Johnnie, get your gun!

Sunshine is the best germ destroyer.

An open window is better than an open grave.

Everybody is giving out ultimatum now except Huerta.

Tugalo Tribune is getting powerful sporty. It had a pink supplement last week.

It won't be long now till we will have a surfeit of Mexican pictures in the movies.

Suing the editor for libel is a much better plan than the old-time way of going to the editor's office to whip him. It is safer all concerned.

It really is a joke on howling warriors. They should take the word and send them to the front?

Did Huerta has 100 soldiers. In case of any first-class power he army would be wiped about forty days.

Larsen Henry Watterson of Louisville Courier-Journal declared war again. It will be remembered that the Colonel the same thing just before Baltimore convention.

Voting by mail is the latest politics. Milwaukee, Wis., planning to make the experiment; also Kansas. We don't know if we will do our voting the good, old-fashioned way.

"We have lost the art of hospitality," declares a Chicago Methodist minister. "What has become of the 'spare room' of our ancestors?" They are still to be found in the hospitable Southland.

That story which went the rounds of the papers a few weeks ago about a pig's eye being transplanted to that of a child which had lost that useful member has been denied. The operation was performed all right, but unsuccessfully.

That was a noble defense in the Columbia State last week of the "He-Ass," father of the mule. We have been patiently "watching and waiting" for a tribute to this useful if not beautiful animal, and would have done the honors ourselves had we not feared the hee-haw of some high-brow two-legged jackass.

In the coming fall congressional elections the ones who want to go back—and most of them do—those who did not vote for repeal of canal tolls will fall back on the poor old Baltimore platform; and those who did vote for repeal will fall back on "our national honor." So it is a case of fall "a-comin' an' a-gwine."

The "pote" of the Columbia State, in a "Ballade of Forgotten Booze," is trying to find out what kind of rye whiskey the knights of old drank. It is a little beyond our time, but in order to keep history straight, will say that the old knights didn't drink rye at all—it was "pure co'n," as they would say in No'th Cali'ny.

"Detective" Burns seems to have lost out in the Frank case, as it was predicted would be the case by many. Had he the money behind him he had in some other cases he would still be on the job, spouting about what he would soon accomplish. But the "pewter" played out, and so has Burns. At last accounts he was offering $1,000 reward for evidence in the Frank case. He has finally laid it on the negro Conley.

HE WONDERS WHAT IT IS—THEN SUDDENLY FINDS OUT

A man named Hatmaker, an American, who was for many years secretary of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, has developed a process whereby milk can be reduced to a powder and sold in tin cans, like baking powder. He says he will have it on the New York market within a month. He says in the process of drying the milk it is sterilized, and that it can not sour. All that has to be done is to add water to a spoonful or so of powdered milk and it is ready for use. He also claims that within a few years his new process will put the milkman and the town pump out of business. Now, if Mr. Hatmaker will make some powdered butter-milk, he will certainly interest us.

To encourage southern farmers to take up sheep raising, the live stock department of the Southern Railway has issued a booklet telling of the advantages of the South for this industry and giving full information in regard to the care and management of sheep under conditions obtaining in the South. A copy of the booklet will be mailed to any farmer on request by Live Stock Agent, Southern Railway, Atlanta, Ga.

The Belton Journal is the name of a new paper started at Belton last week. Several papers have been published at Belton in the past, but for some cause suspended publication. We hope Mr. Claude A. Graves, editor and manager, will be successful with his new paper.

For the benefit of many inquirers, we will say that the blue jacket is a sailor in the navy and a marine is a soldier in the navy. Many people get confused by the terms.

Observations

Many goods are bought of the mail order houses because the buyer did not know the same or similar article could be bought of the home merchant. The fault of the ignorance of the buyer rests entirely with the man who failed to inform his neighbors that he had that which was desired. No doubt in many cases he could save the consumer money if the article had been bought at home. But how is the customer to know?

Central Township S. S. Association

The fifth semi-annual gathering of Central township Sunday School Association will convene in the new Baptist church at Clemson College on Saturday and Sunday, May 9 and 10.

For two reasons this is to be far more than the ordinary township convention. First, it is to be held at Clemson College, where the eight hundred cadets, who at this time more than at any other time since the college was started, are intensely interested in Sunday school work, will be in attendance. Second, coming as it does, at the beginning of the administration of our new general secretary, Rev. John C. Carman, when all the state is interested to know his plans and methods, and to hear him speak.

As it is situated in the corner of three counties, Pickens, Oconee and Anderson, we are making it more of a tri-county, rather than a township meeting.

In addition to Mr. Carman we are to have Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, chairman of the state executive committee, to preside at a conference of pastors and Sunday school superintendents on Saturday morning, and to speak on Saturday morning to a conference of township, county and state workers.

Rev. W. S. Myers, of Townville will address the convention Saturday night, followed by Rev. John C. Carman.

Sunday morning after the regular Sunday school hour, at which time Mr. Carman will give a short talk, he will preach. In the afternoon, while the convention is in progress at Clemson, with good addresses for Sunday school workers, (the names of the speakers to be given later.) Mr. Carman will speak to a mass meeting of the five churches of Central, in the Central high school auditorium. After this he will return to Clemson to give the main address of the occasion to the cadets, subject, "The Almighty God Looking for a Man."

All are invited to come to Clemson for this meeting of church and Sunday school workers.

W. A. MATHEWS, President.

Send us your printing.

Memorial Day Program at Cross Roads

Cross Roads church will observe Thursday, the seventh day of May, as Memorial Day. Meet at 10.30. Singing and prayer. Address by W. Elbert Findley Esq., of Pickens.

Perhaps some others will speak at the morning hour.

AFTERNOON Address by Mr. John Looper of Dacusville, on "The Sacrifices of Our Women During the War."

Capt. B. C. Johnson of Easley, will command the old soldiers and Mrs. Pearl Howard of Easley will assist the ladies of Cross Roads with the decorations.

Dinner will be served on the ground. Mr. W. Edd Cisson will have charge of the music. Everybody invited, especially all old soldiers and their families.

The Missions

I notice the report of the Townville Baptist church, Anderson county, at one meeting raising $500 for foreign missions. That kind of contribution means mission pure and simple. I know of one lady in Anderson county who supports one missionary in China, $450 a year. That missionary was approved and recommended by a home church as the Bible directs the work. Now if Townville church would select a servant to go forth into all the world as the Holy Spirit may direct them and let them report back to the home churches that are supporting them it would be stimulating to other churches to take the work in hand and cooperate together. Then from the reports of the contributions of the Pickens church they could send a missionary on this plan and it would be Bible-like; encouraging to have them report back of the needs and their work. It is honoring God to work by the plan he gave us. See the report of the amount contributed annually by the churches of South Carolina. It would pay half as many missionaries as all the Southern Baptist convention has in the field with an expense of over a half million dollars annually. Under this plan missionaries are constituting churches in foreign fields, instilling into their minds the duty of self support. As they grow stronger they will not expect us to support them, but they will be a help to us to go on to new fields with work. It is reported that in all the dark continent where we have been sending the gospel for 100 years that there is not a church but what we are helping to support, yet these things ought not to be; but I suppose it will be so just as long as our people will have it. Wait and see. M. H.

In Memory of Little Louise Mann

The good Lord in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our little granddaughter, Louise, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mann. It was sad indeed to part with her, but we humbly bow in meek submission to His holy will and humbly pray His richest blessings upon them and her little brother and sister, whom she left behind. May they live noble lives that they may be prepared to meet her in heaven, where we can sing His praises forever.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home That never can be filled.

To the bereaved family we extend our sincerest sympathy, and can only point them to the loving Savior who doth all things well. HER GRANDMOTHER.

Letter From Dacusville

[Too late for last week.] H. A. Looper went to Greenville last Friday on business. J. H. Hughes and sister Annie were shopping in Greenville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Looper and son went to Greenville last week shopping.

Mrs. W. M. Jones of Oolenoy section visited her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Hughes, last week.

Small grain is looking very well in this section where it has been fertilized and well prepared.

Miss Lethy McJunkin of the Latham section visited her sister, Mrs. W. P. Pitts, last week.

Mr. S. M. Looper was seen going toward Dacusville last Sunday evening in his new buggy. Where did you go, Matt?

Mr. W. A. Whitmore, who was badly burned some time during the winter, is slowly improving. He was burned about the body and face.

Mrs. John Finley of the Mt. Tabor section and sister, Eva, of Washington, D. C., visited Mrs. H. A. Freeman a short while Sunday evening.

Rev. L. H. Raines visited the home of W. T. Smith last second Saturday night and filled his regular appointment at Peters Creek church Sunday.

It seems like the candidates are rather slow about announcing for the various offices of the county. Hurry up. "Progressive" wants to know who you are. OLD GRUNTER.

Found a Cure for Rheumatism "I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep nor lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since."

Governor Blease Brings Libel Suit

Two warrants charging James H. Moore, editor of the Columbia Record with criminal libel were sworn out before Magistrate Bueschel by W. F. Blackburn, stenographer for the governor. The warrants allege that Governor Blease was libeled by certain editorial publications in the Record. Mr. Moore promptly furnished bond in the sum of $5,000.

Death of Robert Craig

Robert Craig, one of Oconee's most highly respected citizens, died at his home in the Taber section last Friday, April 17th, and was buried in the cemetery of Chauga church on Sunday, the 19th. Mr. Craig was 79 years of age. He was a consistent Christian and staunch church worker for many years, and leaves behind an enviable record as a citizen, Christian and confederate soldier. He served throughout the war, rendering valiant service to the cause of the Confederacy, after the conflict of arms taking up with the energy of the work of rehabilitating the country left desolate by reason of the war. In early life he married Miss Sarah Wheeler, of Georgia, and had he lived until the 19th of April (the day of his burial) he would have celebrated with his life companion the 50th anniversary of their wedding. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Arthur Craig, of Central, Pickens county, and W. R. Craig, of the Westminster section; and six daughters, Mrs. Heppie Moorehead, Mrs. Clarke Dickson, Mrs. Sallie Dickson, Mrs. Carrie Honea, Mrs. Fannie Perkins and Miss Mollie Craig, who reside in the vicinity of Westminster. There are numerous grandchildren also to mourn his passing away. To the bereaved ones we extend sincere sympathy in their sorrow.—Keewee Courier.

Invitation to a Mountain Service

On May 3, 1914, at 11 o'clock a. m. till 2 o'clock p. m., all the followers of Christ are cordially invited to assemble ourselves together on the mountain between Chapman's bridge across Keewee River, and Boone's Creek church, just on the side of the road, three miles north of Salem, S. C.

This is one step and example of our Saviour and his commandments, when he said: "Follow me." Brethren, how many have obeyed this? Did He not first make known his will to man on the mount? Did not Moses receive the law on the mount? Did not Jesus make known his glory to his brethren on the mount? It was on a mount when Jesus fed those who had followed him three days without food.

Brethren and sisters this please remember. Come without making broad your phylacteries or enlarging the borders of your garments. Remember that a Paul said, "that which is unseemly in the sight of man is abomination in the sight of God. So brethren and friends, come to the mountain service just as you would go to your neighbors house, mill or field, for God sees us everywhere.

Remember, has not God chosen the poor of this world? Jesus Christ became poor in this world that we might be rich. He says, "follow me." He also says, "if any man will come after me, let him deny himself and follow me."

It is requested of all who will come up on the mountain and they who will speak something as to our Saviour's walks and talks to his people, his will and ways to be made known.

All singers are asked to bring their books and select songs bearing on this kind of meeting. The spirit says come, and let him that heareth say come, and whosoever will, let him come. J. R. MEECE.

Card of Thanks

Mr. Editor:—Please allow us to extend our most heartfelt thanks to our good friends and neighbors and to Dr. Robinson; also our sister, Mrs. Gosnell, for their patience and kindness during our illness. May the very richest of blessings rest upon them is our prayer. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gibson, Pickens, S. C.

Look to Your Plumbing

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.
