

Corn Show Postponed--Dec. 20

For some reason or other Clemson College failed to send a judge for the corn show at Pickens last Saturday, and the show was postponed until Saturday, December 20. There will also be a lecture on selecting seed and grading corn. The show will begin at 10:30 o'clock and will be held in the court house.

A large crowd of both men and boys were on hand for the show, and much interest was shown. There were twenty-nine exhibits of ten ears each and there is some fine corn in the exhibits. The corn and reports were turned over to Supt. Hallum and Demonstrator Bowen, and they will care for them until December 20th and have them on hand for the show.

Everybody in Pickens county is invited to be at the court house on the day of the show to see the exhibits and learn something about judging corn. Members of the boys' and men's clubs are especially urged to be present, whether you sent in your reports or not.

Pickens Route 4.

Dear Editor: Health in this community is very good at present.

Most of the farmers are in a hurry to finish up their fall work.

Our beloved pastor preached his farewell sermon at Griffin church yesterday, which was a treat to all who were present, and after the eleven o'clock sermon the congregation assembled at the pool and saw the pastor go down into the pool and administer the ordinance of baptism to Bro. Edwin Griffin. Brother Hiott came to our church this year when we were without a pastor and took up the work. He has done a good work and has been faithful in the discharge of his duty. Bro. Hiott is a great preacher and one the people will love anywhere he goes, where they want a good man. A Standby.

Pleasant Grove News

Miss Annie Williams of Aiken county has returned and opened up her school at Pleasant Grove. We are glad to have Miss Annie back with us and wish her success with her school.

Rev. R. J. Williams of Greenville is on a visit to relatives and friends of this section. We are glad to welcome Brother Williams back among us again, and would be delighted to hear a few of his sermons while he is visiting this section.

There was a very delightful box supper given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anders last Saturday night for the purpose of raising money to buy a heater for Pleasant Grove church. The amount raised was $33.80. We thank the people of the surrounding community for this nice sum, and especially Mr. and Mrs. Anders for their kindness.

A. C. Nalley, who has been lying on A. T. Fortner's farm, has forsaken it and moved to Greenville, to Mills' cotton mill. Mr. Nalley says he is going to move back in the spring.

Messrs. O. M. Birche and M. M. Locke, traveling salesmen for the Kimball Piano & Organ Co., were through this section last week delivering organs. They have made seven deals very near Pleasant Grove church within the past four months. A Farmer.

W. O. W. Elect Officers.

Last Monday night the Keowee Camp, No. 496, W. O. W., elected the following officers for the year 1914:

Dr. F. S. Porter, C. C.; Prof. R. T. Hallum, A. L.; J. W. Langston, B. B. R.; Dr. T. A. Seawright, Clerk; W. E. Finley, Esc.; E. V. Christopher, Asst. Esc.; W. A. Edens, Sr., Watchman; F. D. Waldrop, Sen.; J. W. Garrett, Capt. degree team; W. T. Bates, T. R. Allen and T. H. Stewart, managers.

The camp will install officers January 6, 1914. All sovereigns requested to attend.

Mr. S. E. Mauldin is working with the Heath-Bruce-Morrow Company during the sale. He will be glad to have any and all of his friends see him at the Big Store.

Atty. Gen. Kills Negro

Robert Marshall, colored, was killed about 11 o'clock Saturday night by Atty. Gen. Thomas H. Peebles at the Elks Club in Columbia, where the negro was employed as chef.

That Robert Marshall, the negro cook at the Elks Club, came to his death Saturday night from the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of Atty. Gen. Thomas H. Peebles was the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the shooting Sunday night.

Land Sale at Liberty.

On next Tuesday, December 16, forty-four building lots will be sold at auction in Liberty. The lots are near the school and churches and said to be very choice. They will be sold to highest bidder and liberal terms will be given.

Students of the Six Mile Baptist Academy were greeted and applauded by a large crowd of Pickens people at the school auditorium last Friday night when they presented "Old School Days."

Leander Alexander Tannery, a merchant of Liberty, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court at Charleston, scheduling liabilities at $3,714.50 and assets at $600.

Dr. Clifton—Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist—will be in Central on Wednesday, the 10th; in Liberty on Thursday, the 11th; in Pickens on Friday, the 12th, and in Easley on Saturday, the 13th. One day only at each place. Inquire at drug stores in each town for information. Eye glasses fitted at small cost. Adenoids, tonsils, nasal tumors, cataracts, etc., removed. Catarrhal diseases cured. Cross eyes straightened. Charges very reasonable, and examinations free to all. No charges to the poor. Please call early and avoid a rush.

Everything must go by January 1st. Cost cuts no figure now; its "move the stuff out." Come in. Make your price. Shoes, clothing, cloaks, groceries—all going. T. D. Harris.

Tax Money Coming in Slowly

Treasurer Stewart informs us that tax money is a little slow in coming in, and he wishes all would pay before January 1, for after that date a penalty will be added to the regular tax of those not paid.

Up until 12 o'clock Tuesday only 968 had paid their taxes. The number paid in townships is as follows: Easley, 124; Liberty, 156; Central, 216; Hurricane, 151; Pickens, 162; Dacusville, 71; Pumpkintown, 42; Eastatoe, 45. Which leaves about 6,000 tax receipts to be marked paid.

W. P. Davis, of the Oolenoy section, was in town on business Monday. He has just returned from a visit to his daughter at Rosman, N. C. Mr. Davis is going to quit farming and will move to Easley. He will sell his farming implements and household goods next Saturday, 20th. Read his ad in this paper.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was given last Saturday afternoon by Miss McDonald to her friend, Miss Lucile Allsbrook of Spartanburg. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pot plants. Heart dice was the game enjoyed and Misses Taylor and Lois Hester won the prizes. Refreshments, consisting of cake and hot chocolate, were served, and each guest thoroughly enjoyed the happy occasion.

Rev. G. F. Kirby preached his farewell sermon in the Grace Methodist church here Sunday morning. He and his family will leave Friday for their new home in St. Matthews and will carry with them the very best wishes of a host of friends who have learned to love them during the three years they have been in Pickens. The work done by Mr. Kirby in Pickens needs no recounting by us, because it speaks for itself. We understand that there is a new church to be built at St. Matthews and they need a man of Mr. Kirby's type.

How to Get Your Railway Fare Refunded

Secure from any of the above firms a Chamber of Commerce Rebate Book. Have purchases entered in the book and as soon as they total the desired amount, surrender the book to the firm from which you made your last purchase. They will refund your railway fare. This is an improvement on the former plan by which it was necessary for the purchaser to surrender the book direct to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The merchant himself will redeem it now.

Greenville's Splendid Railway Facilities

Remember the excellent railroad service Greenville has: 56 passenger trains daily from all directions--18 on the Interurban, 38 on steam roads

The rest room over the Fourth National Bank, with Matron in constant attendance is maintained for your comfort while in Greenville.

It pays to buy in Greenville---The trading center of the Piedmont.
