Ralph Gilstrap, the champion boy corn grower of Pickens county who last year raised 125 bushels of corn on one acre, planted the same acre this year in oats and reaped 92 bushels. The land now has a fine crop of peavines on it.

It pays to advertise, especially in The Sentinel. Mr. Edwin L. Bolt who has been advertising in The Sentinel has had several customers from a distance of 30 or 40 miles. Moral: If you want to sell goods advertise in The Sentinel.

The lawn party given on the court house grounds Thursday evening was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. A neat amount of money was realized from the sale of ice cream and cake and the local band boys furnished music.

Rev. C. A. Waters, pastor of the Baptist church at the mill, began a protracted meeting there July 7 and continued until Sunday evening. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a men's meeting was held, at which the Holy Spirit seemed to influence the audience and grown men wept and trembled under the conviction of sin at the altar. Twenty members joined by experience and ten by letter. The applicants will be baptized at Holder's ford on July 27 at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Milford of Anderson county conducted the singing in a manner that greatly aided the meeting.

Notice to Old Soldiers.

"The Store That's Always Busy."

Edwin L. Bolt & Co., Props.

EASLEY, S. C.

Quite a number of the people of Pickens enjoyed the box supper given at the home of Mrs. W. B. Freeman last Monday evening by Sunday school class No. 3, of the Methodist church. Each box and young lady was auctioned off by M. F. Hester. The young ladies were brought out completely covered with a white cloth so that no one could tell who they were. But some pretty good guesses were made and some spirited bidding was done. One good looking gentleman paying $5.00 for a "box?". After all the boxes had been sold, the boys went to the "postoffice" to see who they bought, after which each couple went out on the lawn and enjoyed the contents of the boxes. The affair was one of the most enjoyable of the season and a nice sum was realized from the sale of the boxes.
