SOW GRAIN

The time is nearly at hand when farmers sow good Grain. If you are following peas with grain or if your land is in a good state of cultivation we recommend our 10-4 or our 10-6. This is made of phosphoric acid and Potash. Neither of these leach in the soil from rain or snow but stay in the ground until they are taken up as plant food.

SO IF YOU FERTILIZE

Your grain with 10-4 or 10-6 and the grain is killed during the winter your fertilizer isn't lost, it is there for the next crop.

If your land is not in a good state of cultivation we recommend our 10-1-3 or our 10-1-4. This has one per cent ammonia which is sufficient for the grain to get a good firm hold, a good start off. After danger of frost has passed next spring grain should be top-dressed. Oats come in handy in the early summer to finish out a crop and then stock do better when they are fed liberally on oats during the work season. Wheat comes in well at any time.

Our 10-4 is the cheapest first class fertilizer you can use on grain in the fall. Mr. W. H. Glenn has been fertilizing his grain in the fall for several years with our 10-4 and recommends it highly. To prepare well three or four acres to the plow and sow in oats is good farming and pays handsomely.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 5 MOSES' CRY FOR HELP.

LESSON TEXT—Numbers 11:10-18, 24, 25. GOLDEN TEXT—"The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working."—James 5:16.

This lesson is taken from the book of Numbers, "the book of journeyings," or aptly called the "book of murmurings." The events of Exodus and Leviticus cover perhaps one or two years, whereas those recorded in Numbers occupy about 38 years. Read in this connection Pa. 95:10 and I Cor. 10. From Sinai to Kadesh-Barnea are found four general murmurings. The first was at Taberah, 11:3, and the events of today's lesson which occurred at Kibroth, 11:34. The other two were at Hazeroth, 12:15, 16, and Kadesh, 13:26. This book is full of impressive warnings about worldliness.

Moses Was Human.
I. Complaint and Controversy, vv. 10-15. Moses was great but he was human. No man is faultless, and in this lesson we have another incident illustrating the weakness of Moses. Yet despite all this we find inserted in the very next chapter God's estimate of his character, 12:3. Moses had been subjected to a terrible strain, the details of his leadership, the constant murmuring of the people under his load he gave way, just as he had previously yielded to impulse, Ex. 2:12, and as he did subsequently, Ch. 20:10-13. The Israelites are a striking illustration of the natural discontent of the human heart. Any affliction, and discomfort or privation, and we forget God's marvelous works on our behalf. His wonderful goodness. That God was displeased is indicated by verse 10, but that did not imply that Moses, too, was to lose his temper, to resort to murmuring, and to accuse God of being responsible for the burden or that he would not help to share the load, v. 11. God placed great honor upon Moses by calling him to this task of leadership, and now he complains, and doubts for a moment God's sustaining grace, 2 Cor. 12:9; Phil. 4:13. The language here used, v. 12-14, is wonderfully suggestive. The utter weakness of the Israelites, the promised goal, the hunger of soul and body, the sorrows of affliction are all graphically set before us. Moses' own weakness is revealed (v. 13) by his words, "where should I have flesh to give?" He seems to forget absolutely God's dealings with Israel before they reached Sinai (Ex. 16), as though God expected any such thing from him. The height of his petulance and bitterness is reached when he exclaims, "kill me I pray thee . . . and let me not see my wretchedness," v. 15.

Burden Distributed.
II. Comfort and Counsel, vv. 16-18, 24, 25. Moses had been warned not to bear the entire burden of leadership by his father-in-law, Jethro, Ex. 18:17, 18. Now that he is unwilling to take the full honor of undivided leadership God most graciously grants his request and appoints others to share the burden and responsibility. There was no more power, however, but more machinery. God distributed the burden and revealed the fact that Moses' power was in proportion to his burden. Human nature always looks for the arm of flesh upon which to rely, but such a reliance usually brings a curse not a blessing upon those who seek it, Jer. 17:5. God dealt in mercy with Moses. Notice how gently he passes by this exhibition of infirmity and notwithstanding this lapse, bears testimony to his faithfulness (12:7). Yet he is impartial in chronicling his faults and thereby giving us an incidental and thereby giving us the truth.

What a suggestion in the words "I will come down and talk with thee," yet that is the privilege of the believer in Christ, John 14:16, 17 and 16:13. God calls a "tent meeting," v. 16 R. Y. but before he meets them they must sanctify themselves, for so only is one prepared to meet God, Ex. 19:10, 15, 22. These people had been lusting for the food of Egypt even as today many who have professed to accept Christ are forever longing for the pleasures of time and sense. They forget the bitterness of past slavery in the privations of the present, entirely forgetful of the goal of luxury and freedom, Rom. 10:28, 2 Cor. 4:17. God granted their request, v. 18, to their sorrow, v. 20. The whole trouble was then "rejected the Lord," v. 20 R. V. The granting of material prosperity tends to leanness of soul, Pa. 106:15. It frequently happens that God does not answer our prayers because he knows that to answer them actually and literally would spell disaster in our lives.

Conclusion. This lesson brings Moses very near to us. Such a remarkable man as he is he sometimes seems to be far removed from our actual experiences in life. Yet as we consider him faltering for a moment beneath his staggering, crushing burden of responsibility, with strength and courage gone, we share our sympathy with him and he seems to enter into the actualities of our daily life.

God reveals himself as one who understands perfectly, one who knows exactly all that his servant felt, and one who in tender compassion had not a word of rebuke.

REPORT TO GRAND JURY

State of South Carolina, }
County of Pickens.

To the Foreman and Members of the Grand Jury:
At your request I have made an examination of the various offices of the County and herewith submit my findings:
I wish to say to all the officers of the county that I found their books in good shape, properly and neatly kept.

Sheriff's Office.
This officer handles only such public funds as are collected on tax executions. Very few of these for the taxes of last year have been collected for various reasons, and these executions were not checked by me nor taken into account in any way, as they make up no part of the funds to be accounted for in the annual settlement of June 30, last but will be accounted for in the settlement of next year.

Probate Judge's Office.
The only public funds handled by this officer are the fees from marriage licenses. From the 1st day of July, 1911, when the law went into effect, to the 30th day of June, 1913, the Probate Judge issued 417 marriage licenses for which he collected $1.00 each. Seventy-five per cent of this goes to the public school fund. The school fund, therefore, as entitled to $312.75, and I found by an error in addition, this officer had paid to the County Treasurer $314.25 or $1.50 more than was due the County.

I also examined this office as to the funds as public guardian. The present Probate Judge is guardian for children in two estates. These funds are loaned out on mortgages of real estate and are safely invested and well secured.

Clerk of Court.
I have carefully examined the Court records and the books in this office as to all fines, penalties, license fees and forfeitures collected by this officer and have checked the same with the Treasurer's books and find that all such funds have been promptly turned over to the Treasurer.

Magistrates.
I have also examined the books of all the Magistrates in the County and find that all the costs and fines collected by them have been paid over to the County Treasurer.

Treasurer's Office.
The examination of his office was in connection with the examination and checking of the offices of the Superintendent of Education and County Supervisor, as all the public funds of the County are paid out by these two officers, and my report as to them will cover the Treasurer's also.

Superintendent of Education.
From the 1st day of July, 1912, to 30th day of June, 1913, the total amount of money available and disbursed by this officer was as follows:

Total amount available.....$48,247.96
Total expenditures.....38,844.36
Cash balance July 1, 1913.....$ 9,403.60

In addition to this an accumulation of $5,501.07 is on hand from the levies made each year to retire interest on bonds in Liberty, Central, Easley, Pickens and Dacusville School Districts, as follows: Liberty, $767.64; Central, $2,277.43; Easley, $1,149.62; Pickens, $1,096.43, and Dacusville, $209.95.

During this school year only two new school houses have been built in the County, whereas many of the Districts need more room in present buildings, some new buildings, and all better equipment. This seems to be the most urgent need at present. In this connection the Superintendent of Education wants it known that a special fund has been provided to aid school districts in building better houses, and he desires the cooperation of the Grand Jury and all good citizens to the end that better buildings and equipment may be provided for every district which needs them. Plans for modern and improved buildings can be had by any district wishing to build free of cost.

Supervisor's Office.
As practically the bulk of the public funds are subject to the check of this office, I have carefully examined the same for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, and report as follows:

Amount reported by the County Treasurer to the Supervisor as available for all purposes and from the various sources from July 1, 1912, to June 30, 1913, are as follows:

Ordinary County Tax.....$57,971.09
For Sinking Fund Debt.....7,062.89
Road Tax.....10,089.86
Commutation Road Tax.....3,781.13
Fines and Forfeits.....1,897.35

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the good colored people of Pickens for kindness shown me during the sickness and death of my wife and I also wish to thank especially Dr. Hallum and Dr. Valley for their kindness during her illness. May the Lord bless them.

Paid on Past Indebtedness.....	3,786.63
Total Amount Paid Out.....	$80,634.35

Indebtedness.
From all the information I can get, the County owes on outstanding claims and for borrowed money since the present Supervisor assumed office in 1911 the following:

On Outstanding Claims.....$ 1,532.11
Townsend, Scott & Son, (Borrowed).....20,000.00
Pickens Bank.....10,000.00
Total.....$31,532.11

There may be a few unpaid claims prior to 1911, but these I did not examine, and I feel sure they do not amount to much and will not increase this indebtedness but little. The County has no bonded debt, and the amount last stated practically covers the County's indebtedness.

Respectfully submitted,
C. E. Robinson.
