Local and Personal

Cotton is still rolling into Pickens.

F. M. Morris spent a day in Greenville last week on business.

Mrs. R. B. Gilstrap, of Eastatoe, is very sick, we are sorry to state.

Miss Ellen Lewis has been visiting her grandparents in the Enon section.

James P. Carey, Jr., spent Saturday in Columbia on business.

Messrs. John Harris and L. L. Earle made a business trip to Greenville last week.

Setting out cabbage plants has begun, which reminds us that spring is nearly here.

Guy McFall attended the Knight Templar's meeting in Greenville Friday night.

Edd Seaborn, of the Prater's section, was a business visitor at the county seat last week.

Mrs. J. M. Gillespie, of route 3, is visiting the family of Mr. R. B. Byars, near Easley.

Jos. E. Leach, esq., of Easley, was a business visitor at the county seat Monday.

J. Sam Christopher came over from Spartanburg to spend Sunday with his family in Pickens.

Constable J. C. Alexander has moved his family to the Dr. Cannon house, near the Pickens mill.

T. R. Allen, manager of the Pickens Hardware and Grocery Co., spent Monday in Easley on business.

Mr. Wade Ligon, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his brother Mr. Tom Ligon, at the Pickens mill.

An early start in the contest may mean the player piano for you.

Dr. R. F. Smith and Mr. J. N. Wyatt of Easley visited our city on business this week.

R. E. Bruce, manager of the Big Store, has been confined to his room several days with a severe cold.

Senator T. J. Mauldin is in Columbia attending the session of the senate and looking out for our interests.

Jake Baker, of route 3, had the misfortune to get one of his fingers badly mashed in a peahuller this week.

Mr. John R. Henderson and son, Samuel, of Anderson county, were welcomed visitors to our city this week.

Mr and Mrs. W. H. Cagdill and children, of Addie, N. C., have been on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilstrap, of Pickens.

Dr. J. L. Bolt, who moved from Pickens to Easley two or three years ago, has given up the practice of medicine and bought an interest in the general store of Edwin L. Bolt & Co., known as The Battery. The Battery was established in Easley several years ago and its business has constantly increased each year. Dr. Bolt was recently elected to the legislature to fill out the unexpired term of the late Fred Williams, and is now in Columbia. He will connect himself actively with the store upon the adjournment of the legislature.

"Goods do move in Pickens". During the past week one firm-Folger, Thornley & Co., have received six car loads of new goods, including a car of bugles, mattresses, furniture, nail's flour and salt.

Homer Durham, the boy who got his eyes and face burned by a powder explosion Christmas, was carried to Greenville this week to have his eyes treated. We hope he may recover his sight. Dr. Porter accompanied him.

Messrs. J. McD. Bruce, L. C. Thornley and Hagood Bruce went to Atlanta Saturday and brought back Mr. Bruce's new Mitchell "six" automobile driving the car back through the country.

William Benjamin, the 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lawrence, of Liberty, died Monday and was buried in Liberty Wednesday. The little fellow was a grandson of B. F. Parsons, of Pickens. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Dr. J. P. Jewell, who came to Pickens several months ago, has moved to Easley, where he will practice medicine, the retirement of Dr. Bolt making it necessary for another physician to go there. In the time Dr. Jewell was in Pickens he made many friends by his excellent demeanor and they wish for him an abundance of success in his profession.

Furman Morris, who for several years past has been with Folger, Thornley & Co., has purchased an interest in the Piedmont Tie and Lumber Co., of Pickens. He will have charge of the Wallala branch of this concern. The firm is composed of Messrs. Gibson, Hughey and Morris—three good men—and they expect to do a greater business than any other concern of this kind in this section.
