GARY HOTT, MANAGER

The Sentinel is not responsible for the views of its correspondents.

A square man is a pretty good thing to have 'round.

Who was it that said the slit skirt uncovered a multitude of shins?

"Make Sun Cook Meals"— Headline. We've heard of some sons who cook meals regularly.

P. F. Collier & Son announce the appointment of Mr. Mark Sullivan as editor of Collier's Weekly.

We believe that the majority of good women do not want the ballot, and the other kind have no use with it.

"Buying jewelry on the excitement plan," it should be called. There is plenty of excitement and very little installment before the final payment is made.

If the plowing records of the farmer boys were printed on the back page of the daily papers and feature them as they do the news, perhaps some boys could be persuaded to take more interest.

The postmaster at Easley surely must be "off his base." When a letter was mailed in his office a few days ago addressed "To the Sweetest Girl in the World," he didn't have gumption enough to forward it to Pickens.

A news item says that "lightning struck a house in which were seated a mother and child and spoiled its gable end." The uncertainty as to where our sympathy should be directed is, indeed, perplexing and really embarrassing.

Congress is talking about "docking" Representative Hobson for the time he has been absent from the sessions of that body. As for our part, we had rather pay some congressmen to stay at home than to pay them to attend congress.

Kansas Wesleyan University recently conferred the degree of Master of Accounts on one of the editors of this state. This probably is in recognition of the fact that the editor gave accounts of all the local events in a masterful manner.

Some millionaires dote on telling how they made their first hundred dollars, because they are on safe ground; but they are very guarded when telling how they accumulated the many millions they now possess. The whole story would make the angels weep.

It is estimated that one-tenth of the people of the United States do not get enough to eat, and some "experts" say that only the "back to the farm" movement can remedy this condition.
Let the "experts" tell us how a man who hasn't enough to eat to get to the country, then they will be saying something worth while.

We ask our readers to trade with merchants who advertise in The Sentinel, as far as possible, because it is through the advertisements that we are able to publish a paper at the small price of one dollar a year. And, then, merchants who advertise sell more goods than merchants who do not advertise, and consequently have newer and fresher goods at all times.

Health Hint—If you are suffering from colic caused by eating pig's feet, try a dose of foot ease.

Mr. Brown Wants
The Laws Changed

Mr. Editor: As this is campaign year, every officer from governor down is to be elected, we thought a few timely remarks on some changes in our laws which are badly needed would not be anything amiss.
We hope it will put the aspirants for the legislature to thinking and may be the means of modifying or giving us better laws.

First—We believe that magistrate's jurisdiction should extend to $300 or ninety days, or both. By so doing our court expenses would be curtailed from the fact that all parties concerned in a criminal case are generally closer to the magistrate than to the county seat, and a case could be heard by a magistrate perhaps in two or three hours, while it would no doubt take two or three days in the court of general sessions to get to this case. All this time witnesses are lying around the court house at the expense of the county or state. Allow the magistrate a living salary, so he can devote his entire time to the office. Put him under bond for the faithful performance of his official acts and the money he may have in his care. Let the people elect or the governor appoint no man to the office that is not worthy of the judicial robe.

Next, put the magistrate's constable under a heavy bond and let him be sworn in, as all other officers. Let him be appointed by the governor through a petition from the qualified voters in the township where the magistrate's office is. In case he fails to discharge his duty, let the voters petition for his removal, and if any damage results from his official acts, let his bondsmen be liable.

Again, make it a law that if any man is brought the second time before a magistrate for any crime and found guilty, sentence him to so many days and no fine. Arrange the law so every magistrate in a county shall know who has been tried, the crime and sentence of everyone who is tried for at least once a month. By so doing the criminal will be known when he is arraigned the second time.

Then the concealed weapon law. Make it punishable for every person, rich or poor, big or little, to the amount of $500 fine or six months on the gang for the first time a concealed weapon is found on their person, and twelve months without any fine for the second time. Every constable, policeman or peace officer of any kind who carries a pistol, let him be granted a license by the clerk of court in the county where he is to carry it, setting forth his occupation and extending to a period as long as he is in that official capacity. Let him pay a fee for same, the money to go for issuing said license as far as necessary, the remainder to the public school fund. Put said peace officer under a heavy bond. By so doing we don't believe so many murders would be committed.

A mean, low-down character can stick a 75c American Bulldog in his pocket, go out and kill a poor, defenceless man. He can get some one to swear for him, and the chances are he is acquitted of murder. Thirty days or $100 is the limit. What does he care for that? Talk about dog laws! We need a dog law, but it is a law to punish a two-legged dog without a tail.
We hope some good man will advocate just such laws as these in the next campaign. If so, we will do all we can for him, let him be a Bleasite, a Jonesite or Tillmanite. With such laws as stated above and then execute them, there will be no need of rural policemen.

We believe it is a good thing for the voters of our county to express their different opinions about the needed changes in our laws. By so doing it would enable our delegation to be in a better position to know what is wanted.

Sunset Notes

Editor Sentinel: As I haven't written anything for your valuable paper for a long time, I will try to rake up a few items.

The health of the community is generally good, except for coughs, colds and croup among the children.

Crops were extra good last year, especially the corn crop, and all brought fair prices. Our farmers have a lot of land turned preparatory for another crop.

Mrs. Bright R. Gilstrap died at home Janur 21, after an illness of three weeks. Drs. Kirksey, Cannon and Valley and friends and neighbors did all that was in their power to save her life, but all to no avail. She was buried the day following her death at Antioch Baptist church.
Revs. J. R. Meese and J. C.
Bailey conducted the funeral services. She was and had been a consistent member of Antioch Baptist church for several years.
She leaves a husband and ten children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death.
We can only say, the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh, and blessed be the name of the Lord.

Married, by A. T. Winchester, notary public, Mr. J. H. Ramey and Miss Inez Gilstrap. The bridegroom is a son of Rev. D.
Ramey and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A.
Gilstrap. Both couples have the best wishes of their hosts of friends.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. A. T.
Winchester, a fine 11-pound boy.
He is one of President Woodrow Wilson's namesakes.

Rev. B. C. Atkinson has been called and has accepted the pastorate of Antioch Baptist church and A. T. Winchester elected church clerk. We also have a splendid Sunday school at the same place.

Makes Old People
Strong and Well

We want to get the news to all old people about Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion, a remarkable new food-medicine which we firmly believe is the best remedy ever made to overcome the weakening, debilitating effects of increasing old age. It helps to restore vitality, strength, and energy, and gives new vigor and a lively feeling to the elderly. It contains no alcohol or other harmful ingredients.
It may not seem to feel better for a few days, but if you do not feel much better and stronger before you have taken a quarter as much as you have of other medicines that have not helped you, we will gladly give back your money.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion contains pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites which, though they have long been endorsed by successful physicians, are here for the first time combined. The result is a real body, nerve and blood-building food-medicine that we believe is superior to anything else in overcoming debilitation, weakness and liability to disease, and to tone and strengthen the nerves and enrich the blood.
You who are weak and rundown—you who are often troubled by various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. It is a sensible, pleasant-tasting aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health. If it doesn't help you, come and tell us and we will give back your money. That is how much faith we have in it. Sold only in the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us, $1.00. The

A Brief Autobiography
Of An Ex-Slave

I was born 69 years ago on my master, Elibu Griffin's, plantation, four miles north of the present Pickens Court House.
I have no recollection of my father. My mother, Tibitha, had eight children, one girl and seven boys, all of whom have passed into the boundless beyond, including my affectionate mother, save West Griffin and myself.

My boyhood days were spent in slavery. I was about 18 years old when freedom was proclaimed.
In 1863 I was engaged in constructing fortifications and breastworks about Charleston and its suburbs. I saw many sharp skirmishes between the Union and Confederate soldiers.
I rejoice with the entire human family and this great republic that that sad and bitter period is past and only remembered by the necessity of history.

In 1865, when the Emancipa-tion Proclamation was issued, I went through here. I kept my wife's mules and had with me in the woods of Anderson about a month. I saved them every one. My mother kept my master's silver money during this time and saved it for him, and when the Yankees had gone she turned over every dollar to him.

April 2, 1867, I was married to Sarah T. Sizemore by Rev. B.
Holder (white). There were 12 children to come to my home, eight of whom are now living.

In the fall, fourteen years after my marriage, a revival was in progress at Cold Spring, at which I was happily converted and immediately joined the Baptist church there. My membership now is at the Griffin Ebenezer Baptist church.

God has wonderfully blessed me with a powerful constitution.
If it has been injured, I confess that I am the sole cause from my free use of bad whiskey, but through God's grace I have sworn off.

I have endeavored in my private and public way to be a useful man to my race, the white people, and my country. Thru my indefatigable efforts I organized the first colored Free and Accepted Masons at Pickens C. H.
Four years ago I organized the ex-Slave Reunion and have been its worthy president for three years. I was at the head of the movement to obtain land to inter our dead. Through that means the colored folks have two acres at Secona.

I have the greatest respect for my former master's relatives and the white people. They have been kind, generous and helpful to me. I have no malice nor hatred in my heart for or against anybody, white or black. I
