

FLAVORING EXTRACTS

"True Fruit" brand, best made. 2-ounce bottle 25 cents. A book of choice recipes given with every purchase. Other goods and sizes of extracts 10 cents.

Pickens Drug Co.
The Rexall Store.

Ask for sample of Hallum's Liver Cleansers. Regular size box—40 pills—mailed for 25c. Large size—50 pills—mailed for 50c.

Local and Personal

Miss Elinor Knight is visiting in Westminster.

Mrs. A. S. Porter is visiting friends in Piedmont.

W. F. Hendricks of Oolenoy spent Saturday in Pickens.

Edgar Morris is spending a few days this week in Asheville.

Miss Alice Thompson, of Liberty, is visiting relatives in Pickens.

Read the announcement of Heath Bruce-Morrow Co. in this issue.

Three illicit distilleries were destroyed by the officers in this county last week.

Vernon Christopher, who has been confined to his bed several weeks, is now able to be up.

Mrs. S. E. Christopher, of Pickens, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Nalley, in Easley.

Miss Margaret Gadsden, of Birmingham, is an attractive guest at the summer home of Mrs. Legare.

Messrs. Charlie and Luther Hendricks, prominent young planters of near Liberty, visited friends in Pickens Sunday.

Mr. Clarence McDaniel and Miss Vivian McDaniel, of Laurens, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Earle last week.

Wayne E. Mauldin and family left Tuesday for a week's stay on Big Eastatoe at the home of Mrs. Mauldin's mother.

We learn with regret of the illness of Charles Hester at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hester, near Pickens. He has fever.

Read the new ad of Folger, Thornley & Co. in this issue. They guarantee you'll have a fit when you put on one of their International suits.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow of Birmingham are visiting at the home of B. A. Hagood. They came thru from Birmingham in an automobile.

Mrs. Oliverous, of Savannah, who has been visiting in Pickens, has returned to her home. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George S. Legare.

Miss Emily Bright entertained a few friends at her home Monday evening and the verdict of all present was that it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tanner, of Atlanta, are visiting relatives in Pickens. Mrs. Tanner was before her marriage, Miss Mary Latham, and formerly lived here.

There will be no preaching at the Methodist church next Sunday, the pastor, Rev. G. F. Kirby, being away. He is assisting in a series of meetings in Greenville county.

Miss Nellie Freeman has been visiting in Chester.

Mrs. L. C. Thornley spent a part of last week in Easley.

Miss Ethel Gilmore, of Spartanburg, is visiting the family of J. McD. Bruce.

Misses Addie and Geneya Finley are visiting in Greer and Piedmont.

Miss Helen Boggs spent last week-end with Miss Frances Robinson in Easley.

Mrs. Will Mauldin and little son, Charles, of Greenwood, are visiting in Pickens.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Luther Childress, of the Pickens Mill village, on Monday, a fine girl.

Messrs. M. C. Smith and G. A. Ellis went to Anderson county Monday on real estate business.

Bruce, the 8 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holder, who has been critically ill, is improving.

Mrs. J. P. Carey and daughters, Misses Floride and Bernice, are visiting relatives in Woodbury, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter White and daughter, of Anderson, are visiting her mother, Mrs. N. E. Thornley.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay King of Brevard, are visiting at the home of Mr. Robert Kirksey in Crow Creek.

Mrs. T. L. Bivens and children are visiting relatives in Monroe and other points in North Carolina.

C. M. Bowen is now in the north, buying fall and winter dry goods, notions, etc., for Heath Bruce Morrow Co.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Parsons, W. A. Edens Jr. and Roy Nealey attended the Wesleyan camp meeting at Central Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith of Savannah are visiting his brother, M. C. Smith, in Pickens. Mr. Smith is connected with the Southern Cotton Oil Co. at Savannah.

J. R. Ashmore, of Lisbon, Fla., has joined his family in Pickens at the home of his parents. He is looking natural and his friends are glad to see him again.

Miss Vesta Ashmore has returned to home here after an extended visit to points in Georgia. Miss Vesta was elected to teach in the Pickens school this year, but resigned.

A. M. Morris is having a dwelling house erected between his residence and the residence of Mr. Arthur Grayley. When completed it will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morris. Mr. Arthur Trotter is also having a house erected just below Mr. Grayley's, and we understand will be for rent.

Miss Gertrude Harris charmingly entertained a large number of friends at the Hiawatha hotel Saturday night in honor of her house party guests. Japanese lanterns tastefully arranged made the lawn a delightful place for progressive conversation, which was the feature of the evening. A piano was stationed on the broad front piazza and instrumental and vocal music was enjoyed by the guests. On the side porch delicious punch was served by little Miss Kathleen Harris. The affair proved most pleasant and the time for departure came all too soon for the merry guests. Miss Mary Robertson assisted Miss Harris in entertaining.

Casey Porter spent several days last week at Sun Set. He reports a nice time.

Sam Wilson of Piedmont spent Sunday in Pickens with his cousin, Gus Wilson.

Alonzo Pace and family have moved back to Mrs. Pace's old home at the old Jim Porter place near Holly Springs.

Mrs. O. B. Williams, of Kansas City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richey. She reports a severe drought in Kansas, no rain having fallen there in three months.

Under the direction of Chief Nealy, the county's big 90-horse power tractor, pulling three scrapes, manipulated by able operators, has put the streets of Pickens in tip-top shape.

Miss Emily May Hester and Mary McAlister, of Abbeville county, Marie Harris and J. D. Harris, of Greenville, were the guests of Miss Gertrude Harris at the Hiawatha last week.

Rev. B. C. Atkinson closed a protracted meeting at Holly Springs Baptist church last Friday night, with 15 additions to the church. The baptism will take place the third Sunday in September.

James Hagood, who has been on an outing in West Virginia, has joined his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hagood, in Pickens. He has as his guests Stanley Stephens and Robert Rogers of Charleston.

A. W. Singleton, a railway mail clerk, and Elmer Hendricks, of the Cedar Rock section, were in Pickens on business Saturday. Mr. Hendricks has recently returned from a trip to Iowa.

For Sale—corn mill, cotton gin, saw mill; good water power; good stand for store; 35 acres of land, 4 room house, out buildings, good well. Will sell cheap. See or write S. L. Simmons, Pickens R. 5.

Dr. W. A. Bowen, of Mt. Pleasant, spent last week in this county on professional business and visiting his father, W. T. Bowen. His son, Willie, is spending this week with relatives in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cartledge, of Augusta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gillespie, of Greenville, have been on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gillespie in Pickens. The three families also spent ten days in the mountains.

W. H. Nix, who lives on T. A. Bowen's place between Pickens and Liberty, reports the first open cotton boll on August 15. This cotton bloomed July 1. He has nine acres of cotton from which he expects to get nine bales.

All who expect to attend the Sunday School convention to be held in Pickens September 10, will please send their names to Taylor H. Stewart, chairman of committee on entertainment, at once, so the committee can make arrangements for entertainment.

Dr. Ramsay resigned as pastor of the Baptist church here last Sunday, his resignation to take effect as soon as another pastor can be secured. The church and people here regret Dr. Ramsay's action, but his duties as president of Greenville Female College prevent his serving as pastor of any church.

O. P. Field, one of this county's good citizens, who has been sick for some time, was carried to the Greenville hospital and operated on by Drs. Mauldin, Black and Brown last Thursday. Mr. Field's right eye was entirely removed, and he is doing as well as could be expected. His many friends hope for him a complete and early recovery.

Miss Gertrude Harris charmingly entertained a large number of friends at the Hiawatha hotel Saturday night in honor of her house party guests. Japanese lanterns tastefully arranged made the lawn a delightful place for progressive conversation, which was the feature of the evening. A piano was stationed on the broad front piazza and instrumental and vocal music was enjoyed by the guests. On the side porch delicious punch was served by little Miss Kathleen Harris. The affair proved most pleasant and the time for departure came all too soon for the merry guests. Miss Mary Robertson assisted Miss Harris in entertaining.

Under the direction of Supervisor Craig and Overseer Ragsdale, the county chain gang has made a great improvement in the road between Easley and Pickens. About a mile from the court house the road has been straightened and shortened and greatly bettered. We heard a man the other day commending Supervisor Craig for his changes of several pieces of road, all for the better.

The Sentinel force was made glad Tuesday morning when Mr. J. Mat Stewart stopped in front of the office with a wagon load of watermelons and selected one of the finest and gave us. Of course we immediately cut the melon and it was delicious, luscious, and then some more. We greatly enjoyed it and appreciate Mr. Stewart's generosity and thoughtfulness.

A delightful lawn party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Earle last Thursday evening in honor of their guest Miss Vivian McDaniel, of Laurens. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Delicious punch was served by Mrs. W. B. Freeman and Mrs. C. L. Cureton. Quite a number of out of town guests were present.

Frank Guilty

About 6 o'clock Monday afternoon the jury in the Frank case after being out about four hours, brought in a verdict of guilty, and Leo M. Frank, a wealthy Jew, was found guilty of killing Mary Phagan, a 14-year-old girl in Atlanta last April. Quite a good deal of interest was taken in the case by Pickens people. Some thought Frank guilty, while others thought him not guilty, and after the verdict was announced it came to light that some few knew all along that he was guilty.

FROM ALL OVER THE STATE

Latest News of General Interest That Has Been Collected From Many Towns and Counties.

Greenwood.—Will Deloach, assistant postmaster at Ninety-Six, committed suicide by throwing himself in the pond of water belonging to the Ninety-Six cotton mill and located near the mill.

Columbia.—Committee to pass up on securities offered by national banks desiring deposits from the United States treasury department has been appointed by the Columbia Clearing House association.

Chapin.—The annual old soldiers' reunion was held here on August 26. A basket picnic, ice refreshments and cigars was served free. Prominent speakers were present to address the old boys.

Johnston.—A farmers' institute was held at Harmony Grove and was well attended by an enthusiastic crowd. P. N. Lott, county farm demonstrator, was chairman, and after a short talk introduced the speakers invited to be present.

Columbia.—Capt. R. F. Watson of Greenville has been appointed as a member of the military board of the National Guard of South Carolina, to take the place of O. W. Babb, assistant adjutant general, who has resigned as a member of the board.

Greenville.—As an indication of the scarcity of cattle in this section, statistics from the abattoir are interesting. According to these figures the number of cattle slaughtered in the last three months has fallen off over 30 per cent, and it is freely predicted locally that the next three months will show a still greater shortage.

Columbia.—The governor ordered elections to be held on the second Tuesday in November on the question of the annexation of a portion of Lee county back to Sumner and of a part of Clarendon county to Williamsburg. The elections were ordered after the proper petitions in each case had been filed with and passed on by the attorney general.

Clio.—Nathan Allen, a negro boy about 14 years of age, fell under the large driving wheel of a A. L. Calhoun's traction engine. He was so badly crushed that he died from the effects. Carelessness on the part of the dead negro in passing and repassing the engine on a bicycle in too close proximity was the cause of the accident.

Camden.—During the last few days many alleged "blind tigers" have been rounded up in and near Camden and as a result some have been fined while others are under heavy bond. Two detectives from Charlotte came here representing themselves as cotton mill operatives and secured a job in one of the mills and within a few days had damaging evidence against many alleged offenders.

Orangeburg.—Jostan B. Smoak has been named assistant postmaster at Orangeburg by Postmaster A. D. Webster. A. C. Van Orsdel, the present assistant postmaster, has resigned to accept a position as postoffice inspector. Mr. Van Orsdel will leave Orangeburg for Atlanta to enter up on his duties as inspector.

Classified Column

One-Cent-A-Word

Subscribers of The Sentinel may have 25 words inserted in this column, free of charge

For Rent.—Good farm on Oolenoy river; 25 acres good bottom, with plenty good cotton land; nice 7-room dwelling, out-buildings, pasture. J. J. Chastain, Pickens route 3.

For Rent.—Good one-horse crop. I will furnish stock or renter may furnish it. P. A. Porter, Pickens.

Lost.—Between Henry Sutherland's and Secona church, a gold watch, Elgin movement; monogram "R. A. C." on back. Reward if returned to The Sentinel office

Lost—Friday night, between the school house and B. B. LaBoon's residence, a music pin. Finder will please return to The Sentinel office.

For Sale.—40 acres 3-4 miles of court house, joining lands of Mr. McDaniel. For prices and terms write, H. M. Hester, Westminster, S. C.

For Sale.—McCormick mower, almost good as new, at a bargain. G. A. Ellis, Pickens.

Buy the Hydro Carbonite Roof Paint for rubber and metal roofs, Iron fronts and Gate fronts at Pickens Hardware & Grocery Co.

Farm for Sale

69 acres. 2½ miles west of Pickens Court House, on public road. R. F. D. right by door. In fine state of cultivation. Two good dwellings and a good pasture.

B. A. Allgood,
Pickens, S. C. R. F. D. 2

Desirable Farm For Sale

Farm known as the R. H. Dilworth place, consisting of 190 acres, most of it in high state of cultivation, situated five miles south of Walhalla and three miles north of Westminster. One three room house on place. Will sell to the highest bidder at Walhalla Court House at 2 p. m. on Monday September 1, 1913 provided not sold at private sale before.

Terms: one-third cash; balance in one and two years payments with interest at 8 per cent. For particulars apply to Mrs. Mary Dilworth or W. B. Dilworth, Westminster. R. F. D. 4.

Spartanburg.—Receipt of a cablegram from Dr. Louis W. Sambon of the London School of Tropical Medicine stating that he will not arrive in the United States until August 30, has necessitated a postponement of the pellagra conference which was to have been held here August 29, with Doctor Sambon as the principal speaker. The conference will be held September 2 or 3.

You are cordially invited to attend our

Fall tailoring opening

held by

ISAAC HAMBURGER & SONS

Merchant Tailors

Baltimore

Displaying the only line in America backed by

Real merchant tailoring

Their representative will be with us to take measures

SEPTEMBER 4th, 5th and 6th

HEATH-BRUCE-MORROW COMPANY

Pickens, S. C.

Pickens Garage

F. W. McLESKEY, Manager

First Class Repair Work at Reasonable Prices

Auto Tires, Gasoline, Oils, Greases, Spark Plugs, Body Polish, Auto Soap, Batteries and all kind of accessories. If we haven't got what you want we will get it or it isn't made.

PHONES: Office, 12; Residence, 65

PENDENNIS COFFEE

The best roasted coffee on the market at the price. A fresh shipment just in. Don't forget the name, but come to my store and get Pendennis.

Everything good in groceries.

GREG T. MAULDIN

Mister Farmer

The Parcel Post, no doubt, has its advantages. It brings to you delicacies for your table easily obtained. It unites with the rural delivery and the telephone to make country life more enjoyable. It affords you an opportunity to purchase most anything from the cities. But by the glittering offers of the mail order house into forgetting your home merchant. He stands back of every article you buy from him with a record for honesty. He can't humbug you and laugh up his sleeve. And in adversity he is the one to extend the helping hand and tide you over. So safeguard your own future and keep your money here.

Don't Be Misled

Trade at Home

DRUGS

BY PARCELS POST

RING PHONE 24

KEOWEE PHARMACY

The Sentinel is the BEST Advertising Medium in Pickens County