesson is taken from that marvelous defense of Stephen the first martyr. As he traces the history of the people of Israel, he shows God's continued activities and purposes from the hour he called Abraham until the holy one of Israel came to fill to their fullness all of these same activities and purposes. Stephen also shows us that alongside God's activities was the equally persistent disobedience of the people which culminated in the betrayal and murder of that holy one. In the portion selected he sets before us how Joseph was sold into Egypt, yet God was with him and delivered him; how the famine came and Jacob is thereby brought into Egypt only later to be carried back into the land of promise.

Teach Faith. The second lesson is taken from that great catalogue of heroes as recorded in the Epistle to the Hebrews. Here we have set before us the fact that God's eternal purpose with man is ever that of faith. Isaac, Jacob and Joseph are here mentioned and the faith of each set before us.

Leaving out the Eastern lesson we have covered a period of about 50 years, eight lessons dealing with Joseph, and four with Jacob. Attention has been called to Joseph as one of the most remarkable types of Christ to be found in the Old Testament (see comments on lesson of April 27). As we have also suggested Jacob is not so grand a character as Abraham yet is much more like the average man.

It is interesting to go over these lessons and follow God's purposes and to observe how like Christ Joseph was.

IN LESSON I. we behold Jacob at the instigation of his mother deceiving his poor old father and being compelled to fly that he might save his life. Rebekah thought she could execute God's purposes; but it is never right to do evil that good may result.

IN LESSON II. Jehovah appeared before this conscience smitten refugee and again promised that, his blessing, yes, his own divine purpose, would be worked out in Jacob's life. This is a lesson on the grace of God.

LESSON III. sets Jacob before us after twenty-one years' service and separation from his brother Esau. This is a great lesson on God's desire and transforming power. He transforms Jacob to Israel a "prince" and softened the heart of Esau. Faith overcame and is strengthened and confirmed.

IN LESSON IV. we first behold Joseph particularly loved and favored and as bitterly hated; he was thrown into a pit to die but is taken up (typical of the resurrection) and sold into slavery. The development of envy and the persistent, delivering purpose of God are here presented in strong contrast.

LESSON V. shows Joseph's entering that dark maze beyond which God was to highly exalt him. By faith he overcame that fierce temptation and his treatment of his fellow prisoner was God's useful agency though it seemed accidental and insignificant.

God's Continued Purpose. LESSON VI. is the completion of Lesson V. and in it we see Joseph seated in the place of power, able to save the country and also his brethren.

LESSON VII. shows us God's continued purpose and the beginning of the fulfillment of his word that the descendants of Abraham were to dwell in captivity (Gen. 15:13).

LESSON VIII. is a continuation of Joseph's dealings with his brothers in which their guilty consciences are still further pricked and God reveals to us his immutable purpose.

LESSON IX. is a tender one of the meeting of Joseph and Benjamin while at the same time it suggests to us the certainty of the fact that we may "be sure your sin will find you out." Unless covered by his forgiving blood our sin is mercilessly upon our track.

IN LESSON X. we behold Joseph made known to his brethren and those in fear are urged to draw near. Joseph's faith in God saved him from arrogance and retaliation and inclined his heart to tenderness and love in his dealings with his brothers. Even as Joseph revealed himself to his brothers so will Christ reveal himself.

Joseph's provision for his fathers and his brethren, LESSON XI, is a rich suggestion of our father's bounty and care for all who are "in Christ Jesus." By faith Joseph who had become great in a strange land, identified with all of its power and splendor makes provision that when God's purpose shall be executed and the sons of Israel shall be delivered from Egypt, his bones shall be carried into the land of the people to whom he belonged and from whom he has so long been separated. Faith is the secret of victory. Joseph as a type teaches us the lesson of faith.

The ONLOOKER S. E. KISER Are You Ready?

The chance for which you have waited long May come before you lie down tonight—Are you ready? Have you learned your part, is your courage strong. Are your muscles hard, is your armor bright And your purpose steady? You have dreamed and hoped, you have gladly planned, And a chance is all that you need, you say. But could you grasp with a firm, strong hand, If the chance you lack should appear today? A thousand others may watch and wait For the chance you crave and the chance you need—Are you ready? Next month, next week, it may be too late, Though your fitness then may be fair, indeed, And your purpose steady.

In New York. "Mamma, mamma, come, quick! See all the men."

"Yes, dear, I see them." "Are they an army?" "Yes, darling, they are an army." "Are they going to war?" "No, sweetheart. They are the army of snaphotters going to photograph the rich as they enter church."

What It Cost Them. "How much did it cost you to get into society?" asked Mrs. Newrich. "Well, I don't know exactly," replied Mrs. Lardleaf; "my husband always keeps track of the expenses; but I think he said he put up about $50,000 to keep the Uppingtons' son-in-law out of the penitentiary that time he embezzled from one of our firms."

Appreciated Preacher. "Dr. Doogood preaches such interesting sermons."

"Yes. When he comes to the place where he says, 'And now, just one word more,' he always considerably refrains from going on for more than ten or fifteen minutes. I like him very much."

Compliment. "I have never seen the inside of a jail," proudly declared the man with the plaid vest and blazing stud. "That's a splendid compliment for your lawyer, whoever he may be," replied an innocent bystander.

HIS STRONG SUIT. "They say Brushington is getting enormous prices for his pictures."

"Yes, I've heard so." "I never thought he was a great artist."

The Triumph of Democracy. "Pa, what does verbum sap mean?"

"Oh, I dunno. It has something to do with maple sugar making, I guess. Run out and play now, I want to read about the triumph of democracy in England."

When a Girl Gets Married. When a girl gets married she is practically the whole show. The man only plays a sort of bridegroom obligato.

Ambition. Many a man's highest ambition is fulfilled when he is able to keep his own mug in a barber shop.

He Wouldn't Believe It. It is hard to convince a man with many poor relatives that he ought to have a big house.

S. E. Kiser

Down to Facts. "Would you die for me?" she asked, sentimentally. "Now, look here," he returned, in his matter-of-fact way, "are we supposed to be planning a cheap novel or a wedding?"

Railroad to Easley.

Mr. Jos. E. Leach came over from Easley yesterday in company with Dr. Wyatt, making the trip in an hour and 15 minutes. Mr. Leach says that the road is along the proposed route of a railway from Anderson to Easley and he had never seen a stretch of country so admirably adapted to the building of a road. He believes that every foot of the right of way on the Easley end would be contributed and there would be cash contributions also.—Anderson Daily Mail.

Heart Symptoms

The ailments of women include symptoms of heart trouble known as palpitation of the heart. The palpitation is so violent at times as to be really painful and leads the patient to fear she has heart disease. Ninety per cent of such cases are not heart disease at all but only a symptom of a liver disorder which has affected the normal action of the heart, and on applying the proper remedies the unusual throbbing ceases. The stomach and digestion need strengthening and the depressing effect of these disorders on the female organism must be corrected. For the latter purpose there is no more effective remedy to be found anywhere than
