W. R. Davenport of Parker Better After First Dose of Remedy.

Thousands of others suffering from maladies of the stomach have found relief as quickly as Mr. Davenport did. This remarkable remedy is known all over the country. The first dose proves no long treatment.

W. R. Davenport of Parker, N. C., long suffered from a peculiar malady of the stomach. He sought treatment with but little relief. At times it seemed that he would have to give up hope.

NINE AVIATORS DIE IN A MIMIC BATTLE

AUSTRIAN MILITARY MEN MEET TRAGIC DEATH IN SHAM FIGHT IN AIR.

BODIES BADLY MUTILATED

Aeroplane Makes Attack on Dirigible; Latter Ripper Open—Explosion Follows Immediately.

Vienna.—Nine burned and mutilated bodies, the splintered fragments of an aeroplane and the charred remains of a big dirigible balloon are the mute records of one of the most sensational disasters which has occurred since man learned to fly.

The dirigible military balloon Koertling left Fischamend, 11 miles from Vienna, manned by Capt. Johann Hauswirth, in command, Lieutenant Ernst Hoffstetter, Lieutenant Bruer, Lieutenant Haidinger, Corporal Hadlma, Corporal Weber and Engineer Kammerer.

At the elapse of half an hour a military biplane, with Lieutenant Platz and Lieutenant Hoosta aboard, started in pursuit.

It was the intention of Captain Hauswirth to take photographs of the movements of the troops below and then to join in the maneuvers.

As might a wasp bent on attacking some clumsy enemy, the aeroplane circled several times around the balloon, now darting closer to her, and then away, always apparently steering off just in time to avoid an actual collision.

Meanwhile the balloon continued to rise until it was about 1,300 feet from the ground. The aeroplane, at a still greater height, maneuvered until it appeared to be nearly over the dirigible. Then it began its descent. It was the evident intention of the pilot of the aeroplane to take by a position directly above the dirigible, within striking distance, but owing either to a fatal miscalculation of distance or speed, the nose of the biplane struck the envelope of the airship and ripped it wide open.

A tremendous explosion followed, the balloon burst into flames, which enveloped the biplane, and in a moment the wreckage began to drop, crashing at length like lead to the slope of a hill. Almost at the same moment the wife of Lieutenant Hoffstetter, who had been married only a month, arrived in a motor car.

FIRES WAR SECRETARY.

Carranza Deposes Gen. Felipe Angeles From Cabinet Job. Sattillo, Mexico, (via Laredo, Texas) Gen. Felipe Angeles, acting secretary of war of the constitutional cabinet, was deposed from that position by order of Gen. Carranza for disobedience of orders.

Angeles is general of artillery in Villa's army and a strong Villa partisan. His removal from the cabinet reduces him to the rank of general. He is a graduate of Chapultepec Military academy and has played a prominent part in Villa's campaigns.

It is stated that 30,000 men under Gen. Gonzalez are being mobilized for the campaign to the south and that several detachments already have left for San Luis Potosi.

Can't Move Fast. Washington.—While the house was sparring over the question of remaining in session to make progress on the sundry civil bill, Representative Levy of New York introduced a resolution to provide that congress adjourn July 15. He had it read from the clerk's desk, but efforts to get any further consideration for it were vain.

Big Transfer Gold. New York.—What is said in the financial district to have been the greatest transfer of gold ever made between sub-treasuries occurred during the week when $45,000,000 of the precious metal was delivered at the sub-treasury here. The gold in bars and coin came from other branches of the United States treasury and the shipment, it was said, was prompted by the fact that for the last six weeks this country has been losing gold to Europe on a large scale. Since the first of May $52,000,000 has gone out.

Vent Wrath on Suffragettes. London.—An artificial lake gave a big crowd an opportunity to vent their wrath on suffragist interruptors of David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who spoke at Denmark Hill, in the South of London, but chivalrous discriminations was employed as between the men and women disturbers, the women being chased off the grounds and the men tucked under the arm.

The man who fared worst was a clergyman, said to be a member of the Rev. Frankham's Rev. Rev. group.

Have you put your name on the club roll?

Born unto Mr and Mrs. Ben Haynes, Tuesday, twin boys.

Born unto Mr and Mrs. W. H. Field, June 19th, a ten-pound girl.

Look over the announcements. Three new ones this week.

Mrs. Sallie Robinson of Liberty is on a visit to her son, C. E. Robinson.

Miss Lyda Folger of Easley visited Miss Stella Newbery last week.

Miss Myra Lou Cochran, of Calhoun, is visiting the family of her uncle, A. J. Boggs.

Johnnie Joe McFall has returned from Wofford College to spend the summer at home.

Miss Thyolia Griffin, a pretty young lady of Greenville, visited friends in Pickens this week.

Dr. T. A. Seawright attended the meeting of the State Dental Association in Greenville last week.

Clerk of Court John Craig and Dr. W. R. Craig, of Wall-halla, visited relatives in Pickens Sunday.

We are glad to state that Mr. John Roper is improving in health, after being under the weather for some time.

We have a communication from "Black Eyed Kid" which we would publish, but we do not know who sent it to us.

The home of J. H. G. McDaniel is now open to summer boarders. This is an ideal place for rest and enjoyment. His terms are reasonable.

Mrs. J. L. Bolt of Easley is visiting friends in Pickens. Having formerly lived in Pickens, she has many friends here who are always glad to see her.

Gus Wilson, the accommodating butcher at Finley's meat market, will enjoy the months of July and August as a vacation. He will leave next week for his home in Piedmont.

The W. C. T. U., held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. L. M. Craig last Monday afternoon. This is a noble organization and all women should belong to it.

A special show will be at the Pastime moving picture theatre all next week. Pictures of all the babies in town will be made free and shown on the screen at the theatre. The baby receiving the most votes will receive a prize. Pictures of local business houses will also be shown.

Spends Summer in Europe. Greenville.—Dr. E. W. Carpenter left Greenville recently to be away during the entire summer. From June 22 to 27 he will attend annual session of the American medical Association at Atlantic City. On the 30th he will sail for England, having planned to do special work in London during the month of July. While in the great metropolis he will attend as a delegate the clinical congress of surgeons of North America. The convention will be entertained by the Royal College of England.

Politics in Bamberg. Bamberg.—County politics is beginning to warm up here, with the time for the speaking campaign approaching. The state senator, the sheriff, auditor, clerk of the court and master hold over this year, but there will be lively races for all the offices which are before the people at this time. For Bamberg's two places in the house of representatives the following have offered themselves: B. D. Carter, J. W. Crum, Jr., J. ordon Brabham, B. W. Miley and Francis F. Carroll.

CAPTAIN JETER R. HORTON WAS A BUSY MAN AT VERA CRUZ.

SENT ASHORE VERY EARLY

South Carolinian Has Handled Some Heavy Responsibilities Well During Crisis in Mexico.

Columbia.—Capt. Jeter R. Horton, U. S. M. C., formerly a South Carolina newspaper man, was one of the first officers sent ashore at Vera Cruz, April 21, when the city was seized by American forces, and on him devolved for some time the purveyance of ammunition and provisions for upwards of 6,000 men, as well as the furnishing of transportation to the wounded.

The story of his activities is told in part by a dispatch from Vera Cruz to the New York Herald, as follows: "Capt. Jeter R. Horton, quartermaster of the Second regiment, First brigade, United States marine corps, has thoroughly demonstrated his ability as an efficient quartermaster by the splendid work accomplished during the first few weeks of the occupation of Vera Cruz. Capt. Horton was among the first to land on April 21 with the three companies of marines from the U. S. S. Prairie. He at once established his headquarters in the large warehouse on the water front, which was later designated by the military authorities as the temporary depot or distributing point.

"The tons of provisions for the sailors and marines from the various ships, approximately 6,000 men, were turned over to Capt. Horton, who was also the officer in charge of land transportation. By means of three five ton automobile trucks, valued at $15,000, which Capt. Horton had commandeered from the freight station, together with numerous wagons and carts, large quantities of supplies were successfully distributed to the troops in camp throughout the city and surrounding country. The distribution of the provisions and the handling of the transportation was well systematized and everything worked without a hitch under Capt. Horton's management.

"Upon the return of the sailors to their respective ships, Capt. Horton continued in charge of all provisions for the marines on shore. The successful manner in which the work was accomplished has won for Capt. Horton the praise and commendation of his senior officers. Although one of the junior officers of the quartermaster corps, he has demonstrated his ability to cope with the most experienced."

Capt. Horton is still on duty at Vera Cruz.

NO SHORT WEIGHTS.

Will Not Be Tolerated by Southeastern Millers Association.

Columbia.—Inspectors of the state department of agriculture are rigidly enforcing the weights and measures law. The members of the Southeastern Miller's association will do everything possible to aid in the enforcement of the law.

Merchants in South Carolina have received the following bulletin from J. B. McLemore, secretary of the association: "I have been advised from time to time, by the mills doing business in South Carolina, that they have had four seized because of short weights. I have had this matter up with Mr. Watson on one or two occasions, and I have also talked to him personally about the matter. In his letters, and also in my conference with him, I learned that he has not seized flour or meal that showed reasonable variation from the original weight. "I am quite sure that Mr. Watson intends only to protect the honest manufacturer and the consumer. He has not disposition whatever to impose a hardship on any one. He does, however, intend to enforce his laws firmly, but, at the same time, with reason. In this effort, it occurs to me that he should receive the cooperation of every one.
